

Somewhere in France

Dec 9/12/16

Dear Father,
just a few lines to let you know that I am still alright.
This card is a French made of the British Bank which you hear so much about the Germans you can see running away in front of it. Publication Française
I think it is a real good one I had a letter from Alex the other day & he has put a class on in for me to be with him & he thinks he will get me to. Alit Taylor is here & he is so pretty hard does he to is in the artillery. My love Father & wish you had stopped & happy this is no place for a lad I can tell you. Well Father & goodbye & I hope you have a good one in your new home. Goodbye From Bill.
