GIFT OF BANNER

The Waipukurau and Districts Scottish Society has an anonymous well-wisher whose gift to the group will become a permanent feature of any ingleside it holds.

the banner had with it a note which read "from a well-wisher", Mr Norriss said.

The banner is made of painted canvas and bears the name of the artist, Maureen Curran, of Tauranga.

Mr Norriss said the society did not want to upset the well-wisher by searching for their identity but the society wanted to express its thanks.

The banner has already been put to use and was displayed at the society's last ingleside at which senior citizens were special guests.

SEVEN PIPE BANDS IN MARCH PRIOR TO GATHERING OF CLANS

The main street of Waipukurau was thronged early on Saturday night when seven pipe bands marched through the town prior to taking part in the second annual gathering of clans held by a joint committee representing the Waipawa and Waipukurau Scottish Societies. It provided a bright spectacle and frequently the crowd surged on to the street to applaud the pipers.

A competition was held in conjunction with the display, trophies being donated by district mercantile firms. It resulted as follows:—Street march and music: A grade., Dannevirke; B grade, H.B. Scottish, C grade, Napier ladies. Fall in and inspection: H.B. Scottish.

Other bands which took part were City of Hastings, Feilding, Foxton and Waipawa.

The trophies were presented at the Memorial Hall at the conclusion of the display by the mayor of Waipawa, Mr H. S. Rathbone. He said that he was sure that the annual gathering helped to bring the two towns in Central Hawke's Bay closer together. There was no doubt that the function had come to stay.

At the hall, the chiefs of the visiting societies were piped in. An official welcome was extended by the Waipukurau chief, Mr D. MacKenzie. He expressed pleasure at seeing such a large crowd and took the opportunity of thanking all those who had helped with the gathering, mentioning especially the secretary, Mr D. G. Russell.

The Waipawa chief, Mr W. J. Lawrence, said that it was an exciting sight to see the street march and those taking part were to be congratulated. He also conveyed appreciation to the marching girls who had led each band.

Mr W. G. MacKenzie, Palmerston North, and formerly of Waipukurau, spoke on behalf of the visitors, acknowledging the warm welcome. The mayor and mayoress of Waipukurau, Mr and Mrs H. M. Winlove, attended during the evening.

A varied programme of dances was enjoyed, music being provided by members of the Waipukurau Orchestral Society and pipe bands. Junior members of the Thistle Club, Hastings, gave highland dances. The masters of ceremonies were Messrs N. Coughlan, M. Lansdown and J. Warlow.

Over the past two years the Society has operated with a small council and is now down to a total of six officers with no potential Council members offering themselves for duty. With very little interest from Central Hawke's Bay people in the Inglesides the Society is totally dependent on the support of kindred Societies.

The Society was financially very sound and there was a membership of 57 at its conclusion. Forty to ninety people regularly attended the very enjoyable Inglesides but outside Council members, Central Hawke's Bay people numbered only 3 – 6 at these occasions.

Trustee Meeting January 2013

It was decided that the Society's records and property would be distributed or disposed of by various members and some items had already found new homes following the suggested distribution list drawn up at the last Council meeting.
