High Infidelity

BY JACK POPPLEWELL

• A GREAT PLAY! • A GREAT CAST!

FOR A NIGHT OF FUN & LAUGHTER!

Neville Baker - has been seen lurking at Rep. for so long now that he is nicknamed "The Phantom". Enjoys lending his hand to farce as long as he gets it back!

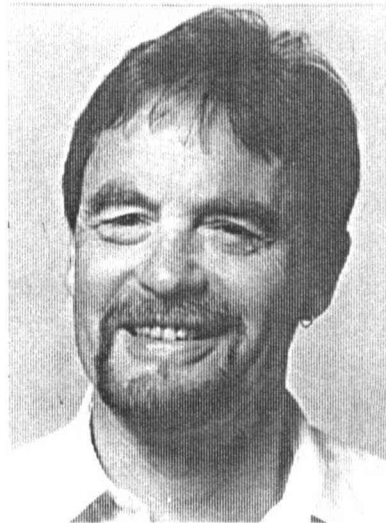

Robert Hickey - (nee Rob) has not been seen for a while at Rep. - maybe he was just misplaced! Has enjoyed playing the role of Herbert as it doesn't require him to act. Believes that blondes have more fun,

Kathy Betesta - was last seen at Rep. in "Out of Order". Enjoys her role as Jane although she does prefer to be more "in the action" so to speak.

Peter Pigott - Last seen in "Birthday Suite" . Is coping well with the role of Arthur although is having some problems with finding an English accent. Well known for stupid number plates.

Mary Fisher - has not been seen on Rep's stage since her last retirement. Mary enjoys the sort of role that enables her to play young romantic leads. Unfortunately no-one gives them to her!

Mark Wallace - is a newcomer to Rep. He has been horrified to hear that, on a bad night, he bears a strong resemblance to Chris Davidson. Mark relishes the demands of his huge role in this play.

Brent Fairlie - was last seen in our 1997 Art Deco play. Since then he has been doing "stuff" for other groups. Brent tells us he does really good stuff! Brent is humble too!

Joy Hamerlink was last seen at Rep. in the deep dark past. She returns to the role of Laura with a wry wish that she could wear her slinky black nightie again. Joy has had a very boring life.

Erin Smith - is new to Rep. but it doesn't show. She took on the role of Susan because it gave her the chance to change clothes lots of times and to experiment with a lifestyle that she could really get to like!!
