

" THE WHISTLE "

This whistle was issued to Captain Norman Leslie Shaw who went oversea during the first world war (1914-18) Mr, Sh_aw went over seas as a private and was in Galipoli campaign Then he served in Flanders as far as I know. One of the uses of this whistle was to signal the troops to get out of the trenches and advance. It was also put to good use when he and his wife managed France House at Eskdale from 1938
