ADRESSE

simply laugh & joke, & say what it do bumps when a high explosive misses its mark. We don't mind the Shrapnel, but no bon the High explosive.

Dear Dot,

Just a few lines to let you know that both Jim & myself are still going strong. We have just come out of the trenches for ~~some~~ days rest, after an exciting ~~some~~ days in the front line. I must say that both of us had what you might call a very narrow shave. One soon gets used to hearing old Fritz's shells coming & you

Our boys had very few casualties, but I must say we were lucky, for the night we left old Fritz struffed is severely. I am now attached to the machine gun section. Sincerely hope you are all well at home, as this leaves me. We are enjoying ourselves just now, I often wish I could write a line to give you a great account of how they were going
