

SEEING THINGS IN LONDON.

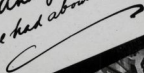

If you're out in London
In taxi, train or bus

You see the Marble Arch like this

And Fleet Street
looking thus

Permit me my opinion,
And don't get in a huff

But take my tip
And get home quick,
You've had about enough!

Dear Dot! I hope you won't for a moment think that I was ever in a condition to see London as this p.p.c. depicts - still you can bet your boots that I am having a nice time now, taking all things into consideration Am just undergoing 14 days sick-leave, which means that I am practically well again. Hoping you are also. Kind regards to all. Yours sincerely
J. J. G.
