CONTEST SHOULD BE A HEAP OF FUN

Nothing really new to the Hurlers' Highland Games at the end of the year except a new feature - a "New Zealand" championship heather bagpipe contest.

It was held on a new addition to the New Zealand Heather Bagpipe Association which, incidentally, is the first time since 1961 that the contest has been held in Toronto.

The New Zealand Heather Bagpipe Association is recognized by the world organization in Edinburgh, Scotland, and has several fine officers - President Keith Haines, of Blackfoot, North who holds a seat on the world governing body and Executive John Cameron, of Prince Rupert in "Bagpipers' Capital".

Participation in the contest is open to all who are members of the association and who are over 16 years of age. The contest is held in the form of a "New Zealand" championship heather bagpipe contest.

AT A PRACTICE in Windsor Park recently, a billed Mr. John Pryor is pictured ceremoniously planting the heather on a half-acre with the assistance of Allan Ludlow, 15, of Keransh Hill School, in attendance. Hurlers of the deep from Hurler mound stand on the lawn with both feet firmly planted as the moment of truth.

Come on in.

Bigger and better each year

The Easter Highland Games have continued to grow each year and the ingredients which gave the games that special Scottish flavour when they were first held in March 1951, remain — traditional dancing, piping and a drum major's display.

Visitors at these last games have seen an added programme for children — the Treasurer of Ladies' Club's decorated athletes serve a trifle dish and a grand ribbon parade in the Bank's Bay Kettle Association.

The seven programmes which included a most interesting reading. These were the ones when the Big Grand in Hereinga Street advertised in the programme — silverware, dishes, delightfully decorated by lovely dainties and Unwearable David Clark who will compete in wheel events at the games was listed as a competitor in the trifle dish run in conjunction with the games.

In the first year the games officials listed names — Pagan, the Mayor, Mr R. D. Brown, President, Mr H. H. Pappell, Creative, Women's C. B. Fisher, J. R. Atwell, R. C. Sinton, J. K. Snelley, J. W. James, G. R. Butler, J. J. Morgan, J. Wallace, Greater Hastings, H. K. Sengh, H. Brown, Miss Wylie, Piping and Dancing Societies, H. M. Fleming, M. McMillan, Hastings District South Society, J. Sison, D. Campbell, J. Colburn, Hastings Sports Club, Hastings, T. Brown, D. Moore, Hastings's Sea Scouts Pipe Band, J. Cunningham, Bank's Bay Kettle Club, G. Harcourt, organising secretary, Ed. Chaver, publicity officer.

Chance to have a go

Like to have a go at tossing the sheaf or tossing the caber? Well, it's over to you. Leave us on Saturday and Monday, spectators will be invited to have a go at these two events with no formal entry and no entry fee.

But they won't let you have a go at throwing the hammer. They did at the first games 31 years ago and it was a miracle somebody wasn't killed as the completely inexperienced spectator threwers let the heavy iron ball and chain go in any direction, spectators in the way or not.

So now the experienced have to stick with the sheaf or the caber.

organised by Gary Marshall from the Wellington Weightlifting Association, assisted by the Lewis Weightlifting Club. And weightlifters will be coming to the games from Nelson.

World champion powerlifter Precious McKenzie — a great favourite with the crowd — will give a demonstration at 2.30pm on Saturday and again in the centre arena on Sunday afternoon.

CHAMPION weightlifter Precious McKenzie signs autographs at last year's Highland Games. McKenzie will be back this year and will give demonstrations at 2.30pm on Saturday and again in the centre arena on Sunday afternoon.
