Dramatic Plea Roosevelt For Peace Pledge And Mussolini Is Gold-Shouldered From Hitler

BERLIN DENOUNCES ROOSEVELT

Peace Plan Scorned In Germany

TRUCULENT DECLARATIONS

A sensational development in the European situation during the week-end was President Roosevelt's invitation to Signor Mussolini and Herr Hitler to join in signing a non-aggression pledge involving 31 European and Near East States.

President Roosevelt urged that a 10-year guarantee of the frontiers of the nations concerned be given in order to ease the existing situation.

Both Britain and France greeted this step with approval, Mr Chamberlain and M. Daladier sending messages to the Fuhrer and Il Duce urging them to accept the plan.

The reactions in Germany were startling. President Roosevelt was denounced in the most bitter terms, Herr Hitler's own newspaper leading the attack. From semi-official and other sources, including a German Government spokesman, it is learned that Herr Hitler will reject the plan.

No message has, at an early hour this morning, been received from Italy.

Meanwhile, America has dispatched almost the whole of her fleet to the Pacific, while France and Britain have taken extraordinary precautions in view of military movements in Spain. Forty German warships are to exercise off Spain this week.

There are signs that the German Press campaign against Poland is growing in intensity.

Fidelity To Ideals

Of Freedom

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received April 16, 9.0 p.m.) PARIS, April 15.

The French Premier (M. Daladier) has published France's full and unconditional endorsement of President Roosevelt's declaration and informed the American American and informed the American Ambas sador to France (Mr Williams Bullitt) of it.

A Note affirms France's fidelity to the ideals of freedom, with the in dependence of all nations. It is con sidered that President Roosevelt's message is capable of completely transforming the international sit uation, being as important as his September messages, which are be-lieved to have helped to stave off the danger of war. The President's action has inten-sified hope that a catastrophe will be averted.

"Le Temps" declares that now is the moment for Herr Hitler to give outstanding proof of his will to peace, with which he has always declared himself animated. It adds that Mr Roosevelt's is the most important peace move so far.

All war materials and stores at Corfu have been transferred from the the British Foreign Office, and by residence, "Chequers", and to the Foreign Secretary (Viscount Halifax) in Yorkshire.

Both Mr Chamberlain and Lord Halifax, on behalf of his Majesty's Government, warmly welcome Mr Roosevelt's action and have authorised the issue of the following statement: "His Majesty's Government learned with cordial approval of the message which was communicated last night to Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini by Mr Roosevelt, and which has now been issued to the Press.

"His Majesty's Government entire-ly endorses Mr Roosevelt's estimate of the international situation. It of the international situation. It believes that the statesmanlike initiative which Mr Roosevelt has been inspired to take offers a real opportunity of averting the catastrophe which overhangs Europe, and which the Government is convinced is feared in every country.

The American Ambassador to London (Mr. J. P. Kennedy), who was a guest at Windsor Castle at the week-end, discussed President Roosevelt's Note with his Majesty. The Leader of the Opposition (Mr. C. HITLER PRESS FORESHADOWS REJECTION

LONDON, April 16.

It is semi-officially stated at Munich, where Herr Hitler received President Roosevelt's message urging a peace declaration, that he will turn down the proposals.

A German spokesman declared that Germany would never allow herself to be duped, as she was once before by President Wilson's 14 points.

He added that President Roosevelt had first stirred up the fear of war. Now he was playing the opposite game, adopting President Wilson's

Can Isolation Now Be Abandoned?

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received April 17, 12.20 a.m.) WASHINGTON, April 15.

WASHINGTON, April 15.
President Roosevelt's appeal to the dictatorships has won wide Congressional approval, but almost equally general scepticism that it would achieve any success. The majority regard it merely as a gesture, which, if the dictators are looking for a way out, couldn't do any harm.

There is a growing feeling in Congress that it is too late for American influence to count abroad. Middle road thinkers now believe that the United States could have constituted 20 years could have constituted 20 years could have constituted 20 years and the control of the country of the co tributed 20 years ago to a stabler and more contented world, but that the country's insistence through the years that it has no part in any European problems has been accepted in European chancelleries.

They believe that the totalitarian plans have been formulated on the assumption of isolation by the United States, which could not be changed at this later date by a mere Presidential pronouncement.

ROOSEVELT SUGGESTS A PEACE PLEDGE

Guarantees For 31 States

British Official Wireless. (Received April 16, 7.30 p.m.) RUGBY, April 15.

Personal messages sent last night to Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini by President Roosevelt ask them to pledge themselves not to attack by force of arms any territory, colony, or protectorate of some 20 independent States, which are enumerated, in Europe and Asia.

"I have previously approached you on the subject of the settlement of political, economic, and social problems by peaceful means, and without recourse to arms, but the course of events appears to have brought back the threat of the army," says a passage.

"If this threat continues it seems inevitable that a great part of the world will be engulfed in general ruin. The entire world—victorious nations and defeated nations

"I have always been convinced that international problems can be solved round a table. You will not misunderstand the frankness in which I send the message. The heads of Governments in this hour literally responsible for the fate of humanity in coming years cannot fail to hear their people's prayers to be protected in the unforseeable chaos of war.

"History will hold them account."

"He added that the rumours circulated by the Press of impending agressive moves were supplemented by rumours in confidential dispatches from official sources.

Position Strengthened.

It is felt in political circles that the President has at least strengthened his own position by demolishing the charges of being a warmonger being made against him within the United States. It is felt also that the appeal may help the formation of a "Stop Hitler bloc."

It is noted that in asking for nonaggression pledges from the dictators the President specifically listed 31 countries, incidentally omitting Danzig. If the assurances are refused the countries may all feel themselves in the orbit of totalitarian ambition and hasten to line up with the democracies.

The "New York Times" interprets President Roosevelt's message not as an appeal "to better nature and the sense of responsibility, which the dictators do not possess," but as a warning "that if they resort to acts of aggression threatening the peace of the world they will find the odds overwhelmingly against them."

It is felt in political circles that their and happiness of all, even the least. I hope that your answer will make it possible for humanity to lose fear and regain security for many years to come." "It is, however, unfortunately necessary to take into account recent events. Three nations in Europe and one in Africa have seen the death of their independence. A vast territory in another independent nation in the Far East has been discovered by the resulting peaceful surroundings: first, measures for progressive relief from the crushing burden of armaments, and secondly, measures for the opening up of avenues of international trade, to the end that every nation should be enabled to buy and sell on equal terms in the world market, as well

Revealing for the first time the untold drama of wireless operators on merchant ships, Universal's big-scale production of "The Storm" showing at the Cosy Theatre, Hastings.

Graphic action and realism are in dicated through an all-star cast, which includes such rugged per-formers as Charles Bickford, Bar-ton MacLane, Preston Foster, Andy Devine and Frank Jenks. Romance in the story is carried by Tom Brown as the young brother, and Nan Grey as his sweetheart, the pretty nurse.

Impressive scenes in the screen-play by Daniel Moore, Hugh King and Theodore Reeves show the crashing of a ship into an iceberg, the explosion of an oil tanker as it sails from port, and several rousing hand-to-hand battles between rival ships' crews when they meet in waterfront cafes.

Logical motivation of the story is provided by Bickford, as a reckless wireless operator, who loves the adventure of his profession but seeks to prevent his brother, Brown, from following the same career. Nan Crew est as the ship's nurse. following the same career. Nan Grey, cast as the ship's nurse, has her most important opportunity since she scored with Deanna Durbin in "Three Smart Girls."

to see this masterpiece.

In the film the stage play's delightful drolleries and farcical fun have been retained to a large degree, while a generous measure of comedy-drama and a few dashes of sentiment have been added to give verisimilitude to the motivation. The result is a superbly ingratiating picture, interwoven with ro-ing picture, interwoven with romance and genuine emotion.

The story concerns itself with the astonishing happenings in the household of Grandpa Vanderhof, who one morning, thirty years before, went up in the office elevator, came down and never went back. Lionel Barrymore plays Grandpa with a simple artistry that is sheer genius.

CECIL KELLAWAY AGAIN

"Mr Chedworth Steps Out" To-day

Mr Chedworth, or to give him his full title, George Chedworth, is already a great favourite with Australy tralasians everywhere he has visited to date. And this big-hearted lov-able head of the Chedworth family, able head of the Chedworth family, made famous by Cinesound's current screen production, "Mr Chedworth Steps Out," which is now showing at the Plaza Theatre, Napier, is destined to find a permanent place in the affections of audiences everywhere. ences everywhere.

In real life, he is none other than Cecil Kellaway back to delight again in an even more human characterisation. Since his previous Cinesound production, Mr Kellaway has been to Hollywood, where he made six films under his long-term contract with R.K.O.-Radio, which he won by his sterling performance in "It Isn't Done."

"It Isn't Done."

Kellaway makes George Chedworth "live" on the screen. He makes this lonely, down-trodden little man who is fighting to uphold his inner better self, a real-life character, who wins our sympathies. And when the same George Chedworth, reclaiming himself as a man, becomes at last the real head of his house, and . . . steps out, you'll want to pat him on the back and enthus iastically exclaim, "Good on you, Cheddy!"

"Mrs Chedworth," George's

"Mrs Chedworth," George's nagging and socially ambitious wife, is cleverly portrayed by Rita Pauncefort. Gwen, the eldest daughter, is charmingly played by Joan Deering. Australia's talented and popular young song-bird, Jean Hatton, is the younger daughter—"Susie." Peter Finch, of radio fame, is the eldest son, Arthurand little Rodney Jacobs is "Freddie." Others in the specially selected cast include James Raglan, Sidney Wheeler, Ronald Whelan, Charmaine Ross and Harvey Adams.

SMASHING ROMANCE OF THE SEA

'The Mutiny Of The Elsinore"

Smashing romance of the sea. A thrilling adaptation of Jack London's most popular novel is being finally screened at the Mayfair Theatre. Years ago, one of the greatest hits of the silent screen was a screen version of Jack London's famous version. The Mutiny of the Plsinger." novel, "The Mutiny of the Elsinore." Now the picture has been refilmed as a talkie, and according to reports is even more thrilling with dialogue. Acknowledged by admirers of Jack London to be his most exciting and popular story, "The Mutiny of The Elsinore" tells of life aboard a windjammer, of the hardships and dangers that the sailors on these romantic vessels have to face. Lyn Harding appears in the role of the bluships for the party who ing appears in the role of the blustering and bullying first mate, who, through his cruelty and his viciousness, drives the crew to murder and mutiny. Paul Lukas is seen in the role of an author, sailing aboard the vessel so that he can get ideas for a new sea story. Kathleen Kelly plays opposite him, and is the only woman in the cast, appearing in the role of the skipper's daughter. Blood-curdling yells from savage throats . . . thunderous blasts from white men's rifles and artillery . . . prairie fires . . . the flaming drama white men's files and artillery... prairie fires... the flaming drama of the old West! Everyone Agog.

Among the proposals placed before the Northland Zone A Centennial Committee as a desirable commemoration is the establishment of an experimental farm. The proposal emanates from the Northland District Pig Council, which is convening a meeting of interested organisations early in the new year. Everyone Agog.

In the 18th century people were agog over an engine which would run on coal gas. It was built by John Barber, an Englishman. Designs were improved, development was expedited, and the internal industry really was born. There were "double acting" engines which used the crankshaft, connecting rods and piston assembly about the same way that it is used in the

is not all Gospel that is in the Bible. The word "Gospel" means good news" or "glad tidings.' "good news" or "glad tidings."

We read in Hebrews 9. 27—"It is appointed unto men, once to dle, and after this the judgment." It is not good news to the sinner, that he has to stand before a Holy God in judgment. What then is the Gospel? Paul states in 1 Cor. 15. 1-4, "I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand: by which also ye are saved. For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ dled for our sins according to the Scriptures. And that He was buried and that He rose again the third day, according to the Scriptures." That is the Gospel as formulated by the apostle Paul.

HAVE you any room for Jesus,
He who bore your load of sin?
As He knocks and asks for admission,
Sinner, will you let Him in?

A CHANGE FOR MOTORISTS

CARE-FREE RIDES BY RAIL

Here is a good thought for motorists and their families: Why have always the wearing worry of the steering-wheel? Why have the frequent dread of another car's wild rush around the dangerous bend of a narrow road? Why be always working while travelling? Why not have the ease and freedom of limbs which the train can give? Why not have the fearless joy of seeing the country fly past you, or the option of reading or chatting with friends, with no more anxiety about the travelling than if you were sitting in an armchair at home?

MOMENTOUS DECISIONS

The dramatic appeal made by President Roosevelt to Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini for a pledge against aggression and for a guarantee of the integrity of the majority of the States in Europe and the Near East, came as a bombshell. No one expected, or dared to hope, that America would so far involve itself in the European imbroglio as to suggest and support what was tantamount to the re-forming of the League of Nations with an amended Covenant. Certainly no one imagined that President Roosevelt would address such a direct message to the trouble-makers of the world, virtually accusing them of responsibility should war eventuate. In its conception, the peace plan proffered by President Roosevelt was bold and sweeping. It was intended to remove the existing threat to world peace by establishing the sanctity of international law, and the sovereign integrity of the States concerned. It pointed out the grave disturbances caused by existing uncertainty and fear. No one message could have been better timed or more calculated to bring the world back from the brink of war. The response of Britain and France was instantaneous and enthusiastic. They, perhaps better than any other of the Powers, realised what the implications of President Roosevelt's message were, and they did not hesitate to add their plea to that of the United States of America.

The issues then arising were clear. If Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini accepted the suggestion, the threat of war would have been banished for at least a decade. This would have applied not only to the immediate causes and possibilities of conflicts, but also to any other events which might have arisen in the future to have provoked war. In short, the appeal asked the dictators whether they were prepared to declare for peace, or whether they would accept the onus for declaring against a pledge of non-aggression. It now appears that Herr Hitler, at least, will reject the appeal. Indeed, a German spokesman has ridiculed the whole idea, and it seems plain that this will be followed by an official reply declaring Germany's aloofness from a general antiaggression pledge. Signor Mussolini's reply, according to custom, will probably be similar.

This does not necessarily mean that Germany and Italy are declaring for war. But it is an ominous indication that they will not declare for peace. In the circumstances, a situation arises which can be described only as one of intolerable tension. The existing atmosphere of uncertainty and fear has been greatly intensified, and the smallest act may precipitate

There is no scare-mongering or sensationalism in this. It is a facing up to plain facts. President Roosevelt himself stressed this point. "The rumours circulated by the Press of impending aggressive moves have been supplemented by rumours in confidential dispatches from official sources," he said, in warning America against minimising the threat to peace. And if Germany and Italy are not, as now appears, prepared to pledge themselves with other nations generally against aggression, we must accept the implication as ominous to an extreme degree.

In short, we may as well face up to the brutal fact that the dictators will go to war if there is no other way of attaining their objectives. And, if these objectives affect the integrity of neighbouring States, aggression or the threat of aggression will be their primary weapon.

In an atmosphere such as this, the spirit of war will move and develop freely. Indeed, the situation which arose before Munich was nowhere near so tense or so dangerous as that which exists at the moment. If war is to be averted, it will come only after the most careful and adroit diplomatic manoeuvring. And even in this the outlook is not promising.

The world by now should realise clearly where it stands. The olive branch was held out by Mr Chamberlain and M. Daladier last week. This was followed by President Roosevelt's plan for a non-aggression pact. The apparent repudiation of these efforts by the dictators makes it clear that they set themselves, their opinions, and their ambitions above everything else. And if they are blind to reason, blind to justice, blind to civilisation and humanity, they cannot complain if the world becomes blind to them.

And, in pursuance of this, it is almost certain that the isolation plan will be applied with renewed vigour. The line, beyond which one step will bring upon their heads the combined might of the world, will be clearly and deliberately drawn. This is, indeed, the only peace plan left.

Six New Locomotives

The building of six powerful locomotives of the new Kb type is attracting a good deal of interest at the Hillside Railway Workshops at present. They are ge first of their class to be constructed in New Zealand, and an unusual feature of them is that the engine axles are fitted throughout with roller bearings. They are fully streamlined, and are to be completed in time to cope with the main flow of centenary traffic. The first will be ready for the road next month, and it is expected that the remaining five will following at the rate of one a month. The Kb locomotive is the K engine following at the rate of one a month. The Kb locomotive is the K engine fitted with a booster engine, which gives it increased pulling power.

The usual feminine curiosity is directed at this time of the year toward the new season's wearing apparel; and the autumn and winter footwear now opening up at F. Thorpe and Co. Ltd., will be found very satisfying. The keynote is rugged smartness. For evening wear Silver and Gold in plaited fronts are showing from 16/6. A full range of slippers also has just arrived from England.*

Less Hay Sold

Less hay than usual is being sold this year by farmers who normally have more than sufficient for their own requirements, according to Auckland merchants. It was reported that farmers who usually had a quantity of hay to dispose of were inclined not to sell this year in view of the exceptional season and the planks were utilised, and, despite the variety of materials, the pier was not only perfectly satisfactory in its purpose, but it also looked the part.

Confetti is generally associated with marriage ceremonies. A new brand of this light material was discovered by pedestrians passing a certain corner in a city area recently, when workmen were engaged in demolishing an hotel. "Look out for the Irish confetti down below," called a voice with more than a hint of brogue in it. On looking upwards passers-by were confronted with the spectacle of a thick shower of mortar, bricks, pieces of timber and sawdust—presumably all ingredients of "Irish confetti."

Year Old Apples

The remarkable keeping quality of last season's Sturmer apples produced in Canterbury is demonstrated by an experiment that is being carried out at the Papanui cool stores. Mr. R. G. I. Hamilton, or chard instructor in the Department of Agriculture, announced that he had sampled one of the apples from a case that had been stored since the beginning of last May, and he testified that it was in perfect condition. He thought the apples would remain sound for several months yet. Usually, he said, Sturmer apples show signs of wilt after seven months in cold storage.

"EVERY FIT MAN WOULD HAVE TO SERVE"

Emphatic Defence Statement By Hon. R. Semple

HIS OWN POSITION DEFINED

3y Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, April 15.

Speaking after a luncheon following the opening of the Whirokino trestle bridge, the Minister of Public Works (the Hon. R. Semple) made a most definite statement of what he considered were the duties of every physically fit man in New Zealand irrespective of age should New Zealand be threatened

"We in this little country, far as we are from the nerve centres of the world in which fast communications have destroyed distance, cannot regard ourselves as safe. We may be within the four corners of a world where conflict may rage. It is the duty of every physically fit man in this country to hold himself in readiness for the defence of New Zealand.

Mr Semple said he had got into trouble with the Government in 1914 because he fought war profiteers, as he considered them as great an enemy as the Kaiser of that day. "No one is going to take blood money while we are in power," continued Mr Semple. "I say to you definitely, this country is hot in a safety zone; it is in a danger zone on account of the modern facilities at the command of modern nations" in the condition of the modern facilities at the command of modern nations. "You may say you are too old. I am not too old. Those who are fit, whether they are boys or are 60, will have to do their part.

"I do not want you to go away thinking I am a scaremonger. I want to say again, however, we are not in a safety zone."

Mr Semple said he had got into trouble with the Government in the condition of the modern facilities at the command of modern nations.

ROME, April 15.
The German Air Minister (Marshall Goering) and Signor Mussolini received a great ovation in the Chamber of Fascist Corporations, ter (Count Ciano) announced the Union of Italy and Albania. He declared that the Albanians now had prosperity and liberty.

Democracies Attacked.
Count Ciano then attacked the democracies. He said that any attempt to upset the union of Italy and Albania would be met by action. The destinies of Italy and Albania were forever linked.
Cheering followed references to Japan's friendship.
Count Ciano concluded that Mr Chamberlain's speech on British policy was based on unchecked reports and ignored history, but that Italy fully agreed with the Prime Minister regarding the necessity of maintaining the Anglo-Italian agreement, to which Italy attributed great value, animated by an equal desire to maintain and observe all the clauses as hitherto. Italy's relations with Greece were excellent.

The victims were:—

Neil Harris, aged 24, 136 Bay View Road, Dunedin.

When the tragedy was first discovered it was thought that it was the result of the motor cycle having skidded, but further investigations revealed that it could have been the result of a hit-and-run accident.

A large body of detectives, assisted by Chief Traffic Inspector McDowell and Inspector Sutherland, commenced a searching inquiry, but up to a late hour to-night no arrest had been made.

It is understood that the victims of the accident were engaged to be married.

DETAILS OF THE MATCHES

The 1939 Rugby football season got away to a good start on Saturday, when bright and willing contests were witnessed in all four senior grade matches played in Napier and Hastings. Following a very evenly-fought match, Technical College Old Boys defeated Hastings by 13 points to 8, and Maori Agricultural College proved victorious over Napier High School Old Boys by 12 points to 6 in the two games contested at McLean Park, Napier, on Saturday. The matches at Nelson Park, Hastings, resulted in a win for Celtic over Marist by 4 points to 3 after an exciting and interesting match which was even throughout.

On No. 2 ground, Hastings Old Boys defeated Pirates 14-8 after a match which began dully but brightened in the second half. Both games were interesting.

Weather conditions were ideal and there was a large and enthusiastic following of spectators at both parks. The grounds were hard and the leather dry and fast, with deceptive bouncing qualities. With few exceptions, the players appeared to be fit, and the games moved at a fast pace, with numerous spectacular incidents to brighten the matches for numerous spectacular incidents to brighten the matches for the side-line supporters.

HASTINGS v. T.C.O.B.

A Good Win For Technical

SNAPPY FOOTBALL

A number of new players made their debut in Hawke's Bay football in the senior grade match between Hastings and T.C.O.B., played on No. 1 ground at McLean Park, at 2.45 p.m. on Saturday. Among these was Denys Rowbotham who has found a berth in the Hastings team. Although it is difficult to judge a player's worth on his performance in the first match of the season, Rowbotham showed distinct promise and should prove a decided acquisition to the club.

With honours even, the tussle became even more exciting and each movement was followed with intense interest by the gallery of spectators. Excitement rose to concert pitch when Technical were presented with an excellent opportunity to take the lead. From a bout of solid scrummaging in the Technical 20 yard area, Bassett broke through with the ball at his feet. He secured possession and passed to Cresswell who beat the Hastings fullback and Close co-operation and understanding was shown between the T.C.O.B. halfback, Younghusband, and the first five-eighths, Donoghue,

Surprising Speed Of Backs

MAORI BOYS WIN

Auguering well for the competition matches ahead, fast and open football of a high standard was witnessed in the second senior grade match between M.A.C. and N.H.O.B. contested on No. 2 ground, McLean Park, Napier, at 2.45 p.m. on Saturday. Surprising speed was shown by the Old Boys' back combination, while the forwards were quick to follow up in attacking movements. The M.A.C. boys will prove tough opposition during this year's programme if Saturday's match is any indication. Matching speed with speed and with considerable ability at controlling the ball with their feet, this team gave a sterling performance against strong opponents. This game was evenly matched, although it was rather more spectacular than the other contest from the spectators' point of view. In addition to the gate money collected, a sum of £5 3/6 was raised by individual subscription among the spectators, and appreciation of the generous public support and the gesture of the association was expressed by Mr G. Rochfort, representing the homes' board of governors.

Interest was added to the meeting by the inclusion of three novelty races, two of which were run between man and dog, Vernon McCutcheon, the well-known athlete matching his speed against China Clipper in the flat and Black Comedy in the hurdles, the athlete running 220 vards against the dogs' Moth 3. These unusual races created keen interest, and it was notable that although China Clipper won the flat event with comparative ease, Mc-Cutcheon scored a good victory over the hurdles, finishing five yards in front of his canine opponent in 26 4-5 sees.

Juniors Secure Victory By 29 Runs In Second Innings

A novel and interesting cricket match was played at the Hastings West School grounds on Saturday between the school committee and the schoolboys' senior team.

The teams were: Committee: Messrs. L. J. Mackersey (captain), Miller, Treacher, E. Harvey, Graham, A. E. Brooker Howard, Clark, Leete, Hodgkinson, A. Lowe, G. Lowe and C. Britten. Schoolboys: J. Baird (captain), R. Yorke, W. Lewis, K. Turnball, H. McLeod, R. Marshall, B. Henderson, H. Bone, W. Treacher, R. Curline, G. Howard and H. R. L. Bradly. Treacher, R. Curling and H. R. L. Bradly.

The committeemen compiled 48 runs (C. Britten 17) in the first innings against the schoolboys's 42 (W. Lewis 26). For the committeemen Mr. Brooker took five wickets and Mr. Mackersey four.

In the second innings the committee did not fare quite as well, scoring 37 (Howard 10), due mainly to steady bowling by Baird, Yorke and Marshall.

The school team replied with 72 Bradly 44 retired, thus winning by

NIGHT SCHOOLS

"Daily Mail" Special Service. WAIPAWA.

A good attendance of teachers from schools between Pukehou and Takapau assembled at Waipawa on Friday night for the monthly meeting of the Central Hawke's Bay branch of the New Zealand Education Institute. tion Institute.

The New Zealand Defence League is performing a service of paramount importance in our national life by emphasising (on a non-party basis) the pressing need for adequate measures calculated to safeguard the blessings we enjoy as dwellers within the British Commonwealth of Nations.

In the Hon. Wm. Perry, M.L.C., president of the New Zealand Returned Soldiers' Association, the League has a highly worthy legislator at its head, and he is displaying very commendable energy as well as ability in the educative campaign now in progress. The president (Mr. T. Taylor, Takapau) was in the chair.

General business affecting the welfare of the schools in Central Hawke's Bay was discussed. A grant of money to all schools entering teams in the primary schools' football competition was made. It is hoped to arrange a refresher course for teachers in the district in the near future, and the branch recommend Waipawa on account of accommodation being available.

The president introduced Miss Reynolds, at present on the staff of the Waipukurau District High School, who gave an address on her experiences as a teacher in the United States of America.

Miss Reynolds said that there was no centralisation of control of eduon behalf of the League's objective. Routed by ODERN medicines have to keep pace with M modern conditions. Success is dependent upon SAFE, SOOTHING, INSTANT ACTION. 'ASPRO' responds to every test of science, and every demand of the public. Its good effects are felt almost instantaneously because it goes to the root of the trouble, dispelling both cause and symptoms at one and the same time. Furthermore, it has been proved that 'ASPRO' does not harm the heart nor create nausea and gastric upset. 'ASPRO' works in exactly the opposite way to the old doping and drugging medicines. It is extracted and built up from natural products—it prepares the way for Nature—the greatest power of creative healing in the world. With the present spread of Autumn colds it is wise to take precautions. Three 'ASPRO' tablets taken at first signs and 2 tablets every 3 hours with a hot lemon or other stimulating

To keep your complexion always at its best, you must prepare for the various seasons in advance. Autumn weather is always changeable—hot or cold days, windy, wet or fine. It is hard to foretell what the next twenty-four hours will be like and therefore your skin will require protection in every possible manner.

from that used during summer. Astringents will not be used as frequently as in mid-summer, and it will be found that a good cleasing cream with a slightly astringent base will be excellent. This will not only nourish and tone up the skin, but will also help keep it clean and free from blemishes.

Another excellent plan is to keep some glycerine in a prominent place, and every time you wash the hands, while they are still wet massage some of the glycerine well into the skin.

If the skin becomes rough it can be cured in practically a night by massaging with cocoa butter. It can be quitely easily melted by placture that the product of the produc

MISS MARY WILSON MARRIED

BRIDE IN ICE-BLUE

Afternoon Wedding In Hastings

St. Matthew's Church, Hastings, was the scene of a very beautiful wedding on Saturday afternoon. The bride was Mary Rose, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Wilson, Tuaiaki, Lyndhurst Road, Hastings, and the bridegroom was John Kinsella, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ludbrook, of Pahia, Bay of Islands.

seila, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ludbrook, of Pahia, Bay of Islands.

The ceremony was performed by Dean Brocklehurst, who was assisted by the Rev. W. T. Drake. The organist was Mr. C. B. Spinney and the hymns, "Fight the Good Fight" and "Lead Us," were sung during the service.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers in cyclamen shades to harmonise with the gowns worn by the bride's attendants. The decorating was the work of Miss Connie Symes, who also made the cyclamen shaded posies which marked the guests' pews.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a beautiful model gown in Victorian style of iceblue slipper satin. The soft off-shoulder bodice trimmed at the neckline with pleated tulle, was finished with a delicate spray of pink roses, and the sleeves of fine parchment tulle were highly puffed at the shoulders and fitting at the wrist. The slightly trained, very full skirt was dainty with tufted honeycomb, and the long trained veil of parchment tulle was arranged with a halo effect and worn with a top-knot of pink, double cherry blossom. The bride's bouquet was of beautiful pink rosebuds.

The bride's attendants were her sisters, Mrs. Rex Ludbrook, matronof-honour, and the Misses Dorothy and Diana Wilson as bridesmaids.

Mrs. Rex Ludbrook chose a pale cyclamen gown, while her sisters

Mrs. Rex Ludbrook chose a pale cyclamen gown, while her sisters wore deeper cyclamen. Their gowns of chiffon velvet were fashioned alike on Victorian lines, the front of each bodice being fashioned on long Victorian lines, softly ruched, and finished with a heart-shaped neckline, and the page boy sleeves came to a point over the hands. The very full skirts were slightly trained. Each attendant wore a pendant

The best man was Mr. Rex Ludbrook, Ruatoria (cousin of the bridegroom), and the groomsmen were Mr. Peter Wilson, Hastings (brother of the bride), and Mr. Dick Busby, Tokomaru Bay (cousin of the bride). The ushers were Messrs. Alistair Graham and Eric Lambe.
