INQUIRY INTO NUTRITION

THREE NOTABLE SCIENTISTS

URGENT PROBLEM

Announcement by Hon. P. Fraser

By Telegraph-Press Association.

WELLINGTON, June 27.

A scientific inquiry into nutrition in New Zealand, an important part of which will be the question of infant nutrition, will be conducted by Professor J. Malcolm, with the assistance of Dr. Muriel Bell, Professor C. E. Hercus and Dr. Gregory, said the Hon. P. Fraser, Minister of Health, addressing the annual meeting of the Wellington branch of the Plunket Society.

He requested his hearers to reserve judgment on the question of child nutrition and the Society's work until Professor Malcolm had made his report.

It was not, he said, a subject for controversy. The first question to be considered by the Medical Research Council recently set up would be that of nutrition. There were many pressing problems in front of it. The tremendous question of cancer, the researches of Dr. Hercus into goitre, and of Sir Louis Barnett into hydatids would still be gone into, but the first question before the Council would be nutrition, of adults as well as children.

It had been placed in the very capable hands of Dr. Malcolm, of the Physiology Department, Dunedin, one of the most honest and sincere scientists the country had known.

He was satisfied that the investigation was in capable and reliable hands. They would take evidence from anyone willing to give it, besides scientists, students and research workers.

The whole question of nutrition would be thoroughly investigated.

BRISBANE, June 27.

Extending their Brisbane visit the Kiwis had a run to-day prior to their departure to-morrow for their next match, against Tamworth.

The manager, Mr Redwood, announced that there was no possibility now of a test being played, although the team, despite its defeats, had left a good impression after Saturday's match against Queensland.

With matches at Tamworth, Newcastle and Sydney still to play the tourists should make a complete financial success of their tour. The gate receipts at Brisbane on Saturday, £474, brought their share of gates to £2100.

LONDON, June 26.

An aeroplane from the Scilly Isles crashed while landing in fog at Land's End. The pilot, W. L. Dustin, was killed, and four of the six passengers were injured.

Mr Dustin was a twin brother of W. Dustin, New Zealand representative cricketer and a son of the late I. D. E. Dustin and Mrs Dustin, of Wellington and Wanganui, reports a Press Association message. Some time ago Mr W. L. Dustin held a position as pilot in New Zealand.

APPEAL TO THE KING AND QUEEN OF ENGLAND

40,000 Polish Jews Ask Mercy For Fellow National In Palestine

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 27, 10 p.m.)

WARSAW, June 26.

Forty thousand Jews marched from the Jewish quarter as a protest against the death sentence passed on Solomon Ben Joseph for firing on a bus and carrying arms in Palestine.

A women's meeting then decided to appeal to the Queen of England and urge King George to intervene. The men's meeting decided to appeal to the King and the Archbishop of Canterbury (Dr. Cosmo Lang).

Unsuccessfully appealing against the death sentence passed on Joseph last week, counsel said that if carried out it would be the first time a Jew had been executed in Palestine since the destruction of the Temple in 70 A.D. Appeals for clemency have been received from Jewish communities throughout the world.

A Jerusalem message reports that four were killed and 18 were injured as a result of terrorism at the week-end. Jews and Arabs were equally responsible for bombings, shooting, and stabbing. Armed Arabs derailed and set fire to a goods train between Haifa and Lydda.

NEW INSTALLATION AT HASTINGS

WORK AT TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

IMPROVED SERVICE

To Cope With Increase in Subscribers

The installation of two new units to the telephone exchange at Hastings, providing for considerable extensions to the service, has already been begun by the maintenance staff of the Post and Telegraph Department. The extensions, which will cost several hundred pounds and will take some weeks to complete, are being made to cope with the increase in subscribers.

Both units being installed are 100 line units, one providing ordinary individual line service and the other a four party line connection. The installation of the four party line unit will provide a service at the Hastings exchange which at present does not exist.

The chief telegraph engineer at Napier (Mr E. Walpole), interviewed by the "Daily Mail" last evening, ing, said that there was a considerable demand for the class of service provided by the four party line especially from people on small farms within comparatively easy reach of Hastings. The four party line offered a service considerably cheaper than the individual line system.

Mr Walpole added that a new feature for Hastings of this party line was that only one bell rang when one of the subscribers was wanted. In the exchange at the present time there was a service which gave a 10 party line, but called every bell on the line rang.

The extensions at the exchange did not involve any building alterations, said Mr Walpole. There was ample room inside to house the new installations. However, a considerable amount of work was necessary on the outside lines. There was no deep urgency for the work, he added. This would be undertaken by the ordinary maintenance staff, working when the opportunity offered.

DEATH OF MR G. T. BAYLY

MEMBER OF FAMOUS FAMILY

AGED 82 YEARS

Cricket and Rugby Figure

By Telegraph-Press Association.

AUCKLAND, June 27.

The death has occurred of Mr George T. Bayly, former president of the New Zealand Rugby Union, and a member of one of New Zealand's best known sporting families. He died at his farm at Stanmore Bay, Whangaparaoa Peninsula, at the age of 82.

Mr Bayly in his youth represented Wanganui and Wellington at Rugby football and Wellington and Taranaki at cricket. He was invited to tour the South Island with the Wellington team in 1879, and as a three-quarter he scored winning points in several matches. For 10 years, from 1889, he was president of the Taranaki Rugby Union, and in 1888-89 he was president of the New Zealand Rugby Union.

As a cricketer Mr Bayly had just as notable a record. In 1882 he was a member of the Wellington team which met Shaw's English team and even as late as 1903, when he was approaching 50 years of age, he played against Lord Hawke's visiting team. Against Shaw's side he performed the remarkable feat of bowling 62 overs, which were then of four balls each, of which 42 were maidens. He bowled right through England's innings, taking five wickets for 62 runs.

In 1887 Mr Bayly played against another English team, this time for Taranaki, against Alfred Lillywhite's side.

Mr Bayly was one of nine brothers and five of them played representative Rugby for Taranaki and Wellington. One of them, Alfred, was captain of the 1894 New Zealand team and in 1905 he helped to select the All Blacks. In 1907-08 he was president of the New Zealand Rugby Union.

Mr Bayly's eldest son, Arthur, died from an injury suffered at Rugby while at college, and his second son was killed in a motor accident at Newmarket shortly after returning from the Great War. His surviving son, Jack, is in business at Hawera. There are three daughters.

W. A. BROWN CARRIES HIS BAT FOR 184

Australians Make 393 For Nine Wickets

Rain Interferes

O'Reilly's Hectic Innings: Farnes In Form

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 28, 2 a.m.)

LONDON, June 27.

The second Test was resumed to-day in dull weather. The gates were relocked at 10.45 a.m. and thousands were turned back. Tickets costing 12/6 were offered at £2 apiece outside the gate.

When rain stopped play Australia, replying to England's first innings score of 494, had lost nine wickets for 393 (Brown not out 184).

Brown to-day became the third Australian batsman to pass 1000 runs on the tour, the other two being Bradman and Badcock.

AUSTRALIA

- D. G. Bradman. W. A. Brown. C. L. Badcock. A. L. Hassett. S. J. McCabe. J. H. Fingleton. A. G. Chipperfield. B. A. Barnett. O. B. Fleetwood-Smith. E. McCormick. W. J. O'Reilly. M. G. Waite (twelfth).

ENGLAND

- L. Hutton (Yorkshire). C. J. Barnett (Gloucester). W. J. Edrich (Middlesex). W. R. Hammond (Gloucester). E. Paynter (Lancashire). D. C. S. Compton (Middlesex). L. E. G. Ames (Kent). A. W. Wellard (Somerset). H. Verity (Yorkshire). D. V. P. Wright (Kent). K. Farnes (Essex). J. Hardstaff (12th).

Five runs came from Farnes's first over. Barnett in Verity's first over tried to lift a ball to the outfield and was easily caught at covers.

Chipperfield was out leg before to the second ball of Verity's second over. His damaged finger was still painful.

The last ball of Verity's second over beat and nearly bowled O'Reilly.

Brown's difficulty in playing Farnes was suggestive of a marked deterioration in the wicket. Verity twice more beat O'Reilly.

Brown reached a fighting 150 in 290 minutes. He batted with great skill and determination.

O'Reilly when 11 was missed by Paynter off Verity—a high and difficult chance. O'Reilly then began to hit out. The pair saved a follow-on, though Hammond was not likely to have enforced it.

O'Reilly, batting with great vigour and with an eye for the right ball, drove Verity for two successive sixes. The crowd gasped as the eighth wicket courageously added 64 in half an hour.

Then Brown cover-drove Wellard for two successive fours.

O'Reilly's onslaught caused Verity to be taken off at 371 in favour of Wright, who bowled O'Reilly with his fifth ball, but it was a no-ball.

With light rain falling, O'Reilly cracked Farnes stylishly for four through the covers. Brown's 20th four came from a late cut off Wright. He reached 184, when O'Reilly had made 42 in 45 minutes, including two sixes and five fours—a splendidly hearty and often highly polished innings. His middle stump was then knocked down.

Ninety-four was added to-day in just under an hour. McCormick coked up the next ball to Barnett at short-leg. Farnes was deprived of the hat-trick when Compton dropped the next ball to Fleetwood-Smith. Heavier rain was falling and the players came off at 12.35 p.m.

Employment Of Non-Union Barman

Refreshment Booth At Waipukurau Racecourse

£1 Penalty

Magistrate's Court Sitting At Napier Yesterday

The employment of non-union barmen in the refreshment booth at the Waipukurau racecourse on April 18 and the alleged refusal of the proprietor of the booth to employ a member of the union who was available was disputed before Mr J. Miller, S.M., at a sitting of the Magistrate's Court at Napier yesterday morning.

The case was one in which the Inspector of Awards at Napier (Mr H. Schiering), sought a penalty of £1 against James Biggins, proprietor of the Railway Hotel at Port Ahuriri, for a breach of the New Zealand Licensed Hotel Employees' Award.

The breach was that Biggins employed at a booth at the racecourse barmen who were not members of the industrial union, while R. Stock, a member of the union, was "ready and willing" to perform the work.

A penalty of £1 was imposed by the Magistrate. "It is the duty of an employer to replace a non-unionist by a member of the union," said Mr Schiering.

The case was an unusual one, said Mr W. A. McLeod, who appeared for Biggins. It was framed for an ordinary hotel employee. For work at the booths on a racecourse on that day the ordinary hotel barman were not available.

The defence was that the offence was trivial and excusable.

FINES IMPOSED Licensee and Barman Charged

NAPIER CASES

Fines of £2 and £3 with costs respectively were imposed on Thomas Weatherburn, licensee of the Terrace Hotel at Napier and the hotel barman, Patrick Moroney, in the Magistrate's Court at Napier yesterday morning by Mr J. Miller, S.M.

The charge against Weatherburn was that of selling liquor after hours. Moroney was charged with supplying liquor after hours to a person not lawfully entitled to be supplied.

A further charge of opening the premises for the sale of liquor after hours against the licensee was withdrawn by the police.

A fine of £1 10/- with costs was imposed on Edmund Downing for being drunk after hours on the licensed premises of the Union Hotel at Port Ahuriri.

TWO OUTSTANDING ATTRACTIONS
"Man In Possession" and "Nobody's Baby"

Two of the outstanding names in the film firmament are co-starring in "Man in Possession," which will be the attraction at the Cosy Theatre, Hastings, to-morrow. They are Jean Harlow and Robert Taylor, making their first appearance together in the comedy-drama, based on the H. M. Harwood stage play, "Man in Possession."

In the supporting cast are Reginald Owen, one of Hollywood's outstanding character actors, Una O'Connor, who played Norma Shearer's maid in "The Barren Wives" of Wimpole Street, and Henrietta Crossman, veteran actress of the Broadway stage.

The story of "Man in Possession" casts Miss Harlow as Mrs. Crystal Wetherby, who poses in London society as a wealthy American widow, but who is actually impoverished and is being pursued by her creditors. When Taylor, playing the part of Raymond, a young man who is given job as a sheriff's officer assigned to watch the personal property of Mrs. Wetherby, she induces him to pose as her butler in order not to give her away before a man whom she hopes to marry for his money and thus liquidate her debts.

Hal Roach introduces a new comedy team, Patsy Kelly and Lyda Roberti, in their initial full length feature comedy, "Nobody's Baby," to be shown on the same programme.

The picture is described as a laugh-feast from the time Kitty Kelly (Patsy Kelly) and Lena Marchetti (Lyda Roberti) meet, applying for an amateur radio show addition, until the finale.

"LONDON MELODY" IS ENTERTAINING
Anna Neagle in Musical Romance

Laughter and happiness in a sparkling story that transports you on the magic wings of entertainment from Soho to Mayfair with melody, gaiety and romance all the way. That is "London Melody," the sparkling screen romance co-starring Anna Neagle and Tullio Carminati coming to the Plaza Theatre, Napier, to-morrow.

In vividly colourful manner it presents London in all its varying aspects. From the slums of Soho, to the glittering world of Mayfair, and traces the adventures of Anna Neagle, as the poverty stricken daughter of an Italian immigrant, from her abandonment of her betrothal to the moment when she becomes the toast of London as a cabaret star.

Tullio Carminati playing opposite her, has one of the finest roles of his career as a foreign diplomat who is attracted by the turbulent beauty of the little Soho waif.

"London Melody" is a film to please all the senses, for Herbert Wilcox, the Director, has not only an absorbing story to tell, but has introduced spectacular song and dance numbers with the music written by Sygler Lerner Goodheart and Hoffman, and delightful dances arranged by Ralph Reader.

Best of the magnificent portals of the foreign office into the interior of a Soho dwelling house, back stage in an ultra-modern night club—"London Melody" takes you to all these places in a film which realism and romance are deftly allied, and one which will remain long in the memory of all who have seen it.

"DOUBLE WEDDING" is a smart, modern comedy with a New York background that runs the gamut in settings from swank Park Avenue apartments and Fifth Avenue shops to trailers in a parking lot. Powell plays a penniless, itinerant, happy-go-lucky artist. Miss Loy is seen as the head of a fashionable gown shop. The story is crammed with farce, situations such as those that made "Libelled Lady" and "The Thin Man," also Powell-Loy vehicles, such outstanding comedies.

BRIGHT COMEDY AND MYSTERY
"Pre-View Murder-Mystery" and "Early to Bed"

Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays of each week are guest season days at the Mayfair Theatre, Napier and admission prices on these days are: all stalls 9d, all circle 1/-. This week's guest season programme commencing this afternoon at the Mayfair with two sessions daily is another high class programme. Charlie Ruggles appears as a sleep-walking husband in his latest uproarious farce with Mary Boland in Paramount's "Early to Bed," the first big feature. The story, unique in both plot and treatment, introduces the screen's funniest pair as an engaged couple who have deferred their marriage for twenty years while Mary dreams of Niagara Falls and Charlie, twenty six years a clerk in a glass eye firm, dreams of future success.

With the stars appear George Barbier, Gail Patrick, Lucien Littlefield, Robert McWade and a host of other fine supporting players.

The second attraction is "The Pre-View Murder Mystery" featuring Reginald Denny, Frances Drake, Gail Patrick and Rod La Roque. Beginning at the preview of a picture, when the star is found murdered, a series of killings ensues, involving actors, directors and studio workers.

TENSE ACTION IN NEW DRAMA
"Thank You Mr. Moto," To-morrow

The mystery man of the mystic Orient, "Mr. Moto," matches strength with cunning—intrigue with lightning action—and outwits those who would plunder the hidden tomb of Genghis Khan. It is the newest and most exciting adventure of the celebrated sleuth in "Thank You Mr. Moto," Twentieth Century-Fox picture starring Peter Lorre, which opens to-morrow at the State Theatre, Hastings.

Where "Moto" appears something exciting is bound to happen. For behind his bland, mild manner is the lightning-swift cunning of the Orient's ace detective, portrayed with amazing finesse by Peter Lorre, famous for his psychological characterisations.

Featured roles in the film are played by Thomas Beck, Pauline Frederick, Jayne Regan, Sidney Blackmer, Sig Rumann and John Carradine.

The story opens with the mysterious "Mr. Moto," disguised as a camel driver, smuggling one of seven valuable scrolls into Peiping. Then he disappears into the Gobi's shifting sands.

Tense action ensues, marked by a series of strange events and violence that baffles the master-mind of the Far East in his greatest case. A Russian colonel is discovered in his own library with a cocked pistol in his hand and a knife in his heart. A Chinese prince commits suicide, an antique dealer is murdered when machine-gun bullets riddle his shop, and a legionnaire is found dead aboard an abandoned junk. Only "Mr. Moto" could link these sudden deaths to the seven scrolls of Genghis Khan.

Current Attraction
Shirley Temple has the leading role of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," her best musical which will conclude to-night at the State Theatre, Hastings. The first star of the screen is supported by an able cast, and gay songs and dancing are a feature.

A BRILLIANT COMEDY
"Double Wedding" Now Showing

Mr and Mrs Thin Man go new places—do new things—to bring you new love, life and laughs in "Double Wedding," which is now showing to capacity houses at the Gaiety Theatre, Napier.

William Powell and Myrna Loy, the perfect "Mr and Mrs" of the screen, are teamed for the seventh time in "Double Wedding." Florence Rice and John Beal play a second-ary team in the "double romance" of the story, and the cast also features Jessie Ralph and Edgar Kennedy.

This time the famous William Powell-Myrna Loy co-starring team makes its appearance in "Double Wedding," an adaptation of the Ferenc Molnar Continental stage success, "Great Love," produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

With Powell cast as a penniless but devil-may-care artist who lives in a trailer, and Miss Loy as the owner of a fashionable New York gown shop, the laugh-padded new story describes the antics of a heroine to prevent her younger sister from marrying Powell instead of the man she herself has picked out for her. As may be suspected, in the end Miss Loy falls for the irresistible Mr. Powell himself.

The "shorts" are exceptional and include Metrotrone News, Australian News, the brilliant technicolour travlogue by Fitzpatrick, "Chile, Land of Charms," the Gang Kidding for fun, "Canned Fishing," and the delightful novelty, "Out of the Past." Gaiety patrons are advised to book seats (it costs no more) at the theatre, telephone 1060.

STORY OF LIFE IN A CONVENT
"Cloistered" Will Begin Season To-morrow

Three groups of women who are destined to spend their lives in the narrow confines of a cloistered convent never to see each other. "Cloistered," Robert Alexandre's exquisitely beautiful film of convent life, which will commence at the Regent Theatre Hastings, to-morrow reveals this unusual situation. Of the three groups, the Sisters have taken their final vows.

The second group consists of postulants, those girls and women who have declared their intentions of becoming permanent inhabitants of the convent and who must go through a five and a half year probationary period before they, too, are allowed to take their final vows. The third and last group is made up of two classes. First, there are the penitents, wayward girls who have been committed to the convent by their families or who have sought seclusion of their own free wills. From this class come the Magdalens, penitents who have determined to become nuns.

It is most interesting to learn that, when the postulants are finally given their last vows they are permitted to wear flowing white robes, which distinguish them as true Sisters, but when the penitents take their final vows, they wear black habits, which designate their former worldly and sinful lives.

Supporting subjects in keeping with the spirit, beauty and quality of the film complete the programme.

LIFE IN THE AIR ILLUSTRATED
Richard Dix in "Devil's Squadron"

Columbia's roaring drama, "Devil's Squadron," with Richard Dix in the leading role will open to-night at the Municipal Theatre, Hastings.

Dick Grace, one of the world's foremost aviators, wrote the story. Featured with Dix in "Devil's Squadron" are Karen Morley, Lloyd Nolan, Billy Burdud, Shirley Ross, Henry Mollison, Gene Morgan, and Gordon Jones. Most of the players are either licensed or student pilots in real life.

According to the story, Dix and Nolan, two test pilots, fall in love with Miss Morley, Dix, because of an unjust stigma attached to his name and because he refuses to hurt Nolan, Superintendent of the airport, who gave Dix his chance to make good again, is unable to tell Miss Morley that he loves her.

But close association with death amid flaming planes and strained nerves, changes much, and the story

REFUSED ADMISSION TO RESTAURANT
Case Dismissed At Napier

The alleged refusal by a Napier restaurateur, Andrew Paxie, of the right of entry and inspection of his premises to an inspector resulted in a case being brought by the Inspector of Factories (Mr H. Schieming) in the Magistrate's Court at Napier yesterday morning before Mr J. Miller, S.M.

The case was dismissed by the Magistrate, who held that there was nothing in the Shops and Offices Act to associate the wife of the occupier of the premises with the occupier.

Mr Schieming in evidence stated that he had questioned Paxie's wife about the employment of a waitress and had been refused permission to enter the premises to interview the employe.

The associate feature, "Meet Nero Wolfe," is a gripping mystery drama starring Edward G. Robinson.

Sunshine For A Wedding

NAPIER CEREMONY
Attractive Decoration At Trinity Church
SIEVERS—WALKER

Sunshine streamed through the windows upon the bridal party as they stood at the altar of Trinity Methodist Church, Napier, on Saturday afternoon for the marriage ceremony of Annie Adeline, only child of Mr and Mrs J. J. Walker, Nelson Crescent, Napier, and Cecil Hubert Sievers, of Mangamaire, son of Mrs G. Sievers, of Dannevirke, and the late Mr G. Sievers. A large white wedding bell hung above and trimmed the altar, which was draped with white, pink, and yellow flowers, and autumn foliage, with arches of pastel shaded flowers, completed a picturesque setting.

The Rev. H. J. Odell officiated at the service, which was fully choral, Mrs L. J. Prime playing the wedding music. During the service the solo "God Give You Joy" was sung by the Rev. W. A. Mills, and during the signing of the register the Trinity Choir, of which the bride has been a member for many years, sang an anthem.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her magnificent bridal gown was of heavy magenta satin, with gogets and trimming of hand-worked Limerick lace. Made on Empire lines, the corsage moulded the figure, a spray of orange blossom finishing the high neckline. Pointed gogets of lace trimmed the skirt, which swept to a very long circular train, the centre of which was applied with lace. The long tight-fitting sleeves were pointed over the hands. From a coronet of orange blossom fell an exquisite parchment-shaded veil of hand-worked Limerick lace, nearly 300 years old, which was lent to the bride by a friend. Brocaded satin shoes and an arm-sheaf of white roses and maidenhair fern completed her ensemble.

The Bridesmaids
Two bridesmaids were in attendance, Miss Molly Collister, Napier, and Miss Florence Sanders, Palmerston North. They were dressed alike in ankle-length frocks of honey gold satin, made on slim-fitting Empire lines, with ruffled shoulders and short puffed sleeves. Pearl ornaments finished the necklines. Head bands of golden leaves and gold sheaves of wheat and arm sheaves of scarlet poinsettia, fern and autumn leaves made a vivid finish.

Mr Allan Congdon, Wellington, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man, and Mr Bill Clothier, Napier, attended as groomsmen. Messrs G. R. Galbreath and S. Whitton acted as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a frock of deep blue cloque, with vestee of lawn lace over satin, and brown fur cloth coat. Her hat was of blue felt and a posy in blue and gold tonings was carried. The bridegroom's mother was becomingly dressed in a gown of black mousseline, relieved with silver and white satin. A black hat and coat of black fur cloth were worn and she carried a posy in autumn tints.

Wesley Hall, McGrath Street, where the reception was held, was also beautifully decorated in pastel shades, the tables brightened with tall vases of Iceland poppies and spring bulbs. During the reception, Miss Dorothy Collister sang "My Prayer."

When the bride and bridegroom left on their honeymoon tour of the North Island, the former travelled in a smart frock of embossed crepe in tomato shade, with brown felt toque and fur cloth coat. Her accessories were brown.

Mr and Mrs C. H. Sievers' future home will be at Mangamaire.

"The appropriate money to be given as compensation for pain and suffering is hard to assess," said his Honour Mr Justice Callan in the Auckland Supreme Court, in summing up to the jury a claim for damages in which pain and suffering were relevant. "It is so hard," he added, "that frankly I am glad it falls to you and not to me." Speaking further of the "value" of life in the same connection, he said it was impossible to measure the value accurately. Wise judges had impressed on juries the need to be moderate as between man and man, otherwise so much money would be given as damages that the law governing such claims would lose its value. In that sort of thing, he said, one should not be influenced by whether a man was rich or poor, or had a high or a low social position. The basis of judgment was the boon of life itself.

WEDDING IN NAPIER ON SATURDAY.—A photograph outside the church after the marriage of Miss Annie Adeline Walker, only child of Mr and Mrs J. J. Walker, of Napier, to Mr Cecil Hubert Sievers, of Mangamaire, son of Mrs G. Sievers, of Dannevirke, and the late Mr G. Sievers.

Saga Of The Sardine

NATIVE HOME

Norway, "land of the midnight sun" is a land of contrasts. A country of dense forests, crashing rivers and snow-topped mountains, it is grim and rugged. A country of green and fertile valleys, sparkling waters and charming luxuriant gardens, it is peaceful and lovely.

Norway lies with her face toward the ocean, her lofty mountains firmly planted in the sapphire sea, which is given warmth by the currents flowing from the palm-clad shores of the tropics. But of all nature's gifts to Norway, none is more fascinating than the famous fjords—those sea-salt waterways which wind their sparkling way into the very heart of the country. Clef, in those mighty mountain walls by the ocean, they spread their "arms" over the land, now travelling twist rugged slopes where the forest climbs to the sky—now on through richly fertile valleys, where gardens burst into clouds of snowy bloom each spring.

It is on these Norwegian fjords, when early morning mists lift from the clear waters, and the charm and grandeur of fjord and land spring to life in the sun, that modern Vikings, as the Vikings of old, "go down to the sea in ships," in search of silver harvest—the Norwegian brigging, which we know as sardines after they are packed in handy tins.

The clear icy waters of the fjords are the playground of the Norwegian brigging. Travelling in shoals, they are "here to-day, gone to-morrow"—at times shooting in broad silvery streaks through the deep blue waters—then suddenly gone. Many times fishermen must journey from fjord to fjord in search of them.

Fishing begins late in spring—when the fruit orchards along the fjords have blossomed, and the season opens late in the autumn when fruit hangs mellow on the trees. Day after day, week after week, fishermen wait for the fish to put in an appearance. When searching for them in deepest waters—at times when only flocks of sea gulls herald the presence of the fish—the Norwegian fishermen use a sort of "submarine telegraph" system to locate them—a lead line they call it. This is a long thin wire (holding a lead sink), which is run out, as it drags through the water one of the men holds the wire on the tip of his forefinger. So sensitive is his touch, through long practice and tradition, that though it is drawn through watery depths no eye can pierce, he knows the moment the wire comes in contact with the shoal.

At the signal the clear icy waters of the fjords churn with activity; large boats spring into action, long deep nets are lowered, and in these the fish are trapped. Rushed from fjord to factory, they are handled with care, lightly smoked, packed in pure virgin olive oil, and then "packed like sardines" for our tables.

Though fishing may be done the year round in these Norwegian fjords the fish is best in summer months—fat, tender and delicately flavoured—and the fishing-for-packing season is limited to these summer months. It is at the best of all. Although there are thousands of brands of Norwegian sardines, this same restriction applies to all.

A Buried City
ANGKOR VAT
Hidden in Dense Jungles of Siam

The jungle-buried city of Angkor Vat in Central Siam was graphically described by Mr W. H. Hemingway in an address to members of the Auckland Penwomen's Club recently. He said that Angkor consisted of about 680 huge ruins, comprising an amount which was a temple 1200 metres square.

Originally erected some 1200 years ago by the kings of Cambodia, over 12,000,000 slaves were engaged in building the huge stone temples, which contained wonderful stone carvings. About 600 years ago the occupants, the Khmers, began to decay as a nation, and were driven out of Angkor, after which the younger Siamese men were determined to improve their education and to Westernise themselves. There were at least 600 young men in Bangkok attending night school, and when it was realised that the shops in which they worked did not close until 10 o'clock at night, their enthusiasm might be judged to be very considerable. They specialised in the English language and in book-keeping and accountancy.

"The Siamese fully imagine they are going to dominate the Orient," said Mr Hemingway. "They consider that the day will come when there will be a great clash between Japan and Siam."

The Siamese, who had captured Angkor from the Khmers, did not attempt to people the city, but left it unpopulated and, with its low-lying position, its profuse vegetation and heavy rainfall, it quickly became buried, continued Mr Hemingway. For 500 years humanity

AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

Hastings Wedding
IVORY SILK VELVET BRIDAL GOWN
Smith—Lorrigan

The Sacred Heart Church, Hastings, was beautifully decorated by the Sisters of St. Joseph for the wedding of Pearl Eileen Mary, only daughter of Mr and Mrs L. B. Lorrigan, of Clive, and George Edward Clarence, second son of Mrs and the late Mr Fred Smith, of Norsewood. Both families are well known in Southern Hawke's Bay.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father A. McDonald, of Hastings.

The bride entered the church escorted by her father, while the Wedding March was played by Madame Le Lievre.

The bride was wearing a gown of ivory silk velvet, with slightly cowl-neck, caught on either side by hand-made velvet roses. The dress was shirred at the waist line and the sleeves, pleated at the shoulders and tapered to points over the hands. The skirt, falling gracefully into folds, was of ankle length. A beautiful embroidered veil was held by a halo of pearls and orange blossoms, and she carried a sheaf of arum lilies. Her only ornament was a pretty pendant of tiny blue birds, lent for the occasion by an old friend.

The bride was attended by Miss Gwendoline Smith, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a pretty frock of pale pink novelty taffeta. The bodice was close fitting, with a high medicol collar caught in front with a posy of lavender shades. The skirt was very full and of ankle length. A halo of real flowers, of pink and mauve shades, was worn on her head and her bouquet was of mauve sweet peas and pink roses.

The duties of best man were carried out by Mr L. Lorrigan, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Rialto tea rooms, where the guests were received by Mr and Mrs Lorrigan, assisted by Mrs Smith.

A Daily Dozen for the Hands

Beautiful Supple Fingers
Have a Wealth of Expression

Look at the portraits of beautiful women; their hands are nearly always held gracefully, easy and relaxed. Yet though hands are in many ways as expressive as the face and come in for a lot more wear and tear, as a rule they get less attention.

This is unfair. Every time you do anything for your face you should get the habit of doing something for your hands too—for no sooner are we free of winter chills than we get bothered with gardening dryness and roughness.

One has to remember that hands are affected not only by manual work but by health, physical type and even mental make-up. Thus if you are nervous and self-conscious you will tend to use your hands badly. Holding them stiffly is a bad fault, because it not only looks awkward but also impedes the circulation and encourages any tendency to redness and blueness.

And since you cannot alter the shape of your hands it is as well to learn to move them well. Big, bony and angular hands are more admired than small, plump hands with dimples instead of knuckles.

Your character shows in your hands. For example, if you are an energetic forceful character it is unlikely that you will have small hands like butterflies, so avoid fluttering them over the tea-cups, and develop straightforward unaffected movements.

red hands
If you are troubled with red hands you probably have a thin skin and poor circulation, or your diet is not correct. In any case your hands need a great deal of protection and attention from inside as well as out.

That is, you need the calcium forming foods: cheese, milk, butter. You need exercise in the open air; skipping is good. You need comfortable gloves to avoid any constriction.

Every night in the bath massage yourself briskly all over with a soapy loofah to stimulate circulation in general; and the more massage you can give your hands the better.

You will need not only a greasiness hand cream to put on during the day, after the hands have been in water, but also, since all gardening, washing and other hand work roughens the hands and dries out the natural oils, you must replace these every day by rubbing in a good greasy skin food containing lanoline or any animal fat. If your hands are dry and rough give them an oil bath once or twice as well, as follows:—
Warm a mixture of equal parts of olive oil and castor oil.
Paint this all over your hands and finger nails after the bath, or after washing in hot water. Now lay pads of cotton wool over the backs of the hands to keep in the heat; and leave for ten minutes or until the oil soaks in.

SNAPPED AT THE DANNEVIRKE RACES ON SATURDAY.

Then rub in a little extra oil or skin food and go to bed in gloves.

manicure
There are three major sins committed by most manicurists, both amateur and professional:
1. Filing the nails right down at the sides.
2. Cutting the cuticles and pushing them down harshly with steel instruments.
3. Using varnishes without counteracting their necessarily drying effect.

A nail to be beautiful must be healthy and cannot be healthy unless it is allowed to grow in a natural way.
Here is the manicure method of a famous London beauty expert which will help your nails to be naturally beautiful.

1. Let the corners of the nails grow up to the tips of the fingers and never use a steel file for shaping, but always an emery board. Let the natural shape of the nail condition the way you file it—either oval or slightly pointed. It will take time to let the nails acquire their natural shape by growing up at the sides, but once they have the shape of the fingertips will be much improved.

2. Clean nails with a sponge and a good lather of super-fatted soap. Never put any steel instrument under the nail, and, if possible, not even an orange stick, as this separates the nail from the flesh and impedes healthy growth. Even a nail brush tends to bruise the delicate nail and cuticle tissues.

You will be surprised how much dirt you will be able to remove by persevering with the sponge technique, and if you do this it is not necessary to soak the nails in the usual soapy solution.

3. Now apply a cuticle cream to the base of the nails, and with a fresh orange stick gently lift the cuticle, so that it is loose all round the base of the nail, leaving it free to grow.

Once the cuticle is loose, put more of the special cream underneath, and keep it very gently pushed back (again never with a steel instrument and never roughly with a towel, as so many manicurists do).

4. Always buff the nails, whether you use varnish or not; it helps to preserve the natural lustre. And stop using varnish altogether for at least three months if your nails are splitting.

5. The new method of removing varnish is with a cream. Put a blob of it on your nail, wait a second, and wipe it off firmly with cotton wool. This cream is rich in oil to counteract the effect of the varnish.

A WAIPUKURAU WEDDING

St. Mary's Church
BRIDE IN PERIWINKLE BLUE
Leigh—Moorhead

St. Mary's Church, Waipukurau, was yesterday the scene of the wedding of Hazel Ellen, younger daughter of Mr T. Moorhead and the late Mrs Moorhead, Jellicoe Street, Waipukurau, to George Innes, second son of Mr and Mrs E. H. Leigh, of Cambridge.

The Rev. Canon Mortimer-Jones officiated at the ceremony, and Mrs W. G. Bryce was organist, playing the wedding marches.

The bride, who entered the church with her father, wore a hand-worked Viennese model gown of periwinkle-blue angora tweed. The bodice was buttoned at the back with big buttons and the front neckline was finished with a narrow turned-down collar of navy, the lapped sash being in navy and clover shades. Her smart navy halo hat was worn well back on the head, and she wore navy accessories and carried a bouquet that toned with her frock.

The best man was Mr Gordon Wilson, of Napier.
Mrs S. Parsons, of Napier, attended the bride as matron-of-honour. She wore a clover-shaded frock embellished with a spray in light and dark clover. The V neckline was hand-fagotted and finished with tiny buttons and the sash was in self material. With it she wore a halo toque of navy felt with a bow of lacquered ribbon at one side, navy shoes and gloves, and her bouquet toned with her frock.

The best man was Mr Gordon Wilson, of Napier.
Following the ceremony a luncheon was held at the Tavistock Hotel, only immediate relatives being present.

The bridal table was attractively decorated with a mas bowl in which were arranged dainty rose buds and leaves and taller vases of Iceland poppies and autumn berries. The usual toasts were honoured and the wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Mrs O. Riddell, sister of the bride, was wearing a grey and navy heringbone tweed suit, with a cream lace and nixon blouse, navy velour hat and shoes and a dainty shoulder spray.

Mrs Leigh's gown was of wine suede backed satin, with a vestee of oyster georgette outlined with hand-made roses of satin. Her matching fur felt hat had a touch of white and green at one side and she carried a bouquet of shaded flowers.

When the bride and bridegroom left for their honeymoon, the bride travelled in a smartly tailored costume of grey English tweed. With it she wore a sky-blue angora wool polo jumper, a smart navy felt vagabond hat, navy accessories, and a handsome skunk fur over one shoulder.

Their future home will be in Tauranga.

An Appeal From Clive on Behalf of the School

Sir,—In a recent issue of your paper I notice that the Norsewood School Committee had forwarded a protest to the Hawke's Bay Education Board regarding the remodeling of their school. It may be only a coincidence that Clive should be in the same category. Was it not in these two localities that the early settlers took up their abode? "Bushwhacking" and ballasting they pioneered our railway through the Forty Mile Bush. Is it a policy of parsimony or economy that is to be made applicable to their districts by curtailing expenditure and lavishing it upon town and intermediate schools?

Surely the Minister of Education will not be favourable to the proposition. When we see suburbs of mushroom growth, with modern and costly school buildings we are under the impression that a protest is justified.

The chairman of the board in his capacity as Mayor of Hastings, recently made some adverse comment on the present Hastings railway station. Those remarks could apply to the Clive school.

The present structure is the third in the history of Clive, and was opened in 1879. During the past 59 years it has been enlarged, partitioned, and remodelled on various occasions.

The conductor is a man who gives the music a certain class and character. Can he inform me how many public recitals they have given in the last three years without producing the collection boxes? Of course, when there is a contest in view they make up for their bashfulness of the rest of the year, and are continually before the public, but always box in hand.

"Band Supporter" suggests that the band go into recess for six months. I agree with the suggestion, and would like to add that the Borough Council take control of all assets and start afresh and call applications for conductor and players. It may also be a good suggestion to purchase some new music. "Knight Errant," "Bohemian Girl," "Maritana," etc., become a bit tiresome after constant repetition for the last five years.

"Loyalist" Returns to the Attack
Sir,—Had it not been for a dose of flu (which I do not attribute to the coming into power of the Labour Government) I might have resorted to the counter-attack earlier and despised the rather general use of Labour's poison gases.

Free Expression of Opinion
Sir,—We accept your statement regarding the free expression of opinions in full and thoroughly agree, but what we do take exception to is the fact of misleading statements being allowed to be published no matter by whom they are made. In the case in point at least two mis-statements were made and we think that you will agree that to maintain your very high standard of veracity also be maintained.

Hastings Band Criticised
Sir,—May I be permitted to reply to "Band Supporter's" effusion in your issue of June 24 re the Hastings Band. Having been actively associated with the band for about fourteen years I may claim to be able to speak with some authority on the subject, and I have no hesitation in saying that the Hastings Band has received more liberal public support in the past than any band in New Zealand. If they have now fallen upon evil days, "Band Supporter" would do well to enquire the reasons for the change.

"ONWARD"
There is one weakness always displayed by a person or persons afflicted with this ruthless mania. He or they cannot bear criticism. The Labour Party to-day—from the leaders to each individual member of the party (mark this well): "as distinct from Labour voters" is more sensitive to criticism and as opposed to the rights of free speech as of British democracy. To-day the Labour Party comes from the one hand that the majority will be sufficiently ignorant and careless to believe the oft-repeated misstatement that the Labour Party is the cause of all the evil days in New Zealand, and on the other hand that world conditions will last long enough to carry the party through another election.

In New Zealand class consciousness should be unknown. There are a few very rich people and they are, by an average very human. They are so few in any case that should they try to be class conscious they are left alone to have echoing in their ears the lighter of a peevish which carries no a jot for class or colour. And yet, in face of this the Labour Party goes on preaching, preaching class-consciousness. The soap box paragon who brings this muck into our pure air is a scourge.

New Zealand is a middle class community with a marvellous natural field for humanitarian work for that reason. The Labour Government who put the Labour Party in power and the other was entirely responsible for its coming into power and saving New Zealand if not the whole world. The majority of the average New Zealander (non-party) who put the Labour Party in power — could take it and like it.

And on this rock of selfishness and narrowness and bigotry the Labour Party will ultimately go down the wall as have all similar evils that have crept into reasonably clean British countries.

The smart, clever gang of about thirty threats of hell to come under the Capitalist. They will never frighten the "average non-party New Zealander" who is growing every day to loath the socialist self-centred Labour Party more and more. The "average New Zealander" now knows that parties do not matter one rap. He holds control and his ideal can never be a party that regiments him and counts him as a chattel in some political manoeuvre.

Just a point to back up this logic. Ranting, rabid "party-supporters"—and these columns seem to produce the fact that the majority are not "One-Party-Minded" and do not attend cocktail and garden parties, and do not attend party meetings, and political "party" calm. I think of these parties and meetings. The attendances represent merely an extremely small minority of a community, large or small. In this lies an object lesson for the Labour Party. Coalition last touch with the "Silent, Non-Party Majority," and went to the wall. The Labour Party's effrontery is merely hastening its own doom at the hands of the "non-party" section, which will never, never tolerate wanton, misleading, selfish, boastfulness, dictatorial methods, bureaucratic government, and regimentation.

It appears to the "average non-party New Zealander" that the National Party has learned from its mistakes then the Labour Party's doom is already sealed. — I am, etc.

Mr Jull's Speech at Sherenden
Sir,—In a statement made by Mr Jull, candidate for Waipawa in the interests of the National Party, at a meeting held at Sherenden last week, he said that a man from the age of 20 years to 60 years would be paying in to the "Social Security Fund" all that time and would receive little or nothing out of that fund after paying in "or words to that effect." Now, sir, I would like to ask Mr Jull why he failed to tell the electors present at that meeting the whole truth about the proposed Social Security Fund. It is not the Right Hon. the Prime Minister over the air, and per medium of the Press. Mr Jull failed to tell his listeners about free hospital, doctor and medicine, and a good deal more of the social services embodied in the Bill.

"Why Did Relief Work Become Unnecessary?"
Sir,—Well, sir, I have drunk beer man in Waipawa 20 years ago. Has Mr Jull turned prohibitionist? Now for "Another Loyalist." He seems to have gotten into a groove and cannot find his way out. Take my advice and get into a groove as a member of the Labour Party severely alone. It is not hurting the Labour Party's interests and, what is more, it is doing no good to the National Party.

"We Do Not Want The Same People All The Time"
Sir,—I was astounded to read that the Prime Minister, in referring to the banning of Mr A. E. Robinson, secretary of the Auckland branch of the New Zealand Farmers' Union, from the air, gave as his reason that (to quote him) "he was not a man who made an institution on the air." We want the best lectures over the air as well as the best music, and we do not want the same people all the time.

plain and prove how they have got more comfortable homes, more and better food and happy faces and most of them with a few pounds tucked away under the clock. Explain how it is the shopkeeper is doing so much business and man and woman are drawing better wages. So now, sir, do your bit. Do not hesitate to give a precise and truthful statement and prove how all these men, women, girls and boys have been lifted out of the mire and have had their feet set up on a safe place and are established in their goings.—I am, etc.

Supporter Defends The Hastings Band
Sir,—In your issue of Saturday very misleading statements were made by a writer signing himself "Good Band." Let me say no one knows better than the writer of this letter what became of the £125 subsidy. If the writer was as interested as he used to be, he would know that the same amount and more was eaten up by depreciation last year. Re the misleading statement of a large amount of this being spent on Napier players' expenses, challenge the writer to prove these statements. There is not a Napier player in the band, and no one knows better than the writer that it is impossible to run a band on £125 per year.

Re the Shopping Week, I am surprised that the writer of any correspondence should lower himself to insult the band in this matter. I don't see what part they could have taken. They are all working men and unable, unless at great inconvenience to their employers, to take part in the daytime. Furthermore, I don't think the shopping committee asked for their assistance. The writer then goes on to say that the only time the band does appear is when the hat is sent round. What an insult! Was "Good Band" home by the fireside a month ago, when the band turned out and collected over £30 for flood distress, which was very much appreciated.

Re subsidy concerts, the band is carrying out their programme from the Council to the letter. Re the Council's falling great price is as to the Council for the way it carries on its business, and I would advise "Good Band" to take a lesson from it.

As regards the strength and qualifications of the band, a few years ago a boy band was started. Now these boys have grown to men and are able to be transferred to the senior band, apparently they must also be brought in to the abuse. Concerning the band going into recess, let me say that "Good Band" will not get this blessing because it will not go into recess. In conclusion I say "Conductor, and band go on with the good work."

Letter Draws Generous Gift
Sir,—Enclosed please find 10/- for "Relief Worker's Heart Sick Wife," whose letter appeared in your paper. I am a bit surprised that you allowed to be printed such a salacious and hurtful letter as that of "Satisfied Relief Worker," who replied.—I am, etc.

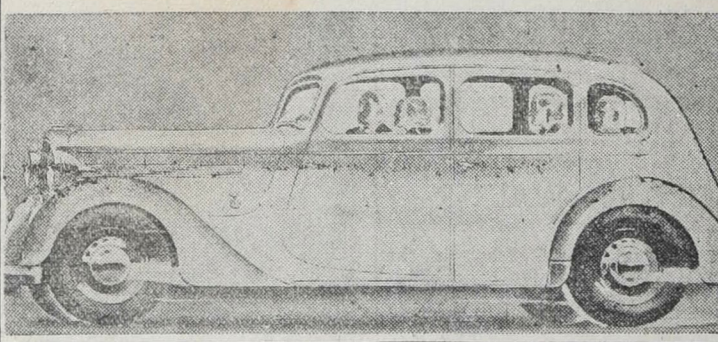

"Bogey of the Word Socialist"
Sir,—With the approach of elections there has been much talk of Socialism. In fact, the National Party appear to be endeavouring to make a real bogey of the word "Socialist." What would be the National definition of this word?

As I see it, most of our present laws are Socialistic. The fact of every citizen paying a vote in his own behalf is in itself Socialistic. Education for all, old age, invalid and widows' pensions, free hospital and dental treatment—all these are Socialistic measures and no doubt met with much opposition in the past. There are many farmers who are present at attending garden parties, and over their cocktails and oyster-patties concerning such measures. They are not opposed to Socialism in their hearts—they are opposed to the word.

Now, we have the National Party on one hand and the Labour Party on the other, and they are analysed, there is really little difference in them. We see column after column in the daily papers about P.O. Savings Bank accounts, and whether some statement is libellous or not. These things do not matter, they are merely political propaganda. Mr Savage need never have mentioned P.O. accounts, and Mr Hamilton need never have entered into government over something that mattered not at all. Now all this talk of Socialism is another electioneering stunt. Well, if the National Party would return to the days of the barons, when the rule was by the few for the few, let them openly say so. But if they are in favour of a Government which aims at improving the lot of the majority of the people, and not the chosen few, then in their hearts they are Socialistic, and cannot conscientiously oppose humane legislation.—I am, etc.

A. & P. SOCIETY YEAR
ANNUAL MEETING YESTERDAY
WORK REVIEWED
Membership in Strong Position

The activities of the Hawke's Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Society during the past year and proposals for improvements to the society's property at Tomoana were discussed at the annual meeting held at Napier yesterday.

The retiring president (Mr. J. H. Absalom) presided and there were about 50 members present.

Reviewing the annual report and balance-sheet the president congratulated members on the spring show, which, he said, had shown a net profit of £1044, a total exceeded only by the record profit of £1252 in 1929. In view of the unfavourable winter experienced he wished to express special appreciation to exhibitors for the way they had supported the show. The stock at the show was good, but one could see there had been a bit of a pinch during the winter. The trade exhibits, too, were particularly good.

It was also necessary to do something to make the autumn show more attractive. At the last show there were not enough side-shows for the townspeople. The show was a success from the point of view of attendance, which proved that the change to Saturday was a good move.

Increased Subscriptions.
Members' subscriptions numbered 2206, which exceeded last year's record total of 2178. The average value of subscriptions paid on the Tomoana ground had been £1994 for the past 13 years. The president appealed to the meeting to continue efforts to obtain new members and said that the society lost something like 150 members a year. However, he was glad to see that this year's membership was 175 up on last year. He suggested that married members with sons should induce their sons to join up as junior members. They would take an interest in the show.

Proposed improvements to the grounds and buildings during the coming year were outlined by the president.

In conclusion he thanked the outgoing committee for the help they had given him during their past year of office.

Mr. C. Douglas outlined improvements to be carried out in the gardens.

New Members.

SWORDFISH NEAR PORANGAHAU
UNUSUAL FIND ON BEACH
WEIGHED 300 LBS.

Deep Wound in its Side

A broadbill swordfish was found on the beach near Blackhead Station north of Porangahau last week.

"It had a deep wound in its side," said Mr. J. McHardy, who found the fish. "It looked as if it has either been in a fight with another of the species or had been damaged against the rocks in the heavy seas."

Mr. McHardy estimated that it weighed between 300lb. and 350lb. He has retained the bill as a memento of the find.

TOWN PLANNING AT PORT AHURIRI
Request Made To Harbour Board

The desirability of having a properly zoned town planning scheme for Port Ahuriri was the reason advanced by the Works Committee of the Napier Borough Council for recommending that an application from the Napier Harbour Board to have the dangerous goods area in the neighbourhood of the sewer tank and Harding Road at Port Ahuriri extended should be deferred.

The committee also recommended that the board should be asked to outline its proposals for dealing with vacant areas of land at the Port and the uses to which those areas are to be put.

A grant of £25 towards the cost of publishing the Land Utilisation Survey booklet, assistance for which was asked by the Mayor of Hastings, was authorised by the Napier Borough Council last night.

The retiring president was accorded a hearty vote of thanks at the motion of Mr. N. Kettle. "We all know what an interest he has taken in the society," said Mr. Kettle.

TROUT CONSERVATION

Investigations made by the Field Research officers and the scientific staff of the Fisheries Department during the last few years into the question of trout conservation have demonstrated that the greatest natural enemy of trout is the shag.

The plea that shags should not be destroyed because they are native birds, or that they are in reality sea-coast dwellers straying inland in small numbers, will not hold water.

To many people the whole question may seem somewhat fooling, but it should be remembered that New Zealand's trout fishing is one of its greatest tourist attractions, where money is freely spent, and apart from the revenue so obtained, it offers a source of livelihood to many dealers in fishing tackle and others connected with the trade.

In addition to this, large sums are spent every year by anglers on fishing licences, travelling, and equipment, thus adding a substantial source of revenue to many not directly connected with the sport.

Hawke's Bay, because of its network of fine waterways and ideal conditions, should be one of the finest trout-fishing areas in New Zealand. Actually, it is one of the poorest.

Then, the flooding problem makes conditions most difficult for when the fish are spawning, and much of the natural increase is lost.

Finally, it may be said that better results might be expected from Hawke's Bay rivers if brown trout were more freely introduced.

TAPPING THE SUN'S VAST POWERS

IDEA IS NOT NEW BUT FEW SCHEMES FOR HARNESSING BEAMS HAVE WORKED

The idea of putting Old King Sol to work for the benefit of mankind is not new. He is not unwilling to do his bit for the world, but the trouble is up to the present very few methods of harnessing the sun-beams have proved of much use.

The power that is dissipated daily of course, is gigantic because the sun is the ultimate source of all energy in the solar system. The amount of heat which goes to waste on a summer's day in England alone would if conserved, it is estimated, be sufficient to light and warm those little islands for a whole month in winter.

A WORKING MODEL He has tubes filled with a black chemical liquid absorbing the heat to the utmost extent. The liquid, warmed by the sun's rays, circulates through a low-pressure steam-boiler, and it is estimated that the light collected from 80 square feet would generate one horse-power.

As a matter of fact, Dr. Abbot has installed at the observatory on Mount Wilson, California, a very successful sunshine cooker which

HAWKE'S BAY WEATHER

"DAILY MAIL'S" SPECIAL FORECAST IS FOR RAIN LATER.

Following is the "Daily Mail's" special forecast for Hawke's Bay— Winds: Moderate to strong north-easterly. Weather: Becoming cloudy to overcast, and rain developing. Temperatures: Mild. Seas: Moderate to rather rough.

Hastings Weather

A frost of 5 1/2 degrees gripped Hastings yesterday morning but bright sunshine later raised temperatures considerably. Meteorological observations taken at the Hastings Magnetic Observatory at Cornwall Park, at 5 p.m. yesterday were as follows—

Other solar engines have been set up in America. One was reported to be capable of pumping water at the rate of as much as 3000 gallons per minute. An account of this particular engine speaks of it as a "sun-heat absorber," and goes on to say that "there are a considerable number of boxes or units, each consisting of a flat metal honeycomb water vessel covered with two layers of glass separated by an air space of one inch. Plane mirrors are mounted on two sides of each box, so as to reflect extra rays upon the surface of the water, and each box has two pipes—one to renew the supply of water, and the other to carry off the steam, as it is formed, to the engine which does the pumping."

Another solar engine has been tried out with good results on a Pasadena ostrich farm. This machine has been described as looking like a huge open umbrella with a piece of the top sawn off. In the concave interior of the apparatus are set no fewer than 1788 separate mirrors, and in the centre is a boiler made of steel and covered with a heat-absorbing material.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

"Now Then"

"Now then," the Prime Minister, the Rt. Hon. M. J. Savage, started a sentence during his Stratford address last week which has been asked as the crowd laughed.

Not Politics

"I don't want to talk about politics," said the Hon. P. C. Webb, Minister of Mines, in speaking at Stratford. "I just want to talk about conditions as they were and as they are."

"Ned Kelly"

"It is interesting to read what the old Tory press said about the Sedon Government," said the Rt. Hon. M. J. Savage at Stratford. "You think now that Ned Kelly was a fool compared to me," he added.

Repairing Flood Damage

Moving pictures of the work of repairing flood damage in Hawke's Bay have been taken during the last week by Mr. R. M. McIntyre for the Government. Mr. McIntyre will leave to-day on return to Wellington.

Napier Pumping Station

The Napier Borough Waterworks Pumping station pumped 59,309,000 gallons of water during May, the maximum demand being 2,059,000 gallons on May 3. The total is 573,000 more than during the corresponding period last year.

Clearing Drains

Approximately 60 men on the unemployed register started work yesterday clearing drains in the Hereatunga and Moerua ridges of the Hawke's Bay County Council under the scheme subsidised by the Government for repairing flood damage.

Invalids' Crossings

A request to the Napier Borough Council to make provision in its estimates for crossings for invalids and prams was received at the monthly meeting last night from Mrs. S. Williamson. The request was referred to the Works Committee.

Napier Motor Campers

"Kennedy Park (motor camp) is still attracting a visiting party comprising 92 persons having used the camp," stated the report for May presented to the Napier Borough Council, last night by the Borough engineer (Mr. W. D. Corbett).

Whispering Campaign

"They say there is a whispering campaign," said the Rt. Hon. J. G. Coates in an address at Green Lane. "The Prime Minister and the other Ministers are for ever fighting it," he continued. "It is not a whispering campaign, ladies and gentlemen; the dogs are barking it."

Lesson of Bad Debts

No final bookings of the Napier Municipal Theatre will be accepted unless a deposit of 5s is first made. A decision to this effect was made by the Napier Borough Council last night on a recommendation made by the Reserves Committee "in view of the bad debts suffered on the old theatre."

Old Fourpenny Piece

The custodian of a hall in New Plymouth was making some repairs to the floor of the building and observed a small shining object dancing to the strokes of his hammer. He picked up the object which was a silver fourpenny piece dated 1842.

A. and P. Show and Half-day

"I think we shall get better support from trade exhibitors for the autumn show in the future now that Hastings has changed to the Saturday half-day," said Mr. J. H. Aspinall, retiring president of the Hawke's Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Association at the annual meeting in Napier.

Curtains for New Theatre

The purchase and installation of curtains for the Municipal Theatre at a cost not to exceed £44 was authorised by the Napier Borough Council last night. This action was considered by the Napier Borough Council last night. The letter stated that the noise was particularly objectionable on Sundays, when people desired a little quietness. It was decided to write to the headmasters of the schools drawing their attention to the complaint.

Enthusiastic Child

A humorous reference to the enthusiastic behaviour of a little Maori boy at a reception tendered him at Patea was made by the Prime Minister, the Rt. Hon. M. J. Savage, at Stratford. The boy was a little curly-headed chap, said Mr. Savage, and every time he got a chance to say "hear, hear," he simply belted it out. (Laughter.)

New Glider for Napier

During the summer a new glider is to be built by the gliding members of the Napier Aero Club, and arrangements are now in hand for the purchase of approved materials and working drawings for the machine. Mr. Falcon Clouston, a club member now living in England, is to be approached to inquire about a suitable type of glider for intermediate training.

Complaint Against Children

The noise made by children running on the new stand at McLean Park, was complained of in a letter from a Latham Street resident considered by the Napier Borough Council last night. The letter stated that the noise was particularly objectionable on Sundays, when people desired a little quietness. It was decided to write to the headmasters of the schools drawing their attention to the complaint.

Material for Sewer

The steel sheet-piling which will be used in the construction of the Hastings sewer, will be made at an outlet near the Ngauroro River-mouth has arrived, according to advice yesterday from the borough engineer (Mr. C. E. Evans). Repairs to the damaged stop-banks near the river-mouth have temporarily delayed construction, but the piling will probably be driven at the beach shortly.

Wanton Destruction

"The children seem to take a delight in damaging fronds of palms, and other trees and shrubs," stated the report presented to the Napier Borough Council last night by the superintendent of reserves (Mr. C. W. Corner). "We have on many occasions enlisted the support of school masters, police and other organisations. I am afraid the majority of children in this town are major from civic-minded; such wanton destruction is to be deplored."

Marewa Town Planning

The Town-Planning Board had approved provisionally the Napier (Marewa) Area town-planning scheme, provided the council agreed to certain minor amendments, said the Department of Internal Affairs in a letter received by the Napier Borough Council at a meeting last night. The recommendation of the engineers that the amendments agreed to was adopted, subject to the approval of the joint committee of the Harbour Board and Borough Council in charge of Marewa.

IMMENSE POSSIBILITIES

The possibilities before such solar engines are immense for their use visualises the harnessing of the sun's power in desert areas for pumping up artesian water and the irrigation of land lying parched and dead beneath the blazing sun at the present time. Man only requires cheap and efficient forms of power for such to come about, because it is known that gigantic stores of water lie beneath the Sahara and the Central deserts of Australia to give only two instances.

One of the most successful solar engines yet invented was the design of Mr Frank Shuman. By constructing a special boiler and building a steam-engine which worked at very low pressure the inventor was able to obtain enough power to work pumping engines for irrigation of the land. The most essential part of the apparatus consisted of many rows of immense curved mirrors which focussed the sun's rays on the tubular boilers, which generated steam sufficient to work the pumps. The apparatus was installed in Egypt and worked very well, developing an output of 63 brake-horse-power per acre of land occupied by the plant.

"SUN-HEAT ABSORBER"

Other solar engines have been set up in America. One was reported to be capable of pumping water at the rate of as much as 3000 gallons per minute. An account of this particular engine speaks of it as a "sun-heat absorber," and goes on to say that "there are a considerable number of boxes or units, each consisting of a flat metal honeycomb water vessel covered with two layers of glass separated by an air space of one inch. Plane mirrors are mounted on two sides of each box, so as to reflect extra rays upon the surface of the water, and each box has two pipes—one to renew the supply of water, and the other to carry off the steam, as it is formed, to the engine which does the pumping."

Another solar engine has been tried out with good results on a Pasadena ostrich farm. This machine has been described as looking like a huge open umbrella with a piece of the top sawn off. In the concave interior of the apparatus are set no fewer than 1788 separate mirrors, and in the centre is a boiler made of steel and covered with a heat-absorbing material. With this it has been found possible to obtain 150 pounds of steam pressure in one hour from cold water, and the engine driven by this pressure has proved capable of pumping water at the rate of fourteen hundred gallons a minute.

ENDLESS SUPPLY OF POWER

The trouble at the present time is that solar engines of this type have formidable competitors in petrol and coal. But these sources of energy are, unfortunately for the world, by no means exhaustible, and some authorities tell us that at the present rate of consumption another century will find the world perilously near having used up its supplies.

When that time approaches man will be compelled to turn to such sources of energy as the sun, which will be able to provide him with an endless supply of power.—JOHN CARVER.

LIST OF 1200 DEMOCRATS AT HEADQUARTERS

Trio Was to be Taken to Germany

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 27, 9 p.m.)

LONDON, June 27.

A message from the Prague correspondent of the London "Daily Telegraph" says that, following the discovery of a conspiracy against well-known German and Czech members of the Democrat Party, living in the Sudeten areas, the police have arrested a number of Henlein Party supporters and raided party premises at Reichenberg, where they found a list of 1200 Democrats which had been compiled by the secret service of the Henlein faction.

It contained numerous details and also the names of three persons marked down for kidnaping and carrying off to Germany. The police have now given these persons special protection and have warned the remainder who are mentioned in the list.

German-Czech trade negotiations, which were broken off owing to the recent tension, were resumed on June 17 at the German wish, says the Berlin correspondent of "The Times." An agreement has now been reached.

A Post For Don Bradman?

£2500 YEAR OFFER

With A Bookmaking Firm

LONDON SOCIETY

United Press Association—Copyright. LONDON, June 26.

The London "Daily Mirror" says that Don Bradman is considering an offer of £2500 a year from the Sports Investors' Society Limited, London, described as a firm of book-makers.

Bradman pointed out that he is bound by his present contract for some time, but the society is prepared to renew the offer at the expiration of the present engagement.

Bradman has promised to consider it. The position is described as the chairmanship of the advisory committee to the society.

Bradman, in an interview with the Australian Associated Press, confirmed that he had received certain correspondence concerning the offer, but said he regarded the whole affair as confidential and could not state when he was likely to decide.

Possibility of Air Attack

ROME ALARM SIRENS

United Press Association—Copyright. LONDON, June 26.

Although the Italian public is calm and it is generally believed the Barcelona Government was bluffing when Senor De Azcarate, Spanish Ambassador at London, declared that unless air attacks on Spanish cities ceased targets might be sought farther afield than Burgos and Salamanca, there is ample proof that Signor Mussolini has taken precautions against possible air attacks on Rome and other centres, including an attempt to bomb the Villa Torlonia, the Duce's home in Rome, reports the Rome correspondent of the London "Daily Telegraph."

Accordingly, for the first time since the Mediterranean crisis due to the Abyssinian war, the beams of a dozen searchlights converged upon Signor Mussolini's house last night. Sentries were posted, and a sound alarm, with sirens, have been installed throughout Rome.

Report To Borough Council

ESTIMATED REVENUE

The minimum standing charges that the Napier Borough Council will have to meet for the new theatre and the estimated revenue were set out by the Town Clerk (Mr. F. R. Waters) in a special report to the monthly meeting last night.

"High rentals will discourage the use of the building, but as shown by the figures below we have not very much to come and go on," the report stated.

The figures were set out as follows: Standing charges per annum: Insurance, £69; caretaker, £260; heating, £20; maintenance, £52; total—£401.

Estimated revenue per annum at rentals originally fixed: Competitions, £35; Operatic Society, £35; Repertory Society, £31; Sunday nights, £52; wool sales, £33; political meetings, £16; lectures, £21; professional companies (two nights, three times per annum), £130; boxing, £50; wrestling, £50; dancing displays, £10; total—£463.

"The revenue may be estimated on the low side," the report continued, "but the estimate for maintenance charges is also very low when one considers lamp replacements, minor repairs, etc. No interest on capital has been allowed."

Moving South African Memorial At Napier

Long Discussion By Borough Council Last Night

Motion Rescinded

Further Consideration To Be Given To Subject

After a discussion lasting nearly two hours, the Napier Borough Council last night decided to rescind a previous motion to move the South African War Memorial to Thackeray Street and to give further consideration to the matter.

A notice of motion along the lines given by the Mayor, Mr. T. W. Hercok, was carried.

The Mayor produced a plan made by the engineer, which showed a pathway leading from the roadside opposite Albion Street to a double colonnade with the war memorial in the centre. Mr. Hercok said that this scheme would also provide shelter.

"It is not only the South African veterans who should be considered," said Cr. A. C. Biggs. If the memorial were moved it would do away with what was looked on by a large number of persons as a safety zone."

The Mayor's motion was seconded by Cr. J. H. Oldham.

Amendment Moved. Cr. Biggs then moved an amendment that the previous motion be rescinded and that the movement be removed and left where it is at present.

The amendment was seconded by Cr. J. H. Oldham.

The following alternative offers were made by the department: (a) Employed 80 per cent. of the labour employed in the register, 50 per cent. of the total labour cost; (b) £10/- per week in respect of each married man engaged.

The Works Committee recommended that decision should be deferred until the method by which the work is to be carried out is decided and that in the meantime the department should be asked if the original offer of 15 per cent. on the contract price still stands.

ALTERATIONS MADE Charges For Lectures and Rehearsals

COUNCIL'S DECISION

Certain alterations in the rentals to be charged for the new Napier Municipal Theatre were decided upon by the Napier Borough Council last night on the recommendation of the Reserves Committee.

It was decided that the classification, "Napier persons and societies not conducted for personal gain" should include the Napier Boxing Association and also similar societies in Hastings, because the Hastings Borough Council is re-appointing.

DECISION DEFERRED

INDIANS WIN AGAIN

Nelson Beaten

By Telegraph—Press Association. NELSON, June 27.

THIRTY THOUSAND CLUB advised that the council requires this area for its future developments and that the club could have the use of the area north of the paddling pool for the Mardif Gras.

Parade Improvement

A scheme proposed by the Joint Committee with the Thirty Thousand Club that a flat area 600ft. long by 120ft. wide be provided on the parade south of the sound shell was then considered by the council before dealing further with the Mayor's motion.

Parade Improvement

The grassed and concrete promenade 7ft. 6in. wide provided on the seaward side and a curved concrete wall. The estimated cost was £546, of which the council's share would be £1420.

Parade Improvement

The scheme was submitted by the borough engineer (Mr W. D. Corbett) on May 24 last.

PROPOSED NEW BUS STAND

MOVE FROM MARINE PARADE

Further Consideration to be Given

"I am very much opposed to the present method of parking these buses," said the Mayor of Napier (Mr T. W. Hercok) at the monthly meeting of the Borough Council last night when moving in accordance with notice given as follows: "That a site in Munro Street be selected as a terminus for railway buses and that the route be down Dickens Street, and back via Emerson Street. This will obviate the parking of buses on the Marine Parade."

The Mayor also moved "That there be parking head on to the kerb on the left side of Emerson Street going down and that no parking be permitted on the left side of that street. The left side coming up Emerson Street to be reserved for the picking up or setting down of passengers and for delivery of small parcels and or where no reasonable provision has been made for larger deliveries."

"That is our playground," continued the Mayor, "and whenever there is anything on it seems unnecessary that we should have a space some 200 feet long which the public cannot use."

"All these services are services to the public and if it seems reasonable to this council that the public would be given a better service if the buses were taken down Munro Street and back through Emerson Street then we are perfectly entitled to act accordingly."

It was unreasonable to ask people who wanted to shop at the bottom of Emerson Street to carry their parcels all the way to the Marine Parade. Under the new scheme there would be between Munro Street and the Parade, three stop-overs, where people could join the buses. The head on to kerb parking proposal for Emerson Street was part of the scheme.

Answering a question by Cr. J. H. Oldham, the Mayor said that his proposal was that the buses should come into Napier along the Parade, turn round the T. and G. corner into Emerson Street, then round into Hastings Street and down Dickens Street to Munro Street, the return route being via Emerson Street. The engineer had suggested that the buses might be brought back to Tennyson Street.

Cr. C. D. Cox suggested that both motions should be referred to the Works Committee to confer with the Traffic Inspector.

Boys Forming Gangs

JUVENILE CRIME Children's Court At Napier

The tendency among boys to get together to form gangs was stressed in the Children's Court at Napier yesterday by Mr J. Miller, S.M., when four youths appeared charged with breaking and entering the premises of the Napier Dairy Co. with intent to commit theft. Two of the youths were further charged with being in a billiards saloon while under the age of 18 years.

One of the youths was placed under the supervision of the child welfare officer for two years and another for a year. The eldest boy was placed on probation for two years. The case against the fourth boy was adjourned to enable further inquiries to be made.

Detective-Sergeant H. Nuttall, said that the large increase of juvenile crime in some towns was viewed with alarm by the police especially where youths congregated in billiard rooms and roamed round the streets at night. Gangs were often formed through this association in billiard rooms he said.

Cr. W. H. Shearer suggested that the buses should be parked on the one way street south of the Sound Shell.

Cr. E. Williams asked if it ever had been thought that Napier should have a bus station. Behind the sound shell would be an ideal situation.

It was decided to refer both motions to the Works Committee.

Cr. J. H. Fieldhouse: Do you propose to call evidence? The Mayor: You wouldn't ask the railway bus people to give evidence? Cr. Fieldhouse: I think they should be allowed to do so. Could they state their views in a letter? The Mayor: That is for them to decide.

CELEBRATING THE CENTENNIAL

PROGRESS MADE IN HAWKE'S BAY

HISTORICAL SURVEY

Report Presented by Mr C. O. Morse

What the 1940 centennial celebrations will involve as far as Hawke's Bay is concerned and an outline of the provincial organisation was given in a special report presented to the Napier Borough Council last night by Mr C. O. Morse.

The report stated that the celebrations were divided into four parts as follows:—(1) The provincial centennial court, (2) historical, (3) local celebrations, and (4) permanent centennial memorials.

The question of soliciting the assistance of all contributory bodies can be arranged only by application and discussion with the various bodies by the Mayor personally, the report continued. "His status as Mayor of the provincial capital in some measure warrants this privilege. The question of the gathering in of all the exhibitors should be the work of the Mayor and the secretary (the Town Clerk)."

Historical Compilation. "Each part of the province will gather in and collate records of various local events—i.e., settlement of Danish people in Dannevirke, Norsewood, etc., and many historical events of the Hawke's Bay generally—these to be taken into account in local celebrations."

The Historical Committee has been set up, and without doubt the various gentlemen nominated can pay attention to this work, again of course under the leadership of the Mayor.

The compiling of records and putting an abstract of these into a readable form will necessitate the employing of an expert. I have had associated with me in the preliminary stages Mr. Alistair Isdale, who has proved himself an expert, particularly from my own personal knowledge of the way in which he grappled with the question of providing and compiling a history of the Hawke's Bay Capital Board.

On account of this work I feel no hesitation whatever in recommending Mr Isdale to the Council to carry out the work. It would be necessary for him to collaborate with every committee in the whole of the district to enable him to compile the final record for publication in book form.

Burden of Cost. "The Provincial Capital celebrations should extend over possibly a week or many days in the form of a carnival embracing both Maori and pakeha, which would prove most interesting and attractive, particularly if the time was arranged so that it would not clash with other celebrations in various parts of the Dominion, such as Akaroa and Waitangi. The carnival without doubt will be a means of providing a certain amount of revenue which should cover the cost."

"At the first meeting I attended in Wellington in connection with the general celebrations in New Zealand, it was stated that £150,000 would be made available by the Government towards subsidising permanent memorials. On that occasion I put forward the suggestion that Hawke's Bay would require approximately £20,000. This, of course, would entail the raising over the whole of the district of £60,000, the allocation being 25 per cent provided by the Government.

HERR HITLER INDIGNANT AT RECALCITRANCE OF AUSTRIA

Opposition To New Nazi Regime: Fears Of A Ruthless Purge

United Press Association—Copyright. LONDON, June 26.

Herr Hitler is indignant at Austria's recalcitrance, says the London "Daily Herald." He gave an audience to Dr. Seys-Inquart, Minister of the Interior, and Herr Neubacher, Mayor of Vienna, at the Berchtesgaden.

They told him the Austrian situation demanded his personal attention. It is feared that if this is given a ruthless purge will be launched in an attempt to extinguish opposition to the new Nazi regime.

Herr Leopold, former Austrian Nazi leader, who was removed from Austria and attached to Herr Hess's staff, heads the group of rebels against Herr Buerckel, whom he regards as his suppressor. There is wide internal dissension and general hatred of Germans.

Vienna housewives to-day assembled in the main market square and protested against the shortage of fruit and vegetables. They said the best food was going to Germany. They sang anti-Hitler songs, and were dispersed by mounted police.

The Nazi Party ordered every Jewish employee not already dismissed to be given a fortnight's notice to-day, says the Vienna correspondent of the London "Daily Telegraph."

It is officially announced in Vienna that as a result of reorganisation, picked Storm Troopers were able to suppress attacks against the Nazi idea or State within a few hours.

SWORDS CLUB AT NAPIER Initial Meeting

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The initial meeting of the Napier Swords Club was held last evening, there being a good attendance of members. An interesting lecture on the salient points of fencing and the elementary phases of the sport was given by the club captain, Mr E. H. Davy.

At the conclusion of the address a committee was formed, the election of officers resulting as follows: Club captain, Mr Davy; treasurer, Mr G. Mollet; secretary, Mr J. G. Hawke; committee, Miss Fuller, Messrs N. Reading and L. Hawke. The first club night will be held next week, the date being left to the committee to decide.

Draw of Police Art Union

SUCCESSFUL EFFORT Large Number of Tickets Sold

FLOOD RELIEF FUND

Excellent results have been obtained by the Napier and Hastings police forces in the art union which they have organised for the relief of flood distress in Hawke's Bay.

Senior Sergeant C. Sivyer, who has been responsible for the Hastings efforts, stated yesterday that the art union would close on Saturday next. The effort had been a great success and it was thought that by the closing time nearly two-thirds of tickets printed would be sold.

The money raised in the two centres would be retained for the separate flood relief funds in those areas.

It is probable that the art union will be drawn on Saturday, July 16, but final arrangements have yet to be made.

Members of the Hastings police force have officiated at many draws, this will be the first occasion on which they have drawn the result of an art union run by themselves.

MEMBER OF PIONEER FAMILY

Death of Mrs E. M. Coates, of Paha

"Daily Mail" Special Service. GIBBORNE, June 27.

Known and respected all over the district as the daughter of a well-known pioneer family, Mrs E. M. Coates of Paha, died at Gisborne, on Sunday following a short illness.

The deceased, who was aged 58, was a daughter of Mr and Mrs Price, well-known as early settlers of the Patutahi district in which they settled soon after the Poverty Bay massacre.

After her marriage in 1903 the deceased proceeded with her husband to the Paha block to take up residence, being among the first settlers in this area.

Mrs Coates was a devoted member of the Anglican Church and an interested worker in all church affairs, while her home was always a popular centre of social activity.

She is survived by her husband, four sons and one daughter.

Traffic Islands At Napier

NEED STRESSED Intersection of Four Streets

REPORT TO COUNCIL

A decision of the Napier Borough Council in June, 1936, to lay down traffic islands at the intersection of Hyderabad Road, George's Drive, Carlyle Street and Thackeray Street was recalled to the attention of the present council last night by a special report presented by the traffic inspector (Mr A. M. Oliver).

The report pointed out that owing to the Waitangi Bridge being out of commission the traffic in Hastings now used the Taradale-Waiotahi route and had to cross the intersection mentioned.

"This intersection is one of the most dangerous in the town," the report stated, "and with the extra amount of traffic using it I consider some form of control is necessary, over it."

"I bring this matter before the council and trust that something will be done, as at the present time it is a motorists' nightmare (a number of collisions having taken place there) and sooner or later a fatal accident will take place at this spot."

"I recommend that temporary safety zones of wood be erected and placed in position immediately."

It was decided to instal the temporary islands as suggested.

Military Units Amalgamate

SPORTING ACTIVITIES Hastings Garrison Rifle Club Revived

ANNUAL BALL

The training, recreational and social activities of the Hastings section of the Mounted Rifles and the Hastings infantry platoon are to be amalgamated.

This was decided at a special meeting of members of both these units, held at Hastings last night. Mr R. J. Vaughan presided over about 35 members.

The recreational committee was elected as follows: Chairman, Mr R. J. Vaughan; executive, Sergeant J. McGlashan, R. Simon, R. Timms, C. Woon, T. Heuval and K. Esam (secretary).

It was proposed to inaugurate an American basketball competition for sports nights on Mondays.

The meeting also revived the Hastings Garrison Rifle Club. Shoots are to be held fortnightly, at week-ends, commencing on July 3.

Arrangements were completed for the annual Regimental Ball to be held in the Drill Hall, Hastings, early in August. Last year's balance sheet showed a profit of £30 on the annual ball.

ACCOUNTANCY AND MACHINES

Replacing Hand Work

ADDRESS AT NAPIER LAST EVENING

The part played in modern business practice by accountancy machines, particularly in doing much of the work formerly done by hand, was the subject of an address on "Machine Bookkeeping," by Mr C. Douglas Wilson, F.E.A.N.Z., to a meeting of the Hawke's Bay Accountant Students' Society last evening.

The lecture was accompanied by a comprehensive description of various machines with specimens of the work. A demonstration was also given of the operation of the machines.

PORT AHURIRI SCHEME

Council Committee To Discuss Proposal

With reference to the proposal for a town planning scheme at Port Ahuriri which was discussed at the Napier Borough Council meeting last evening Cr. P. F. Higgins suggested that a special committee should discuss the proposal with the Harbour Board and on his motion the recommendation was deferred and a committee consisting of the Mayor and Crs. M. S. Spence, J. H. Oldham and J. H. Fieldhouse was set up.

(The recommendations appear on Page 7).

EARLY HISTORY OF TOWN OF NAPIER

Many Difficulties Faced By Settlers Of District

"I think I know New Zealand as well as, if not better than, most people, and I do not know of any other place in the country which has had such peculiar difficulties to surmount as Napier has had to face, and has overcome," said the Rev. J. A. Asher in an address on "Early Napier," at the weekly luncheon of the Napier Rotary Club yesterday.

"To begin with, there was little more than an island hill almost surrounded by water, and it has been through the enterprise, spirit and ability of those who have gone before us, and those who are here to-day, that so much land has been reclaimed. The town has had to face earthquake, fire, and floods, and yet I rejoice in the spirit of hope and courage which still abounds.

"The first resident Magistrate of the town was Mr Alfred Domett, a friend of Robert Browning, who was himself a poet. The surveying, cutting up and naming of parts of the Napier lands was the work of Domett, and many streets in Napier and Port Ahuriri, such as Tennyson and Browning Streets, were named by him.

Before Domett two men who were very intimately associated with the fortunes of the district were Sir Donald McLean and a young man of whom he was later the Hon. J. D. Omond. These men played a very large part in the foundation work of Hawke's Bay, and doubtless the tale of their labours would occupy some place in the story of Hawke's Bay which the speaker had hoped would be published in 1940, at the time of the centenary celebrations.

SALE OF TOWN SECTIONS

The first sale of the sections in Napier was held early in 1857. The price for most sections was £5 for a quarter of an acre, said Mr Asher. He understood that the Masonic block was sold for 1/6 a foot. The hill sections were sold for about 45 an acre, and one person purchased the old Royal Hotel, which was situated in Hastings Street opposite Blythe's. This firm was given a great fillip by the severe earthquake on Sunday in February, 1863. Almost every chimney in the town was shivered, and the building was being rebuilt in brick, iron was used.

"Although there was no exact idea in 1857 as to where the centre of the town would be, the port was the first part to be settled. When the town sections were sold it was not very clear whether the port would continue to be the centre or whether the present site of the town would be the centre. The present site of the town was chosen because of the presence of the Clarendon Hotel, which was built in 1857, and other official buildings also met there.

"Nearly all the land about Munro Street was far as one could go was simply swamp. There was very little flat land about the present site of Napier. A single bank stretched from the sea to Hastings Street. On the land in Napier South where Mr Robert Holt started his business one could get excellent duck shooting. In Napier was a Roman Catholic building at the corner of Shakespeare and France Roads. The first proper church to be built was St. Paul's, which was built in 1857. The provincial council chambers were built in 1860 at the foot of Shakespeare Road, where the new government buildings are now being built. The Magistrate's Court was built there, and other official buildings also met there.

"In 1853 Onepoto Gully was considered a most important place. There was a store there which was owned by some of the early settlers, Messrs Newton and Alexander. An indication that some persons thought it would become the centre of the town was that the only street there was called Main Street.

TROOPS LAND AT NAPIER

"It was in Onepoto Gully that the troops brought to deal with the Maori troubles landed in the early sixties. Men from her Majesty's 65th Regiment landed at the port, and there was no road between the port and the gully. The troops were taken by boats round to the camp. Shortly after the arrival of the troops a cargo of timber was brought from Auckland to build barracks and land at the port. The men carried the timber to the top of the hill where the barracks were built.

"The hill running as far back as Lady McLean's was still known as Barrack Hill. When I came here the barracks were occupied as an Old People's Home," said Mr Asher. "In addition to the men from the 65th Regiment there also came a small body of the Royal Artillery, and their principal duty seemed to have been to fire a cannon every Saturday at noon. For a long time the clocks of Napier were checked from the firing of the cannon.

VARIETY OF NAMES

"What we now know as Port Ahuriri had a variety of names. In the very early days it was known as Oneware. After that it was Port Napier. When I came here was called the Spit. I happened to be present at the opening of the Post Office to replace the building destroyed by the earthquake, and remember that Sir Joseph Ward, at the investigation of some patriotic people, changed the name to Port Ahuriri.

"Some idea of the smallness of the trade may be judged from the Salor's Pride, a small boat which carried about four tons, and plied between the Port and Ahuriri, and was the only means of conveying goods between Napier and the country. Probably the first steamer to arrive at Hawke's Bay was the Wonga Wonga, which arrived in 1857. The commerce of the district was catered for by this little ship of 103 tons and the 60-ton schooners, Sea Serpent and Esther, and two smaller schooners of 40 tons each.

"The Sea Serpent and Esther, provided principally for Napier's needs. Potatoes came from the Chatham Islands, flour from Auckland, oatmeal from Scotland, cheese from England, and lamb and bacon from Ireland.

RESCUED FROM THE SEA

MODEL AEROPLANE CRASHES

A COLD SWIM

Owner Thirty Minutes In The Water

Over 30 minutes was spent in the icy-cold water by Mr Roy McGregor in retrieving his gasoline-powered model aeroplane Dizzy from the sea off Hardinge Road, Port Ahuriri, on Sunday morning.

This plane, which holds all the Napier records, was being tested in the morning at the Embankment Aerodrome, Napier, when an automatic timer stopped the motor. After several flights the machine was made ready for the final test before an attempt was made on the record. It rose off the ground and was well up in the air when Mr McGregor realised that the timer had not been set in motion.

Immediately the nearest motor-car was commandeered to chase the unlucky machine, which was being carried by a light breeze towards Port Ahuriri. The motor of the plane was running at 4000 revolutions, which is its maximum speed, and the machine climbed to a height of about 2000ft. It was over the National Tobacco Factory when the petrol supply ran out.

No choice. The noise of the engine had attracted the attention of a number of persons, and they watched the machine drift slowly towards the sea. Eventually it struck the water 200 yards away from the middle of Hardinge Road.

The owner had no choice, but to strip down to swim out to rescue his machine. The off-shore wind took the aeroplane further out to sea, and it was 30 minutes before Mr McGregor was able to bring the water-logged and awkward aeroplane back to land.

No further flights were possible with Dizzy, and the attempt, the record was postponed. The test flight lasted for 10min. 15sec.

An Excellent Flight

MODEL AEROPLANE Machine Stays Up For Over 16 Minutes

CAUGHT BY WIND

An excellent flight of 16mins 25secs was made by the gasoline-powered model aeroplane, K.G. 3 from the Embankment Aerodrome, Napier, on Sunday. This is the longest timed flight yet made by a local gasoline-powered model aeroplane.

K.G.3 is an old machine and was set off on a supposedly short flight. After it had taken to the air, a rising current of air caught it, and the wind carried the machine high into the air. It circled over the Bluff and the Inner Harbour when gliding down to earth, and eventually struck a telegraph pole close to the National Tobacco Factory offices.

Improvements To Road

NAPIER PROPOSAL Request Before Borough Council

WESTSHORE ACCESS

A proposal to improve the alignment of the roads where the Westshore access road meets Hyderabad Road was discussed by the Napier Borough Council last night.

The Hawke's Bay County Council wrote stating that the present approach to the access road at the Napier end emerges across the railway line between two wool stores and will be a source of danger. The county desired to continue the access road in a straight line to Hyderabad Road, thus eliminating the zig-zag and bringing the railway crossing into the open. The council's approval was asked for, and it was stated that the Harbour Board was giving the necessary land.

The works committee recommended that as that was the road the council had heard of the scheme, the county should be requested to supply full details of the proposal and that it should be suggested that a joint committee of both bodies should be set up to go into the matter.

A letter from the Hawke's Bay Farmers' Co-operative Association Ltd., stated that the proposal if carried would mean closing the railway siding to their wool store and that that would affect from 1000 to 1500 farmers.

Fifth Grade To Be Formed?

HASTINGS RUGBY Discussion At Meeting Of Sub-Union COMMITTEE SET UP

The Hastings Rugby Sub-Union has decided to endeavour to start a fifth grade competition in the borough. At last night's meeting of the sub-union, it was resolved that a sub-committee consisting of the chairman (Mr C. Bunker) and Mr Walter approach the newly-formed Mercantile Club to ask them whether it would be possible for them to form a fifth grade team.

Other attempts will be made to form fifth grade teams from the Hastings clubs and the schools. It was decided to hold lectures for players on Thursday evenings after practices, at which referees would give addresses on different rulings.

It was decided to hold lectures for players on Thursday evenings after practices, at which referees would give addresses on different rulings.

A request from the Havelock North club delegates that a senior match should be played on the Havelock North ground once during the season was referred to the fixtures committee after members had pointed out that the sub-union did not make a practice of playing senior games outside the two main centres.

It was resolved to hold schoolboys' seven-a-side games on the No. 1 ground at Nelson Park, Hastings, at half-time in the main senior match. The games will be of one spell of five minutes' duration.

NAPIER BOROUGH COUNCIL

SUM OF £25,000 TO BE BORROWED MONTHLY MEETING

To Raise £20,000 During Current Year

In accordance with the advice of the Borough Engineer, the Napier Borough Council decided at its monthly meeting last night on the recommendation of the Finance Committee to borrow the full amount of £25,000 for the low level reservoir. It was stated that the sum required to be raised during the current year was £20,000.

There were present: The Mayor (Mr T. W. Hercock), and Crs. A. E. Bedford, M. S. Spence, A. C. Biggs, E. Williams, P. F. Higgins, J. H. Oldham, W. H. Shearer, E. E. Carrington, C. D. Cox, and J. F. Oldham, the Town Clerk (Mr F. R. Watters) and the Borough Engineer (Mr W. D. Corbett).

The council's application for £20,000 this financial year on account of its £25,000 loan was receiving consideration, said the State Advances Corporation in a letter received.

"An indication has been given us that we need not have a tithe of evidence that there was excessive speed," the Mayor said.

The engineer was instructed to proceed with the erection of women's conveniences at a site selected at Port Ahuriri.

Following a recent deputation to the council the Napier Technical Memorial Band wrote asking for an increased subsidy and enclosing a list of the new instruments required at a cost of £615.

The council decided on the recommendation of the Finance Committee that, provided the band can finance the purchase of instruments up to the value of at least £300, and does purchase those instruments, the annual subsidy of £100 be granted, otherwise the subsidy will be £50.

A grant of £2 2s was made to the Royal Waiwera Society. The application of the Napier Swimming Club for use of the Municipal Baths for 12 Tuesday nights next season between December 1 and March 31 was granted.

The Baths and Library Committee reported having requested the Borough Engineer to include in his estimates the question of improving the heating of the waiting room at the baths.

The recommendation was adopted. The committee also reported having considered the question of making the swimming pool shallower and recommending that the borough engineer be instructed to proceed with that work at a total cost of £750.

Cr. Oldham said that this was the first step necessary to proceed with the proposal to raise the temperature of the water in the baths.

Baths for Schools? Cr. Higgins said he had heard a whisper that some of the schools proposed to build their own baths. What was wrong with the Municipal Baths? he asked. One objection was the water was too cold. If the temperature could be raised why not place the position before the Government? Surely it was better to swim in warm, salt water, than in cold fresh water.

Cr. Fieldhouse said he thought the committee should meet the school committees to see what could be done in the matter. It was decided to refer the proposal to the estimates committee and to request the baths committee to have a discussion with the school committees.

Cr. Fieldhouse said that all school committees had received circular letters from the Education Department offering a 50 per cent subsidy on the cost of baths and they were looking round for finance.

TABLE TENNIS AT NAPIER

Successful Opening "AWAY TO FLYING START"

Ladder Matches Played

Almost 60 members were present at the opening night of the Napier Table Tennis Club yesterday at the Foresters' Hall, when the first round of the club's ladder matches was played. The club's four tables were in constant demand, and already it has been decided to purchase two new tables for next week's games.

"The club has got away to a flying start," said the secretary, Mr Hastings clubs and the schools. It was decided to hold lectures for players on Thursday evenings after practices, at which referees would give addresses on different rulings.

Tournaments with other clubs and later possibly other towns will be arranged and it is hoped to stage a championship tournament.

RATANA SMASH INQUIRY: DEFENCE OF THE DRIVER

"Was Not Blameworthy Or Culpable," Says Counsel

By Telegraph—Press Association. WELLINGTON, June 27.

An analysis of the evidence given during the inquiry into the Ratana derailment, with the object of showing that the train did not travel at an excessive speed, was made by Mr C. G. Watson, who appeared for the Drivers' Association and the driver of the train, Mr E. Percival, when the inquiry resumed to-day.

Mr Watson said that his purpose was to show that the driver of the train was not blameworthy or culpable.

The only facts with which he was concerned, said Mr Watson, related to the speed of the train and the position resolved itself into two questions: Was the speed excessive, so as to cause the accident, or, whatever the speed was, was it culpable on the part of the driver to stop? Although the critical time was just prior to the derailment the board must be concerned with the speed on the whole journey.

After dealing with the evidence Mr Watson said, "I think I have proved that up to the time of the derailment there was a tithe of evidence that there was excessive speed."

FINE RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENTS

FAMOUS CHEF AT HASTINGS

BAKERY BUSINESS Views on New Zealand Products

To have won 160 medals and numerous cups and diplomas—many of which have been awarded to no other man in New Zealand—is the distinction held by Mr George B. Woolley, F.Inst., B.B., the proprietor of Bark's bakery business at Hastings.

Formerly one of Europe's most famous chefs, Mr Woolley can look back on a vivid career, a full life of many achievements. He recently arrived at Hastings to take over the new business of Bark's bakery business at Hastings.

"I came to New Zealand to show the people how far one can go in the bakery business," said Mr Woolley, in an interview with the "Daily Telegraph" yesterday. "And the apparent progressiveness of the industry encouraged me to take up business there," he added.

Relating some interesting opinions based on his own experiences, Mr Woolley is convinced that a mistake has been made in sending all the bakers to London for training to the exclusion of the western ports, which serve the English Midlands.

Mr Woolley, who was a chef, caterer and teacher in artistic confectionery, can prove quite conclusively that the trade is an art. One of his principal successes was the winning of a cup presented by Sir Charles Batho several years ago. The cup was presented after Sir Charles Batho, then Lord Mayor of London, had been entertained by a party of Continental confectioners.

The confections entered were exhibited in Brussels and Mr Woolley transhipped his entry by an Imperial Airways aeroplane, later returning to England with the cup.

The principal awards of Mr Woolley include the Croix d'Honneur at Brussels in 1924 and 1926 and at Paris in 1925. One of the cups awarded was presented to him by the famous Burgomaster of Brussels, Adolph Max, who became world-famous during the German invasion of Belgium in 1914.

Among the awards of Mr Woolley's gratulatory messages is one from Mr M. Mackman, reputed to be the world's greatest baker.

"New Zealand is a splendid country for raw materials," said Mr Woolley, in referring to the products of the Dominion. Convinced that there is no other butter in the world to be compared with that of New Zealand, he has used this butter for all his prize-winning entries.

Mistake in Labelling. Commenting on meat, and particularly lamb, Mr Woolley expressed the opinion that a mistake was made in labelling the lamb from Canterbury as "Canterbury lamb." It should be labelled "New Zealand lamb" because the average working man never hears of Canterbury, New Zealand, and would not take the trouble to specify it.

New Zealand meat, he said, should be more conspicuously marked. When Mr Woolley was associated with a restaurant in the Midlands, no less than 1 cwt. of New Zealand butter was used a week.

"English people would certainly buy New Zealand butter if it was brought more prominently to their notice," he said.

"The eggs, fish and apples I saw in Europe cannot be compared with those in New Zealand," he said.

Mr Woolley proposes to extend his business at Hastings and supply a miscellany of specialties in addition to the usual lines of large and small goods and confectionery. He has supplied sweets, candy, and Easter eggs made from his own recipe to Royal families.

He is the author of a number of books of note on confectionery and is an official contributor to the "New Zealand Bakers' and Grocers' Review."

It is not only his achievements in his trade that have earned Mr Woolley prominence, however. He has a particularly fine war record, having served with the Imperial Forces during the 1914-1918 period. He saw active service in France, Italy, Greece and Turkey, and was with the first British troops who marched into Constantinople.

When the American forces joined in active service, Mr Woolley was appointed a staff instructor. At the conclusion of the war, however, he was given the option of accepting the D.S.O. or travelling back to England as King's Messenger, and he chose the latter.

"I wanted to get home quickly to my job," Mr Woolley added, smiling.

Floods in Napier South

PLAN AWAITED

Discussion By Borough Council

Immediate attention to the problem of alleviating flooding in Napier South was asked for in letters dealt with at the monthly meeting of the Napier Borough Council last night.

The first letter, from the Te Awa Citizens' League, dated June 2, enclosed a copy of the following resolution:

"That the Borough Council take immediate action to alleviate the flooding position and be given a week to reply, otherwise to apply through the Members for Napier to the Government for relief."

The second letter was from the Napier South Progressive League (formerly the Te Awa Citizens' League) asking for a reply to the former letter and immediate attention to various matters in the Napier South area.

Cr. A. C. Biggs said that the council had already resolved to await the completion of the survey at present being carried out and that was all they could do.

"Tenants Leaving"

Cr. J. H. Fieldhouse said that at the meeting of the council on May 30 it was pointed out that a report would be brought down in 21 days, but that had not been done. There was feeling in Napier South that there would be delay in dealing with the matter. Tenants were leaving their houses as fast as they could obtain other premises. He considered that immediate action should be taken. It would take 18 months for the report to be completed and the problem dealt with.

The Mayor said that the engineer was awaiting a plan being prepared by Mr. C. Hochford, the Rivers Boards Engineer for the Public Works Department, and that plan would be available within a week.

Every councillor present was sympathetic with Napier South and desired that the council should be dealt with at the earliest possible moment, he said.

Cr. E. E. Carrington stated that it was quite unnecessary to await a report before dealing with the water which was present flooding the subsoil and which was 5ft above the level of the water in the river.

Cr. Fieldhouse asked to have his expression of regret at the delay recorded.

The Mayor said he took exception to any suggestion that the council was responsible for the delay. Until the Public Works Department plan was available he was not prepared to commit the council to an expenditure of £800 for a drain that might prove useless.

On the motion of Cr. Biggs it was decided to proceed with the next business.

Statements In Press

LEAKAGE ALLEGED Comment By Mayor Of Napier

"I THINK IT WRONG"

Reference to what he described as a leakage of information to the Press was made by the Mayor of Napier (Mr T. W. Hercock) at the monthly meeting of the Borough Council last night.

"Some information has been given to the Press and the council has been committed to certain discussions," said the Mayor.

"According to the Press tonight's meeting was to discuss the building of baths at the port. I certainly did state during my election campaign that the port was entitled to baths. But a statement has been made that that subject will be discussed and I think that is wrong. I have no objection to anyone giving information to the Press, but it should be done under his own name."

Cr. J. H. Fieldhouse said that as one particularly interested in the baths project he would like to state that he had given no information.

"We are committed to discuss it tonight and I say it will not be discussed because it has not been before the council," said the Mayor.

IS THE SHAG A MENACE?

SPORTING OPINIONS DIFFER

BONUS FAVOURED

WAIPIKURAU. Sportsmen in Central Hawke's Bay have generally expressed agreement with the remarks of Mr R. J. D. Sharpe, published in yesterday's "Daily Mail", regarding the depredations of shags. The last fishing season is stated to have been the worst on record as far as Central Hawke's Bay is concerned, and the rapidly increasing "colonies" of shags are pointed to as the only possible reason for this state of affairs.

The suggestion of a "shag drive", however, did not receive complete support from one prominent sportsman. "A more prolonged effort is required than that suggested," he said. "Although such a drive might considerably reduce the numbers of the birds for a time, they would increase again very quickly. It was formerly the custom for the Hawke's Bay Acclimatisation Society to pay a bonus of 1/- per head for shags, and if that had been continued I do not think we would have been as seriously troubled as we are at present."

A Different Opinion. That there are two sides to this question was shown by the remarks of an old resident of the district in conversation with a "Daily Mail" reporter.

"I believe the scarcity of trout can be accounted for by the abnormal weather conditions we have experienced," was his opinion. He also advanced the novel theory that the shags actually were of benefit to the sportsman in that they prey on the weaker fish—the ill-fated and diseased—first of all, and thus tend to improve the species.

"There is a natural balance which it is unwise to upset," he concluded.

OLD SOLDIERS IN CONFERENCE

SOUTH AFRICAN WAR VETERANS

GISBORNE MEETING

Napier Memorial Discussed

GISBORNE. The usual monthly meeting of the South African War Veterans' Association was held in the R.S.A. rooms, Reads Quay. Veteran J. Lindon presided over a good attendance of members.

The hon. secretary of the North Taranaki branch wrote with reference to remits for the forthcoming conference, offering the services of their president, Mr Geo. Gibson, as proxy if needed.

The hon. secretary gave his usual report on the working of the branch since last meeting.

With regard to pension matters, a remit from Invercargill that South African war veterans be granted the old age pension at the age of 55 years, was not thought worth supporting, as it was pointed out that very few, if any, were now under that age.

It was decided to support the Dominion executive and the Hastings association in their objection to the Napier memorial being re-erected in a back street. If a new site was selected it should be as prominent as the present site. Gisborne was interested, as the names of those who enlisted from Poverty Bay were on the memorial.

RANGERS SCORE A VICTORY

Waipawa Defeated By 29 Points To 8

WAIPIAWA. Rangers registered a well-deserved win in the Central Hawke's Bay senior Rugby competition, beating Waipawa on their home ground by 29 points to 8.

Rangers have an excellent back division, which handled the ball well. Outstanding was Harvey, who scored three brilliant tries as the result of swerving runs, and his showing certainly entitles him to consideration for representative honours.

Other try-getters for Rangers were Henderson and Collins (ex-All Black). Haldane made four conversions, French converted one try and kicked a penalty goal, and A. Rasmussen landed a goal from a penalty. The Waipawa score was made up of tries by Warea and Green, Stephenson converting the first.

The junior game between these two clubs was won by Waipawa by six points to nil, two tries scored by Robertson and Meha.

The twenty-fourth International Horse Show and Jumping Competition will be held at Lucerne from July 2 to July 10. There will be 12 contests.

Chalked on the windows of an empty house in Brougham Street, Wellington, is the discouraging legend, "Not to Let." Tradesmen who are renovating the house state that they were forced to put up the warning in self-defence against eager home-hunters. "They became such a pest that we couldn't get on with our work," said one of them. He added that a carpenter working there previously declared that he had 80 inquiries in one day before he lost count!

USE OF AEROPLANES FOR TREE PLANTING

Suggestion Made At Napier Meeting Yesterday By Mr J. H. Absolom

The possible use of aeroplanes as an economical means of sowing seed for reforestation to combat river erosion was mentioned by Mr J. H. Absolom at the annual meeting of the Hawke's Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Society at Napier yesterday, when reporting on the recent meeting of local body representatives held to discuss the problem.

Mr Absolom said that he had received a letter from a man who had informed him that in America an enormous saving in the cost of spraying large areas had been saved by using aeroplanes. The writer of the letter suggested that a similar method might be adopted for sowing seeds.

Shortage of Timber. "Apart from erosion there will be a terrible shortage of timber in this country in a few years time," said Mr W. A. Tod. Forests were being used up all over the world far quicker than they were being replaced. Therefore it behooved this country to go in for tree planting which would stop erosion and at the same time create a great asset. Mr W. J. Livingstone suggested that Scotch heather and other small vegetation might be established. Mr Absolom said that on his property at Rissington the timber was not cut out of the gullies. "Those faces don't slip to the same extent that they would if cleared," he said. Mr J. N. Lowry said he had been told by his father that he had been to the watershed of the Tutaekuri and Ngaruroro rivers was covered in bush and fern and there was very little scrub. It seemed that the scrub had come in as the fern went out and the speaker said he would like to know if fern held the country together better than scrub. On his property there 14 miles of the Ngaruroro River and the faces there previously grazed sheep. At present that area of some 14,000 acres was nothing but dense manuka which apparently did not hold the water at all.

The damage done by earthquakes on the fault lines was referred to by Mr J. J. Graham. "Every big earthquake shatters that country and brings down single slides," he said.

Mr J. M. Chambers said that the only way to deal with single slides was to build walls against them. He had seen places where that had been done in the Pyrenees and other parts of Europe, but would prove too expensive for New Zealand. Trees would not hold in those shingle slides.

SALE ACT IN FORCE ON JULY 1

AUSTRALIAN MOVE

Proclamation Issued Recently

The Sale of Wool Act, 1937, is to come into force on July 1, 1938, according to a proclamation.

The Act abolishes the draft allowance on wool. Similar legislation is being brought into operation by the various States in Australia on July 1 and also, it is understood, in South Africa. The draft allowance is a deduction which buyers have always made of 1 lb for every cwt. bought, or approximately 3 1/2 lb. a bale.

BACON CURING

The Dominion's lamb and other meat products are well represented in the New Zealand pavilion at the Glasgow Exhibition. This section of the display has been arranged by the London staff of the New Zealand Meat Producers' Board.

Scotland is itself a large exporter of meat, therefore the opportunities of extending business in that direction are limited, states a report issued by the Meat Board. However, New Zealand pigs are bought by Scottish bacon curers, and one important Glasgow curing firm co-operating with the Board in preparing in attractive form 1/2 lb. samples of bacon of New Zealand origin. Soil Survey Work

EXTRA ROOMS

Pressure of Work In Division

FIRST MAP PRINTED

Because of the increased work being handled by the Soil Survey Division of the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research, which is at present compiling a soil and land utilisation survey of the Hawke's Bay area, it has become necessary to find additional accommodation for the officers working on the survey.

The division, which was formerly situated in the buildings of the Department of Agriculture in Queen Street, Hastings, has now obtained an extra room in the building of the Bank of New South Wales in Market Street. The division will retain the rooms used formerly solely for the use of draftsmen, and Mr T. J. Pohlen, who is in charge of the survey, will be situated in Market Street.

Half the map of the Heretaunga Plains, the first section of the survey to be completed, is now printed and draftsmen are busy on the second half.

Royal Show May Come To Hawke's Bay For 1940

Reference At Napier Meeting By Mr J. H. Macniven

Horse Section

Recommendation Made To Committee Of A. & P. Society

The probable holding of the Royal Agricultural and Pastoral Show in Hawke's Bay in 1940 was mentioned by Mr J. H. Macniven at the annual meeting of the Hawke's Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Society in Napier yesterday.

Mr Macniven also discussed various points in connection with the showgrounds. He said that every section on the show ground was provided with shelter except the horse section and he did not think it fair in bad weather to see good horses and gear left out in the open.

"I would like to see the incoming committee provide cover for those pens," said Mr Macniven. "We all think the Royal Show will be held here in 1940. That would be a start and would prevent the whole of the expense falling on the society in one year."

The speaker also referred to criticism that had been levelled at the society for cutting down some of the trees on the show ground. Some trees had to go because they were dangerous and might have fallen down and killed someone in a heavy wind, he added. The new bridge to be erected over the lake would be made entirely from timber grown on the ground and the society would have some timber to sell.

Loss On A. & P. Farm

COST OF STOCK FEED

Report Made To Annual Meeting

BRIGHTER PROSPECTS

"We are very disappointed with the farm account, but I think every farmer in this room will agree with me that very few farmers have made a profit this year," said Mr J. H. Macniven at the annual meeting of the Hawke's Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Society in Napier yesterday when referring to the small loss made during the past year on the operations of the society's farm.

The account was £15 on the wrong side of the ledger, Mr Macniven added, but £380 had been spent on mangolds and hay and top-dressing. There was some £40 worth of hay left that had not been shown as a credit, and if that amount was taken into account a small profit would be shown. The previous year wool sold off the farm realised £320 but the clip during the past year realised only £60. However, everything pointed to a profit being made this year.

It is anticipated that the extensions now in hand at New Plymouth should provide ample supplies for the provinces south of Auckland. The usual liberal appropriation has been made for depreciation. Stocks which have been conservatively valued, are considered ample to meet immediate requirements.

The retiring directors, Mr S. Irwin Crookes and Mr G. L. Marshall, offer themselves for re-election.

Increased Profit

UNCHANGED 6 PER CENT. DIVIDEND

Extensions to Plant

A net profit of £22,224 is shown in the accounts of the New Zealand Farmers' Fertiliser Company, Limited, for the year ended May 31. This compares with £21,160 a year ago and £19,374 in 1936. The directors have added £4000 to the reserve fund, increasing it to £40,000, and recommend an unchanged dividend of 6 per cent. for the year. The distribution absorbs £1

Salute Broken Off. At one stage there was every prospect of Taranaki losing one of its most promising gallopers. Negotiations for the sale of Majority were complete except for arrangement of transport. As the horse was destined for India, it was found he had missed the only available boat last Monday, which meant the New Plymouth representative would not be in time for September racing. Majority is said to have done well during the course of his five weeks' spell.

Related to Siegfried. Senior, who was a very close third in the Ascot Gold Cup a week ago, is closely related to the Hawke's Bay stallion Siegfried, being by Trigo from Wish Maiden, who is a full-sister to Siegfried. Senior has been showing great form of late, and recently won the St. George Stakes.

Fraun, a three-quarter brother to Siegfried, also recently won the Ascot Vale Stakes and is racing particularly well in the best company at present.

Leading Jockeys. C. G. Goulsbro celebrated his return to the saddle by winning on Alyth last Saturday and then scored again later in the day on El Meynell. Strangely enough, L. J. Ellis, who has experienced a lean innings during Goulsbro's suspension, also came to light on Saturday in winning three races at Ashburton. With a run of luck, Ellis has an excellent chance of reaching the century mark before the season closes at the end of next month. At the same time, his opportunities are fairly limited during that period.

Shining Hours Penalised. Shining Hours has been rehandicapped by Mr H. Cole to 8.13 in the Farewell Handicap at Marton on Saturday. She is a vastly improved filly.

Power Chief. Power Chief is credited with having raced particularly impressively at Ellerslie, especially when he won the Hunt Club Cup. A very much improved young chaser, the former Hastings hunter will be set a much stiffer task if brought over for the approaching Hawke's Bay Hunt meeting, but he should be well in the limelight.

TURF BOY, who carried 11.7 into second place in the Port Phillips Hurdles on Saturday behind Koko King, is one of the favourites for the Victorian Grand National Hurdles, to be run on Saturday. Carrying a £2000 stake, this is the most valuable hurdle event in Australia or New Zealand.

TAILLIGHT SCHOOLS WELL AT AWAPUNI

Prospects For Marton Meeting On Saturday

"Daily Mail" Special Service. PALMERSTON N. June 27. Taillight has not raced over hurdles since he made his debut at Marton in New Year and lost ground through jumping extravagantly. L. Knapp, however, has been very patient with this Day Comet gelding, who has developed into a very solid stamp of horse. Taillight schooled particularly well at Awapuni last week which indicates that he will be in nice condition at Marton on Saturday.

Bad Luck. Burghley had been pleasing L. Jarvis more than Crocyden in his preparation for the Dannevirke Hunt Cup, and executed some excellent trials. However, while jumping on Thursday morning he over-reached and came in very lame. Fortunately the trouble does not appear to be serious and it should be possible to have this young horse ready for the Rangitikei Hunt Cup next month.

First for Six Months. Waterproof, who ran quite a good race into fourth place behind Royal Tinge on Saturday, had not raced since he made his debut at the Pahiatua meeting in January and it is reasonable to assume that he will be a much improved horse at Marton this week. The Tidal three-year-old is closely related to Brambleton.

Short of a Race. Golden Enterprise was backed with confidence at Dannevirke on the strength of some good gallops with Joe Louis, but after looking likely turning for home, he weakened at the finish. Golden Enterprise

Lucky Purchase: HAWKE'S BAY HUNT CLUB NOMINATIONS

How Winner Of Derby Was Sold Outstanding Entry List For Steeplechase

Hon. Peter Beatty First Demurred At £8000 For Bois Roussel

A particularly fine Hunt Cup field of 17 is the outstanding feature of the nominations for the Hawke's Bay Hunt Club's meeting on Saturday, July 16, entries for which closed with the secretary (Mr A. E. Wishart) last night. Among those engaged for this race are the Hawke's Bay Steeplechase winner, Skerryvore, the A.R.C. Hunt Cup winner, Power Chief, Count Willonyx, Interlocutor, Primak and Master Hector, all winners recently in useful company, and also that smart hunter of two seasons back, Prosy Boy.

Other races on the programme have also filled particularly well, and the total entries for the meeting are 96, compared with 77 last year. It is very pleasing to note that the entries are very evenly distributed, 17 being the largest and 10 the smallest field.

Following are this year's figures compared with those of twelve months ago.

Table with columns for race names and numbers of entries for 1937 and 1938. Races include Otane Hurdles, Okawa Maiden, Hunt Cup, Riverslea Hack, Soutra Hunters, Waitangi Hack, and Tikokino Handicap.

Inauguration Of New Centre

HASTINGS DECISION Piping and Dancing Association LIST OF OFFICERS

A decision to inaugurate a Hawke's Bay Centre of the Piping and Dancing Association of New Zealand, was made at a representative meeting in the Premier Hall, Hastings, on June 27. Mr N. Mackenzie Forbes, of Waipukurau, delivered an instructive address, detailing the important work that was ahead of the new committee of the centre. He said there was every indication of this new centre's becoming the strongest branch in New Zealand, and he trusted that societies and sports bodies would get in touch with the secretary, who would willingly assist them at all times.

The district from Waipara to Woodville, he said, was a large one, and the work of organising the new centre was not an easy task. He had been greatly assisted by Mr W. A. Gunn, of Hastings, who has had many years of piping and dancing organising experience. Mr Wattie thanked the speaker and moved that Mr Mackenzie Forbes' valuable services be recorded.

Officers Elected. The first officers elected for the coming year are as follows: Patron, Mr T. Parker, Napier (now visiting Great Britain); organising convener, Mr N. Mackenzie Forbes, Waipukurau; president, Mr P. J. Priest, Hastings; vice-president, Messrs J. A. MacFarlane, Napier, Ewen MacLennan, Porangahou, J. W. MacNutt, Waitea, J. Ramsay, Waiohiki, W. Macdonald, Napier, B. Farquharson, Havelock North, Cuthbert Crooks, Waipukurau, A. J. Wattie, Napier; secretary and treasurer, Mr W. A. Gunn, Hastings; sub-committees (Waipara), Messrs A. MacErich, J. D. Simpson, A. Shepperd and R. C. Bauld; (Takapau), Messrs R. A. Fraser, J. Grant, D. Macmillan and F. Cuth-

ABOUT 190 MEN EMPLOYED FLOOD DAMAGE IN THE COUNTY EXTRA GANGS

Forty Taken On To Clear Drains

About 40 extra men were put to work by the Hawke's Bay County Council yesterday in clearing drains blocked by flood-born silt in the Raupare, Pakowhai, and Mahora areas. The additional labour means that a total of about 190 men are at present employed on various forms of flood repair work through the county.

The extra gangs which started work yesterday will probably finish drain-clearing in two months, although portions of the work will be completed in a matter of weeks. The 40 men have been employed on the strength of the Department of Labour agreeing to pay 90 per cent of the extra labour and 25 per cent of the transport.

A meeting of all interested will be held in the Chamber of Commerce Room, Hastings, tomorrow night at 7.30 o'clock for the purpose of making preliminary arrangements for the Hastings Returned Soldiers' Association ball to be held on August 4.
