Scene of April Flood Visited

"Our first glimpse of the desolated Esk Valley caused exclamations of the utmost amazement and sympathy for the settlers affected by the tragic flood," said Mr A. R. Johnthe settlers affected by the tragic flood," said Mr A. R. Johnston, leader of the large group of Southland farmers visiting the province. Mr Johnston was interviewed by the "Daily Mail" at Napier yesterday afternoon, after the party had driven through the adjacent farm lands and the Esk Valley. "One could not but be appalled at the awful destruction caused, not only by the flood, but by the depositing of so much useless sand on what obviously was a rich and fertile

"We could readily believe that the Esk Valley must have been one of the most beautiful areas of pastoral land in New Zealand," Mr Johnston continued. "It seems incredible that such a small stream should be responsible for the damage, which is beyond description. It is certainly a case of hardship and loss which should be met in every possible way by the Government and the authorities concerned."

Mr. Johnston, said that the motor

Mr Johnston said that the motor trip had taken the party to Te Mata peak, whence an excellent view of Havelock North and Hastings, with Napier in the distance, was obtainable

From the Peak, the party proceeded via the Longlands orchards to Ngatarawa and Hastings, visiting Cornwall Park en route.

After luncheon the journey was continued by way of the Poplar Avenue and Westshore to the Esk Valloy returning to Hastings via

"I want to congratulate the local bodies and those concerned," Mr Johnston said, "on the splendid recovery and rebuilding of the arears, both town and country, damaged by the 1931 earthquake. Little remains country which appears to produce

"If the Napier people intend to leave or erect a memorial to commemorate the earthquake," he said, "I do not think they could do better than leave St. Paul's Church as its now stands. As the town has no monument at present to record the monument at present to record the disaster, I am convinced that the church is the most fitting memorial, and should be left standing."

Observance Of Arbor Day

PLANTING OF TREES

Appeal Sent To Hastings

"We may be able to do something in this matter in Railway Road and in some of our reserves," said the Mayor (Mr G. A. Mad dison). The matter arose at Thursday night's meeting of the Hastings Borough Council through a suggestion made by the Minister of Internal Affairs (the Hon. W. E. Parry) that citizens should plant suitable flowering or berry trees in their gardens on Arbor Day for the benefit of dens on Arbor Day for the benefit of bird life during the autumn months. The Minister advised that Wed-nesday, August 3, had been fixed for this year's observance of Arbor Day and the department was desirous of securing the co-operation of local bodies in the organisation of suitable forms of celebration of the occasion in the various centres.

The council decided to defer the matter until consideration was given to the supplementary estimates.

Severe Penalty Inflicted On Offender

By Telegraph-Press Association. AUCKLAND, July 15. The serious danger of tremendous damage being caused in State forests by fires lit near fire district boundaries without due precautions boundaries without due precautions being observed was referred to by Mr Orr Walker, S.M., in the Police Court here to-day.

A charge of lighting a fire in the Riverhead State Forest Fire District without lawful authority on January 23 was denied by Frank Peter Gill, motor driver, who was represented by Mr Taylor.

Forest Patrolman Thomas Morrissey said the fire attracted his attention and he went to investigate it. He saw it was dangerous and went for assistance.

Accused told him he had no permit because he understood he was out of bounds and did not require one.

Ranger Ruben Cornwell said that when he went to the fire with a gang of men it was rapidly extending about 30 chains from the edge of the plantation. Before it was beaten out two and a half hours later the fire was within 10 feet of the trees.

Will Smash a FLU Attack in One Night

THERE is no quicker or more effective way to smash a Cold or 'Flu attack than the 'ASPRO' method, but take enough tablets to do the job. You can't expect one tablet to do the work of three. Follow the directions. Take three 'ASPRO' tablets immediately the first sign of a Cold appears, and two tablets every three hours afterwards, until symptoms disappear; a hot stimulating drink to be taken with the last dose before going to bed Some people prefer lemon for the hot drink, some prefer whisky, others mix the two. It is advisable when taking 'ASPRO' for Influenza and Colds to keep the body warmly clad in order to prevent chill. These instructions have been scientifically fomulated as a result of careful research.

Prepare the gargle by crushing and dissolving 3 'ASPRO' tablets in half a glass of water. Stir well before using. Repeat the gargle every two or three hours as required, but make it fresh each time. Do not let the mixture stand overnight.

FRESH TRIUMPH FOR GREAT ACTOR

"Life Of Emile Zola" Is Unsurpassed

Paul Muni, whose most recent film, "The Story of Louis Pasteur," won for him the coveted gold statuette of the Motion Picture academy as the best actor of 1936, Theatre, Hast-Academy as the Best Theatre, Hast-screens at the Regent Theatre, Hast-sings, to-day, in another epic story — "The Life of Emile Zola."

Directed by the same genius who guided the making of "Pasteur," the celebrated William Dieterle, the Zola celebrated William Dieterle, the Zola movie is declared to excel even the movie is declared to excell even the movie is declared to excell even the

of Zola as a novelist carries him along to wealth and fame, and goes thoroughly into his magnificent crusade on behalf of Captain Dreyfus, the army officer who was falsely actual of colling with a sixty of the army of the army of the sixty of cused of selling military secrets, and, was unjustly convicted and sent to Devil's Island.

Zola's most sensational work was Zola's most sensational work was "I Accuse," in which he viciously attacked everyone who had any part in the condemnation and imprisonment of Dreyfus. He had become ment of Dreyfus. He had become convinced of the officer's innocence, and with characteristic vigour attacked the powerful military hierarchy with all the strength at his command. "I Accuse" was deliberately written to provoke a libel suit.

Muni, of course, plays Zola. Another splendid actor, Joseph Schildkraut, portrags, the unfortunate other spiendid actor, Joseph Schild-kraut, portrays the unfortunate Dreyfus. The rest of the cast is practically all-star. Gale Sonder-gaard, who had such a sensational success in "Anthony Adverse," is Madame Dreyfus; Gloria Holden is Madame Zola and Frip O'Prion Madame Zola, and Erin O'Brien-Moore is "Nana," the girl of the streets about whom Zola wrote his

"The Life of Emile Zola" is an Academy Award winner, having been chosen as the best of the "Ten Best" pictures for the year.

DRAMATIC STORY OF THE UNDERWORLD

Famous Actor's Splendid Characterisation

Edward G. Robinson brings all of nis consummate artistry to the role of Joe Krozac, gangster, killer and extortionist of "The Last Gangster," which will screen to-day at the Cosy Theatre, Hastings, and the result is a portrayal which for sheer power and dramatic effectiveness has not been equalled even by the actor's own "Little Caesar" of some years back.

"The Last Gangster" we have the picture of a domineering, ruth-less, underworld czar—a man who has outsmarted rival crooks and go away with it, a man who has laugh ed at judges and got away with it, a man who recognises no power greater than his own. When his doom finally falls and he is ultimately sent to serve ten years in rison for income tax evasion, he ike a child in an unknown world. It is this man whom Robinson brings to life with that unerring in stinct for making a human being out of a screen shadow which has labelled him one of the screen's greatest character stars.

The story is given even greater emotional impact in its narrative of the wife and child who have been left behind when Joe Krozac is sent to prison.

ADVENTURE IN OLD CHINA

Gary Cooper As "Marco Polo"

The screen, which lately has focussed a majority of its bigger productions on biographical subjects has seen many remarkable portraits of characters taken from the past. Few of these historic personalities, however, enjoyed a life more significant and romantic than the Marco Polo so few people seem to know, whom Samuel Goldwyn has chosen as the hero of "The Adventures of Marco Polo," his rollicking adventurous romance in which Gary Cooper stars at the State Theatre, Hastings, to-day.

Marco Polo's journey to the Thir-

Marco Polo's journey to the Thirteenth Century court of the great Kublai Khan in Kambalu, Peiping, had as its object the extension of private commerce and the development of new trade opportunities for the Polo brothers, Nicolo and Maffeo, Marco's father and uncle, who were important merchants in the city of Venice. Thus, as the world's first travelling salesman, Marco set out for distant Cathay—a three years' journal through a three years' journey through deserts and mountains, beset every mile or so by brigands and perils unknown to Western civilisation. Marco was then 21, a young gamecock, skilled in the use of arms, an excellent horseman and athlete, fearless and presevering in the use fearless and persevering in the pur suit of trouble, trade and amours. The young Polo served Kublai Khan for 17 continuous years, years of tremendous danger amongst bar-baric descendants of Ghengis Khan the greatest and most ferocious of all conquerors. He finally left as the Khan's ambassador, charged with delivering the Circassian Tartar Princess, Kogatin, over in marriage to Argon, the elderly Sha of Persia and Eastern India. Anxious to set things aright, Stu concocts a ruse which ends the banker's courtship as well as keeping Marvin away from the bank and the daughter. But the ruse backfires, and Jane, Stu and Marvin are forced to enter "Blue Skies" in a race to save Una's farm.

GAY CONTINENTAL COMEDY

Gary Cooper-Claudette Colbert Co-Star

Claudette Colbert and Gary Cooper form a brilliant new comedy team in "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," the picture of life among Europe's smart set, which will screen to-day at the Plaza Theatre, Napier.

The story, adapted from the amous play of Alfred Savior, tells about a much-married American multi-millionaire who is subdued and put into a strait-jacket by his eighth wife, whom he marries for a new thrill. Miss Colbert is the same flip, ingenious girl who made screen history in last year's "I Met Him in Paris." Cooper, as the philandering American, plays opposite her in a part which fits him

After becoming the bride of the much-married financier, Miss Colbert, a penniless French aristocrat tarts out on a campaign to bring him to his knees and humble his pride for the first time. A score of Europe's gay spots, including the Riviera, the Tyrol, Venice, Vienna and Paris, form the battleground, while the bride's weapons are coolness, indifference and stubbornness.

There is here a lightness of touch nd spontaniety of humour which puts the picture out in front of other screen comedies of the season. Ernst Lubitsch, master of this light touch in screen comedy, directed "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," while the supporting cast includes David Niven, Edward Everett Horton and Elizabeth Patterson.

EXCELLENT MODERN COMEDY

Errol Flynn Appears In New Role

Errol Flynn, that handsome young Irish actor who leaped to fame overnight in "Captain Blood" a aame overnight in "Captain Blood" a couple of years ago and then carried on with "The Charge of the Light Brigade," "Green Light" and "The Prince and the Pauper," comes to the Gaiety Theatre, Napier, with a grand matinee to-day, in a modern comedy-drama called "The Perfect Specimen." ect Specimen.' The story deals with an eccentric old lady possessed of many millions who has an ambition to see her grandson raised as an altogether per-tect young man, and who for that reason supplies him with an abundance of tutors but keeps him confined to the limits of the family' vast estate.

A young village girl—Joan Blon-dell—manages to break into the virtual prison and meet the young man. She succeeds in getting him outside of his bounds, and he begins to understand and love the world

That gives you a general idea of the possibilities of the story. It was written by Samuel Hopkins Adams, who authored "It Happened One

This is Errol Flynn's first essay at out-and-out comedy, and he is said to be excellent, while the production itself is hailed as the greatest comedy in years.

"The Perfect Specimen" comes from a story by Samuel Hopkins Adams, and was directed by Michael Curtiz, who steered Flynn through the making of "Captain Blood." "HOPALONG CASSIDY" RIDES AGAIN

Thrilling Story Of The Far West

The programme which continues a three day season at the May-fair Theatre, Napier, to-day, with two sessions daily, comprises two big features and episode ten of the exciting jungle adventure serial, "Tim Tyler's Luck." The first big picture is Clarence E. Mulford's latest Hopalong Cassidy story, "Partners of the Plains," starring William Royd as "Hopalong Cassidy" and Boyd, as "Hopalong Cassidy" and Russel Hayden as "Lucky." Blazing action packs this outdoor western with Hopalong again filling the role of a hard-riding, straight shooting son of the saddle. In "Partners of the Plains," Cassidy meets romance unexpectedly. To win her, "Hoppy' has to fight a vicious criminal band a raging forset fire and a ruthless flood. "Partners of the Plains" is fast action from start to finish. The second feature is Lew Ayres, Louise Campbell, Roscoe Karns, Porter Hall Elizabeth Patterson and Virginia Weidler in "Scandal Street." It is the daring drama of a lone girl fighting against the vicious gossip of intolerant busybodies. Louise Campbell is librarian in a small town and unknowingly gives the local inhabitants a chance to link her name with that of a married man. The tongues wag vigorously and a climax is reached when the man is murdered by his partner and a thousand bits of circumstantial in the recent days of his sit-down courtship is "Blue Skies."

Stu promises to sell the horse and Jane and Marvin vow never to return to the track. But Stu's courtship strikes a new snag in an unexpected rival, Andrew Tombes, the local banker. Furthermore, Marvin gets a part-time job in Tombes's bank and develops a great interest in his daughter.

with the aid of a small child clears up the mystery and leaves the gos sip mongers stranded on the peak of their own malicious gossip. "Scandal Street" has comedy cleverly running through the gripping drama. Also on the programme is the latest Paramount overseas newsreel.

GAMES AND DANCING

Coming-of-Age Of Miss E. Jones

Mr and Mrs L. P. Jones were the ost and hostess at a delightful party held in St. Luke's Hall, Napier, recently, to celebrate the coming-of-age of their daughter, Emily. The hall was artistically decorated with palms and coloured streamers, the work of Mr and Mrs L. Payne and Mrs Hunter.

Dancing, games and competitions were thoroughly enjoyed by all and after an excellent supper had been enjoyed the usual toasts were honoured. Mr L. P. Jones presented his daughter with a gold key which was later autographed by the guests.

Miss D. Bradley entertained with two elocutionary items which were well applauded. Mr L. Payne efficiently carried out the duties of M.C. Mr Stevenson played for the

Many Debutantes At The Napier Golf Ball

SEASON'S BEST BALL EVEN MORE SUCCESSFUL THAN EVER BEFORE

The ten debutantes who chose to "come out" at the Napier Golf Club annual ball last evening, could not possibly have picked a more delightful occasion on which to do so. The jolliest and most friendly atmosphere prevailed, the decorations were unusually attractive, the music was the best possible, and last, but by no means least, the supper was especially tempting. This ball has the reputation of being one of the season's best and, if possible, it was this year even more successful than ever before.

The debutantes present were:

The ball was held in the Foresters' Hall, Napier, where a most marvel-bous decorative scheme had been The debutantes present well. planned by Mrs F. N. Harvey, who was assisted in its execution by many helpers. Orange and yellow were the colours which predominated in the scheme, and large paper poppies in these shades, centred with black, were intermingled with the bamboo foliage which filled the tall jardiniers placed at intervals round the walls. On each of these was a large letter which when combined spelled the word "Waiohiki." Hanging on the walls in between the flavors were large hand reinted.

The supper room looked really lovely, the tables being decorated with large crystal bowls of orange and yellow Iceland poppies, yellow jonquils, fine fronds of fern, and delicate maidenhair fern, these having hear averaged most artistically ing been arranged most artistically by Mrs Harold Douglas. Petalled lampshades matched the floral de-corations and streamers formed the background at the far end of the hall. A particularly delicious supper supervised by Mrs J. L. When you polish furniture do it this way. Take a basin of warm water, add a tablespoonful of white vinegar. With a clean sponge, rub over the furniture with this quickly. Dry with a soft duster. Polish with furniture cream. The wood will have a clear shine with very little rubbing and does not finger mark. ubbing and does not finger mark,

The following recipe makes an economical and wonderful labour-saving polisher for linoleum and fursaving polisher for linoleum and furniture. The liquid need only be applied with a soft cloth and allowed to dry. No rubbing is required to bring up the shine. By applying and allowing to dry on an almost magical polish is produced and lasts for at least two or three weeks. Take 4 oz orange shellac, 2 oz powdered resin, and methylated spirits to make one quart bottle. This is inexpensive and will last about six months.

Rakaihikuroa said that he would go back to Rangitoto and there he would wait for a message. He would never be blown away by the winds. There are great lessons to be learned from these few sayings of old. Let us bring into line the fol-lowing beautiful pakeha sentiments. It does not matter how long the truth is buried-it must come to light again some day.

Lessons for All Who Wish to Know Something of a Beautiful Tongue

Lesson XVIII

The Adjective

Position.—The adjective in Maori always stands after the word it

Example.—

Te hoiho tere—the fast horse. Te whare nui—the big house. Nga wahine atahua—the beautiful When two adjectives qualify the same noun, the noun is repeated with each adjective. Example:-

John's big, new house. Te whare nui, te whare hou The old high walls of the Pa.

Nga maioro (walls) tawhito nga maioro teitei o te pa.

> Plurals Certain adjectives in Maori have

> > Examples:-

Nul—big forms its plural.

Nunul—that is to say the first syllable nu is doubled in the plural. Another example is roa—plural

He whare nui tenei. This is a big house.
He whare nunui enei (plural).
These are big houses.
He rakau (tree) roa tera.

That over there is a tan the He rakau roroa era.

Those over there are tall trees.
Note.—Certain adjectives again undergo a change in meaning when one of the syllables is doubled the second syllable if the adjective is di-syllabic, that is if it has two syllables.

Example:—

Wara wera—some
Wara wera—some

WAIROA. No further storm damage was done in the Wairoa district on Welnesday night though the southerly wind reached gale proportions at

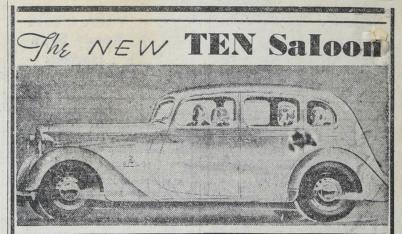

The weather broke on Thursday morning and the Wairoa river, which had been running bank to bank, began to go down. The Tiniroto and Lake Roads are still blocked by slips but the county engineer (Mr R. W. Hawthorne) states that they will be clear in a few days. The Gisborne road via Morere is still open, though only to experienced drivers.

Work is proceeding on the Turi-roa cutting with the clearance of two minor slips, which necessitate all traffic to deviate at the Awamate turn-off on the Napier-Wairoa road and to use the railway bridge to enter Wairoa. "I am hopeful that it may be possible to sail on the first Saturday in August, but that is the earliest date than can be named," said Captain K. V. Karlsson, master of the Finnish barque Penang, which was damaged in a recent gale. The work of repair-ing the two masts of the vessel is Na te aroha ra ka ngoto mai kei progressing steadily at Dunedin.

WELCOMED BY THE MAYOR OF NAPIER.—The touring party of Southland farmers were welcomed to Napier yesterday by the Mayor (Mr T. W. Hercock), who is seen here addressing the visitors.

ON THE FRONTIERS OF HERETAUNGA.—A splendid study of the rugged country to the west of Hawke's Bay province. The peak in the background is well known to trampers by its old survey number "66." The cross marks the approximate spot of a tragic 'plane crash some years ago, in which a Hawke's Bay avia tor, Mr Hamish Armstrong, was killed.

THE SPLENDOUR OF MAORI ART.—Nowhere else in the world could such a building as this be erected to-day. Takitimu (the Sir James Carroll Memorial House at Waihirere, Wairoa) embodies all the colour and exotic beauty of Maori art and craftsmanship. It is both a tribute to the memory of a great man and a lasting example of the genius of a great race.

SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1938.

THE JAPANESE AND NEW ZEALAND

The suggestion of the Bishop of Waikato (the Rt. Rev. C. A. Cherrington) that New Zealand should be thrown open for settlement by five million Japanese was sufficiently startling to jolt some rather mixed comment from men of affairs and ordinary citizens alike.

The first reaction was shocked amazement. That such an impious suggestion should come from a high Church dignitary was counted as little short of blasphemy-Japanese in New Zealand! Monstrous!

Leaving aside facetious comment, the Bishop's viewpoint might truly represent the ideals of a Christian gentleman, believing in the great brotherhood of man, and seeking for a means to end what is, and what will continue to be, one of the most pressing questions of modern times—maldistribution of the world's population.

From such an ingenuous attitude, might it not be feasible to solve the problem, in part at least, by a generous gesture to humanity? Where, in Christian charity, is the insuperable obstacle to the settling of our open spaces by the industrious Japanese? "The matter must be considered from the Christian point of view," said the Bishop, "or else one's Christian beliefs mean nothing."

Could not the Japanese live side by side with those now settled in New Zealand, working and striving to make a greater nation in the South Pacific? Would this not be a practical application of the Divine conception of Christian principles?

This is the view of the idealist, the dreamer of gossamer dreams of a world not bounded by material things, not shackled by prejudice and racial feeling, nor warped and twisted by the whims of human frailty. The world, unacquainted with the philosophic conception of the ideal, should not scoff, but should pause to consider its own imperfections which make the ideal impossible.

Bishop Cherrington can be defended as an idealist. But even he destroys the illusion when he descends from the spiritual conception to the material.

"Why not, as a fresh and bloodless means of defence," he said, "having in view such a possible and powerful enemy as Japan, offer them room in a land like this?" Here is incongruity indeed! Is this Christianity or is it cowardice? To make an offer, not as a free and generous gift, but as a sacrifice on the altar of expediency, is the basest form of

The view of the Hon. W. E. Barnard that immigration can be acceptable only if the migrants are assimilable with those already in the country represents the practical and the sound side of the question. The racial characteristics of the Japanese might allow of a friendly tolerance, but certainly never of assimilation. One or the other section would eventually disappear, and contemporary history leaves little doubt as to which that section would be.

The Bishop should be reminded that whatever the method of bringing New Zealand's population to a reasonable level might be, it must work according to human laws and not according to vague idealism. Migrants must be compatible in thought and outlook with the existing inhabitants. They must be able to conform with our laws and our customs. In short, they must be of similar stock and blood to that from which we ourselves came.

This is the problem which the Five Million Club set itself to solve. For this high purpose it deserves the support and commendation of every section of the community, and there is satisfaction in the fact that its work to date reveals that its ideas are both practical and practicable.

It is to be hoped that Bishop Cherrington will study the criticism that his statement has inspired. Leaving aside the malicious and the irate chauvinists, there is a basis of sound argument which shows the impracticability of his suggestion. He might then do more good by turning to other ideas for supporting the population requirements and a population policy for this country.

One may be sympathetic to ideals, tolerant of ingenuousness, and kindly in criticism. Bishop Cherrington is wrong, and no doubt by now he realises his error.

THE DEATH-KNELL OF HUMAN GENIUS?

The "Manchester Guardian" says if Japan's decision to abandon the Games had been made last year, Britain would probably have applied to hold them, but it is now felt that the time is to short to enable the proper organisation to be made. For this reason, Finland would have British support if it proceeds with its application.

The Olympic Committee, however, does not meet until June, 1939, and it is not clear whether the executive is empowered to decide without a full meeting; moreover, Italy may advance a claim presumably with German support.

There is a growing feeling in Britain, America and Scandinavia that the Games have lost their original character and should be abandoned. The "Manchester Guardian" points out that whether Japan's ex-points out that whether Japan's excuses are genuine or not, they have saved her from humiliation. It is almost certain that British, American, French and Scandinavian refusal of an invitation to participate might have killed the whole Olympic system. The crisis in Japan has saved both the Olympics and her own dignity.

It is felt that British and Finnish representation at the Olympics is such as to restore the original sporting character which was lost at Berlin.

Modern Heating Plant To Be Installed

COMPANY'S PROGRESS

An up-to-date heating plant will be installed immediately in the King's Theatre, Gisborne, according to the general circuit manager for Amalgamated Theatres Ltd (Mr J. M. Downie) who was interviewed by the "Daily Mail" at Hastings yesterday.

This new plant will embody many improvements in this class of ap-pliance and will thus further en-hance the popularity of this theatre. Further Plans

Mr Downie said, in keeping with the policy of Mr M. J. Moodabe, governing director of Amalgamated Theatres Ltd, that all the theatres on the company's circuit should be kept up-to-date in every respect, it had been decided to proceed immediately with the re-carpeting of the King's Theatre, Gisborne, and the interior decorations and new seating would be attended to.

would be attended to.

The construction work on the Plaza Theatre, Auckland, State Theatre, Christchurch, and the new King's Theatre, Wellington, was progressing rapidly, said Mr Downie, and these would open to schedule. The newly transformed Tudor Theatre in Wellington was now in the hands of the decorators and would open on July 22.

While in Hastings Mr Downie received advice from Mr Moodabe to the effect that another large city theatre in Christchurch had been taken over by his company.

FOUR POINTS LAID DOWN BY N.Z. FARMERS' UNION

"Will Leave It To The Government"

By Telegraph-Press Association.

WELLINGTON, July 15.

"The compensating price is a principle, not a plan," said the Dominion President of the New Zealand Farmers' Union (Mr W. H. Mulholland) to-day, when shown a report of a recent address to the Nelson branch of the union by Colonel

The report stated that the branch "endorsed the compensated price plan as outlined by Colonel Closey."

Mr Mulholland said he could not find in the report of Colonel Closey's address anything to justify the use of the word "plan" rather than "principle."

The speaker had stated a cause of injury, namely, that the New Zealand farmer was selling his goods overseas at the lowest world price level, but was buying his requirements in New Zealand on a high protected price level.

He had said that the gap must be closed, and with this principle

"Summed up, the union's attitude is as follows," said Mr Mulholland:

(1) "The policy of reducing costs is the soundest way in which the economy of New Zealand can be kept stable and by which the farmer can be enabled to carry on his business properly.

tariffs, reduction of taxation, reduction of wages, and increasing the farmer's reward.

The attitude of the New Zealand Farmers' Union was to leave it to the Government of the day to decide how the gap should be closed.

The general principle was clear and the union contented itself with stating it.

(3) "The compensating price is not to be brought about by a credit issue or by any means which will have the effect of inflating prices.

(4) "The Farmers' Union puts forward no plan by which this end is to be achieved, but leaves that to the Government, subject to the qualifications expressed above," he concluded.

The general principle was clear and the union contented itself with stating it.

A decision to seek authority for a loan of £25,000 was reached by the Central Hawke's Bay Electric Power Board at its monthly meeting, held yesterday. The money, which may be raised at any time within two years, is required for the further extension of power lines to outlying districts.

The secretary-manager (Mr G. E. Fowler) said that a loan of £15,000 had been raised at the beginning of the year, but that all except £3900 of this was booked for various extensions, and it was desired to have authority for the raising of a further sum, although he did not anticipate that this would be necessary in the present financial year.

A rough estimate of the needs for the next few years was given by Mr G. L. Beer, inspector-engineer, as follows: Flemington 15 miles, South Makaretu eight, North Makaretu eight, Wimbledon 25, Patangata and Elsthoroe 25, and other shorter lengths. The estimated cost was Elsthorpe 25, and other shorter lengths. The estimated cost was £500 per mile.

The Hawke's Bay Rugby Union wrote stating that, providing the necessary accommodation could be arranged, the Ross Shield Primary School Tournament would be held at Waipukurau at a convenient date at the end of August. The secretary said that it would be necessary to provide accommodation for about 100 boys for three days.

The following committee was appointed to make arrangements: Messrs C. M. Williamson, C. A. Gallagher, R. S. Ricketts, V. Parsons and W. Phillips.

Junior Match.

The Dannevirke Sub-Union advised that Saturday, July 23, would be a suitable date for the junior representative match. The chairman and secretary were appointed a sub-committee to make the necessary arrangements, and Mr A. Smales was elected team manager.

The Waipukurau Club advised that they would not be able to play at Porangahau on Saturday. It was left to the clubs concerned to arrange a match if possible.

Postponement Asked.

The Old Boys' Club made application for the postponement of their competition games while the representative team is on tour. After a full discussion it was decided to continue the competition as scheduled. The Hawke's Bay Union advised that the Houkamau appeal had been dismissed and directed the Sub-Union to refund the fee of £2 2/- to the Waipukurau Club. The chairman said that in these circumstances they should also refund the £2 2/- to grain the stocks were dropping steadily on the London market, and the Prime Minister and the Prime Minister and the Hon. R. Semple had broadcast a statement which had had the effect of making investors nervous.

In conclusion, Mr Jull said that with the position of drains, capital had left the country in this and in other ways.

Intimation was received from the Valuer-General stating that the board would receive a subsidy on rates for the year 1937-38 before the end of this month.

The case arose from a collision on the Takapau Road, said Constable D. H. Sutton. Defendant's car had b. R. Sutton. Defendant's car had failed to stop, but was later found by Constable W. R. Thomasen outside the hotel at Waipukurau.

The defendant was unsteady on his feet, and when examined by a doctor was certifed as unfit to be in charge of a car.

in charge of a car.

Angus had admitted having two drinks at Palmerston North, and another at Norsewood. He could not account for the damage to the car, and said that he did not rememper anything about an accident.

Mr C. G. Harker said that the defendant was a contractor in a large way, having contracts at Wellarge way, naving contracts at wer-lington, Palmerston North, and Napier. It was necessary that these should be personally supervised, and consequently defendant had been overworking.

On the morning in question he felt jaded and had two drinks before leaving Palmerston North. At Norsewood he met a friend and had another drink.

Realising that he was not in a fit state to continue, the defendant nad stopped at Waipukurau for dinner and to telephone to his family to have the car taken on. Defendant had been driving for many years without being before the court previously, and had an excellent reputation.

"I cannot take a man's reputation into account in a case of this kind," said the Magistrate. "The protection of the public must be the first consideration." The defendant was fined £40 (Court costs 10/- and medical expenses 10/6), and his licence was cancelled for one year.

An unusually small list of cases came before Mr J. Miller, S.M., in the Waipukuralu Magistrate's Court yesterday.

Ronald Crawford, of Marton, pleaded guilty by letter to a charge of taking game on the Waipukurau Lake without being the holder of a licence. He stated that he had taken out a licence at Marton and was not aware that it did not cover the Hawke's Bay district. He had travelled to Waipukurau at night in order to arrive on the opening

HAWKE'S BAY FARMERS'

ASSOCIATION

6 Per Cent. Is Declared DIRECTORS' REPORT TO ANNUAL MEETING

After allowing for rebates to shareholders at the rate of 15 per cent. on various commissions, and 2½ per cent. on goods purchased, as well as making provision for depreciation on buildings and plant, and reserve for income tax, the balance of profit, including £14,324/18/8 brought forward from last year, amounted to £29,824/13/8, stated the directors' report placed before the annual meeting of the Hawke's Bay Farmers' Co-operative Association, Ltd., yesterday.

The chairman of directors (Mr J. W. Harding) presided. The directors recommended that the balance of profit should be allocated to paying a dividend of 6 per cent. on paid-up capital and adding the sum of £7000 to the reserve fund, the balance to be carried forward.

The chairman referred to the serious loss suffered by Hawke's Bay in the death of the Hon. H. A. Russell, M.L.C., and a resolution of sympathy was passed with the members of his family and with the firm of Williams and Kettle, Ltd., of which he was chairman.

In proposing that the annual bal-reached seven years ago when it ance sheet and report should be adopted, the chairman said:

"Having regard to the comparatively poor returns of farmers during the year, due to a lower lambing percentage, the reduced wool clip, and a drop of 37½ per cent. in the average value realised during the past season as compared with the previous year, the results of the association's trading operations must be considered as satisfactory.

"Your directors are particularly on February 3, 1931.

"There are two items in the balance sheet which, when compared with the corresponding items in the previous year, give a fairly good indication of the extent to which farmers' incomes have been adversely affected by the factors already referred to, and by increased operating compared with the previous year

"Your directors are particularly pleased at being in the position to recommend the addition to the reserve fund of a further sum of £7000. With this addition that fund will stand at £75,579 and will then be within £3690 of the point it had ing costs. These are advances, which compared with the previous year have increased by £30,088, and shareholders current account credit balances which have decreased by £36,790. Postponement Of Meeting For A Week

The Dannevirke Hunt has applied to the Hawke's Bay district committee for permission to postpone its scheduled point-to-point meeting at Takapau from July 30 to August 6. This decision has been arrived at in order that a clash with the Manawatu Hunt race meeting at Awa puni will be avoided.

It is understood that the govern ing body will sanction the postpone ment, as there has been very little time for the Manawatu Hunt to organise its meeting, the permit for which was granted only last week.

Bright Prospects For To-day

POWER CHIEF IS FAVOURITE FOR THE CUP

Stage Is Set For A Good Meeting

(By MOTUROA).

The stage is set for the annual race meeting of the Hawke's Bay Hunt Club at Hastings to-day, and there is every indication that the fixture will be one of the most successful ever held by this popular sporting body. Good fields of good horses are engaged and wide interest has been manifested in to-day's races, auguring well for a very large attendance.

A splendid variety of sport is to be presented for the delectation of the racing public-steeplechasing, hurdles racing, an amateur riders' event, and handicap flat races catering for varied tastes. The wonderful acceptances for to-day's programme are testimony to the increased popularity of hunting in the Hawke's Bay district, and, with such keen racing assured, patrons will be attracted from over a wide

Minor placings at both Napier and Hastings will draw attention to the chances of Hastings West here. In addition, she worked well on Thursday morning and appeared to handle the going well. Panerua looks a bit backward, but if Sunny Lass would run up to her second to Mendelssohn she would have a great chance of losing her maiden status.

Arabic, Centerpoise, Shahar, Laughing Song and Hagen all worked well on Thursday morning, but none made a greater impression among the two-year-olds than the Siegfried filly Imogen, who was well tried out by Short Circuit. She looks like an improver who might go on to better things.

Short Circuit ran a good race at Marton, where he made all the running and was just beaten into third place in the last 50 yards. The shorter straight here will be to his advantage. Sardius has not been racing up to his best form recently, but won very decisively here in the autumn.

Red Witch has not quite fulfilled expectations, but ran a good third last month here to Paul Robeson. expectations, but the expectations, but the expectations, but the expectations and his third last Saturday to and his third last Saturday to Bluffer and Sly Fox showed him up the expectations, but the expectations of £135; one limit the expectations, but the expectations of £135; one limit the expectations, of £135; one limit the expectations, so that the expectations of £135; one limit the expectations, and the expectations of £135; one limit the expectations, and the expectations of £135; one limit the expectations, and the expectations of £135; one limit the expectation of £135; one limit the year-old. Proclamation has not done a lot of racing, but he looks particularly well and it is reasonable to expect him to be at his best to-day. Greenore has not been produced since he won at Napier in the autumn but cannot be neglected because he invariably races well fresh. A winning turn for Haile Selassie is overdue, but his inability to begin well always counts against Haile Selassie.

There was a lot of money for Big Dook at Trentham and he looked very well, but his form there was a long way below expectations. Away Although Iddo has shown his best form over hurdles it would be unless to discount his possibilities here for he ran a great race in the Highweight at Trentham, fading into fourth place only in the last half furlong. It was a very solid performance and should gain some support for him here.

Seyfried has run some fair races this winter, but, on the whole, his form has been disappointing. Nevertheless, he cannot be discarded.
