AMBASSADOR INVOLVED IN SMUGGLING PLOT IN U.S.A.?

Alleged Scheme to Ship 'Planes to Loyalist Government is Revealed

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received April 20, 9 p.m.)
LOS ANGELES, April 19.
 An alleged plot to smuggle United States built planes into Spain for the Government, with the assistance of the Spanish Ambassador to Mexico (Serran Cordero), was disclosed in a Federal Grand Jury indictment charging Felix Barker, Mexican citizen, with violation of the Neutrality Act.
 At least four planes were bought in California and flown to Mexico, where they were shipped to Spain from Vera Cruz.
 It was stated that the Ambassador put the storage on one plane in Mexico City.

In order which it traces followed the coasts down to the Atlantic, the British Fleet ship, the Blue Plane, returning from the Atlantic, discovered the Red Fleet ship on the coast of Spain, and destroyed them. 'PLANE MAKES FORCED LANDING IN PADDOCK

One Engine in East Coast Airways Machine Out of Action

"Daily Mail" Special Service.
GIBSONVILLE, April 20.
 Owing to engine trouble, the East Coast Airways plane 'Tul', which left Gisborne at 7.30 a.m., had to make a forced landing at Puthulu, about half an hour later.
 The plane had not long left the ground before the trouble developed in one engine, the machine then being heavily loaded. The pilot, Flying-Officer D. Campbell, decided to return, but the power from one engine was not sufficient to rise again, so he decided to make for country where the fog had cleared. He made a perfect landing in a large paddock on the Gibberside side of the power sub-station at Puthulu, about eight miles from the town.
 The two passengers in the plane were Captain Mrs. F. J. Brown, Miss M. Wilson and Mr. E. E. Peters, were unhurt. They remained until they found the plane landing in the paddock, all being rescued. The plane was towed to the airfield and the engine was repaired. The plane was then flown to Gisborne.

SUMMER SICKNESS IN PROVINCE

Napier Doctors Comment on Minister's Statement

The alleged report by the Health Department to institute effective measures to deal with and investigate the present epidemic of summer sickness, or Sonne's dysentery, in Hawke's Bay, was the subject of further comment by Napier doctors interviewed by the "Daily Mail" last night. Several medical men were approached regarding the statement made by the Minister of Health (Mr. F. Fraser) in Wellington, and published in yesterday's "Daily Mail."

After referring to the Minister's statement that the first advice received by the department was the fact that the epidemic was spreading, the doctors interviewed by the "Daily Mail" stated that the epidemic was spreading from the coast to the interior. They stated that the epidemic was spreading from the coast to the interior. They stated that the epidemic was spreading from the coast to the interior.
