THE WAITANGI BRIDGE WILL BE OPEN SOON

Indications Point to the Second Week in October

Good progress is being made with the work of reconstructing the Waitangi Bridge so it will be open to traffic at the end of the present month or early in October...

There is now under way and the structure has been laid about a foot in the last two days.

The original estimate as to when the bridge would be open will be up at once. When the work is completed it will be estimated that it will be open in the end of September, and it now appears as if it will be ready for use about the second week of October.

A slight increase in value is noted in most sections of the stock value this week. As was predicted last week, vendors of the week's stock advanced in price, but they were on the whole disappointed, buyers not giving the value which was expected. All pens of cattle were of far superior quality to that which was expected. The quality of the week's stock was of a high standard, and the quality of the week's stock was of a high standard, and the quality of the week's stock was of a high standard.

BETTING DEPOTS WILL NOT STIMULATE GAMBLING

No Extra Cost to Public ONLY MEANS OF MAKING THE BOOKMAKER Courtier Back In Work

(By Motocra)

Most people appear to be quite mistaken regarding the "betting offices" that have been advocated in these columns...

Those conditions played right into the hands of the illegal operators and increased his activities to such an extent...

THE SCHEME for introducing "bookies" into the Hawke's Bay area is suggested as follows...

Extra Revenue For The State. The chief aim of the scheme is to provide a source of revenue for the Government...

Arrangements With Government. Arrangements will have to be made with the Government to allow "bookies" to operate...
