FINAL PROPOSALS ARE SUBMITTED BY CZECHS IN SUDETEN DISPUTE

VITAL POINT IS REACHED IN THE EUROPEAN SITUATION PARTIAL AUTONOMY, BUT NO NAZISM

United Press Association-Copyright.
London, September 6.
After overnight negotiations concerning the Czech Government's new proposals, only morning reports from Prague indicate that they are a negatively important step toward appeasement.
It is reliably stated that they grant the Catholic demands almost in their entirety. It is believed that national autonomy will be afforded, with generous freedom of administration, and also the recognition of the Sudeten's legal entity.
However, the proposals retain the last demand for liberty to profess and practice Nazism, which is regarded as incompatible with a democratic central government.

A Cabinet communique describes the offer as "definite," indicating that the Government will stand or fall by the latest proposals. The Government is also reported to be firmly holding on to control of foreign policy.

The easing of the situation at the height of the crisis is believed to be a result of heavy pressure from Britain. Herr Henlein has issued a quiet communique.

All reports go to show that the dispute can be settled only by a comprehensive and rapid resolution of the Central question, it states.

The Prague correspondent of "The Times" registers the impression that this is akin to throwing down the gauntlet.

Reuter's Prague correspondent reports that the points of the Czech proposals are:
(1) Recognition of the territorial autonomy of the Sudeten area.

(2) Recognition of the full political autonomy of the Sudeten area in the Czechoslovak State.

(3) Recognition of the equality of German as an official language in the Sudeten area.

It is being reported that the Sudeten Government will be formed on the basis of the proposals.

The "Daily Mail" has announced that the Government is proceeding with the proposals with a view to a plan of settlement which will be put forward in the next few days.

The proposals will be discussed in the next few days with the British Government and the British Cabinet.
