WILL THE LEAGUE DECIDE: PEACE OR WAR?

ANGLO-FRENCH STAFFS TO MEET: PREPARATION FOR NAVY MOBILISATION

SUDETEN LEADER DECLARES THAT DECISION IS IMMINENT

In view of the political situation, the King is returning from South to-night. Twenty-three Ministers are present at the Cabinet meeting...

It is understood that Mr Neville Chamberlain had a long telephone talk with M. Daladier...

This will coincide, according to the "Daily Mail," with definite steps for the full mobilisation of the British Fleet.

Many Sudeletes have crossed the frontier during the night. A body of 500 rushed past the Customs at Waldorf.

Security police used tear gas to drive out Sudeletes besieging a frontier check house. Indications in Prague are that Herr Henlein will personally direct all future developments.

Mr G. Ward Price, special correspondent for the "Daily Mail" who is in Berlin...

He expressed the opinion that France would soon weary of carrying out a campaign against Germany's new western fortifications.

HENLEIN PARTY MAKES NEW DEMANDS Self-Determination Or Plebiscite

REPORT THAT CZECHS WILL NOT AGREE All Negotiations Broken Off

United Press Association - Copyright. (Received September 15, 1 a.m.)

LONDON, September 14. - The Czech Ministry in London said that Herr Henlein has told Dr. Hodza that he has refused the Sudeten negotiations...

Earlier, the Minister informed Reuters' News Agency that Herr Henlein had notified Dr. Hodza of his intention to publish a manifesto on Wednesday morning...

Mr Ward Price, "Daily Mail" correspondent at Munich, says: "I am told that the Sudeten League's ultimatum represents their own decision. Herr Henlein stresses the fact that the ultimatum is not a demand for a plebiscite..."

It is suggested that the breathing space will be brief, since it is not expected that the Czechs will grant additional concessions, and the Sudeten will not retreat from their position.

The German Press mostly predicts disunity amongst the Sudeten League.

There were no indications of any change in the position of the Sudeten League...
