Mr E. L. Cullen At Hastings

AN OUTLINE OF LABOUR'S POLICY

Criticism Of The Opposition

"That the National Party had committed itself to an definite policy with regard to the Native Affairs of this country was one of the salient features of its attack on the Labour Party's manifesto when Mr Cullen, M.P., addressed a meeting of electors in the Assembly Hall, Hastings, Saturday night.

Mr Cullen's speech contrasted the National Party's and the Labour Party's points of view and justified the latter party's handling of the housing scheme, the unemployment policy, the Discretionary and Reserve Bank Nationalisation Act, railways and public works, and kindred settlement schemes.
