"BRITAIN AND GERMANY WILL NEVER FIGHT AGAIN"

Sensational End To Munich Conference

JOINT STATEMENT MADE BY LEADERS

Anglo-German Friendship

"OUR TWO PEOPLES SHALL NOT GO TO WAR"

New Agreement As A Symbol

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received October 1, 1.30 a.m.)

MUNICH, September 30. Mr. Neville Chamberlain and Herr Hitler have signed the following declaration:

"We, the German Chancellor and the British Prime Minister, on our further meeting at this meeting, agree regarding that the question of Anglo-German relations is of the first importance for our two countries and for Europe, to regard the agreement reached last night and the Anglo-German naval agreement as symbols of our desire that our two peoples should never go to war with each other again.

"We have resolved that the method of consultation shall be the method adopted to deal with any other questions concerning our two countries, and we are determined to continue our efforts to remove possible sources of difference and to secure a lasting peace in Europe."

Before leaving Munich Mr. Chamberlain revealed that demobilization had not been discussed.

AMERICAN OPINION COUNSELS WAITING

War May Be Postponed Instead Of Averted; Next Few Months Should Tell

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received September 30, 9 a.m.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 30. The chief Washington correspondents of the "New York Times" interpret that if Munich should prove the beginning instead of the end of the peace talks in Europe arising from the current application of self-determination, and if war is demonstrated to have been postponed instead of averted, then the judgment of the contemporary world and history will be different.

It is too early to say that peace has been firmly established by the consensus the democratic Powers have made. As many of the military questions still affecting several nations in Europe, the minds and hearts of Hitler and Chamberlain are not yet fixed. It is too early to say that it might be well to wait events for the next few months before the much credit is claimed for these statements which have made contributions to the settlement of the Czech crisis.

PARIS BOURSE REACTION

RECOVERY OF LOST GROUND

BUYING RUSH

Sequel to Conference At Munich

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received September 30, 7 p.m.)

PARIS, Sept. 30. Paris reacted in a striking manner to the Munich conference.

At a single sitting the Bourse advanced almost all the ground lost during the month's crisis, and the buying rush was so great that other 1/4 operations for many securities were fixed only with the greatest difficulty.

THE FOUR-POWER AGREEMENT Full Text of Document Which Will Alter Map of Europe

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received September 30, 8 p.m.)

MUNICH, Sept. 30. Following is the full text of the agreement signed by Mr. Neville Chamberlain, Herr Hitler, Mr. Daladier, and Signor Mussolini—

(1) Great Britain, France, and Italy agree that the evacuation to be completed by October 10, without the destruction of any existing installations, and Czechoslovakia leaves the responsibility of seeing that the evacuation is carried out without damage to the aforesaid installations.

(2) The conditions governing the evacuation will be laid down in detail by an international commission composed of representatives of Germany, the United Kingdom, France, Italy, and Czechoslovakia.

(3) The final determination of frontiers will be decided by the commission, which will be entitled to recommend to Great Britain, Germany, France, and Italy, in certain exceptional cases, minor modifications in the strictly ethnographical determination of the zones transferred without a plebiscite.

(4) The final determination of frontiers will be decided by the commission, which will be entitled to recommend to Great Britain, Germany, France, and Italy, in certain exceptional cases, minor modifications in the strictly ethnographical determination of the zones transferred without a plebiscite.

(5) There is to be a right of transfer into and out of transferred territory exercisable within six months of the date of the agreement. A German-Czech commission shall determine the details of the order, system of facilitating the transfer of populations, and other questions of principle arising out of the transfers.

(6) The Czech Government, within a month of agreement, will release from the military and police forces any Silesians so desiring, and will also release Silesian political prisoners.

In an index to the agreement it is stated that Great Britain and France will not be asked to come to the aid of Czechoslovakia in the event that the latter should be attacked by Germany. The Commission referred to in the agreement is to be composed of representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy, and Germany. The Commission will also be asked to recommend to the Government of the Czech Republic the measures to be taken for the evacuation of the Polish and Hungarian minorities into the zones which will be transferred to Czechoslovakia.

"Almost A Complete Capitulation"

PANIC FEARED DURING CZECH EXODUS

Germans Cross Frontier To-day

OCCUPATION OF BORDER TERRITORY

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received September 30, 11.45 p.m.)

LONDON, Sept. 30. The Munich correspondent of "The Times" says that it is anticipated that the evacuation of the Czech representatives on October 1, following the signing of the agreement, is a narrow strip running the full length of the border-German frontier.

The Munich correspondent of the "Daily Herald" says that, besides the agreement to the Czech representatives, M. Daladier said that the Czech Government simply must accept for the sake of the peace of Europe.

The Munich correspondent of the "News Chronicle" reports that the agreement is regarded as an almost complete capitulation to Herr Hitler.

It is feared that there will be a panic during the exodus of the Czechs from the Silesian frontier.

A message from New York states that Americans welcomed the news of the Munich settlement with a sense of the deepest relief, mingled with the sense that the democracies have made indecent sacrifices, and the end is not yet in sight.

CZECH GOVERNMENT HAS ACCEPTED PLAN

Germans Cheer Mr Chamberlain

MILLIONS OF LONDONERS IN PRAYER

Pilgrimage To Abbey And St Paul's

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received October 1, 3 a.m.)

BERLIN, Sept. 30. It is officially announced that Czechoslovakia has accepted the four-power agreement.

The first meeting of the international commission is expected to be held this afternoon.

A communique states that it will be composed of the Secretary of State, at the German Foreign Office and the Ambassadors of England, France and Italy, and a representative of the Government of the Czech Republic.

Any questions arising from the transfer of territory will be considered within the competence of the Commission.

At Munich cheering crowds today greeted Mr Chamberlain for more than an hour. The Prime Minister finally arrived tonight at 11.45, and withdrew after a few minutes in order to go to bed.

Some cheering, when interviewed, said that the agreement was the beginning of the end of the European war. The Prime Minister is expected to return to the Palace tomorrow morning. It is expected that millions will flock to St. Paul's Cathedral, spending a quarter of an hour in prayer and thanksgiving.
