SUDETEN FREE CORPS CLEAR BARRICADES

Very Lights And Machine Guns FIRST ZONE NOW EVACUATED BY CZECHS

Silent Populace Watches Departure

United Press Association.—Copyright. (Received October 2, 9 p.m.)

LONDON, Oct. 3. Berlin's correspondents at Aach say that the Czech-German frontier evacuation here was completed at 11 a.m. with a load of machine-guns and rifle fire, while Very lights flashed in the background.

The Sudeten Free Corps outfits cleared away their barricades, making orderly retreat.

The Czechs began the evacuation yesterday in front of Sudetenland and also in north-western Bohemia. It is officially announced from Berlin that German troops crossed the frontier between Heilbrunn and Pilsen at 2 a.m.

The Czechs have evacuated Eger. A message from Regensburg says that troops of Germany's new army, wearing brown tunics and helmets and carrying machine-guns, are marching in the streets of the city. The troops are expected to go to the strict orders not to leave Sudetenland.

The evacuation of the Sudeten zone was commenced by General Ritter von Leeb. The Czechs and Germans agreed to a 200-mile-wide zone on the side of a line marking the area occupied by the Czechs from this zone to the westward.

The Czech troops have completely evacuated the first zone. They were watched by a silent population, and immediately the first soldiers had to assume their usual day-to-day lives.

"Great Injustice Against A Nation Which has Served The Cause Of Peace"

United Press Association.—Copyright. (Received October 2, 10 p.m.)

An official broadcast states that the agreement is a great injustice against a nation which has always served the cause of peace, but that a glance has been given to the attitude of the Czechs.

"The leaders at Munich have gone home to be welcomed by the people of their own country, and to the treacherous of Italy."

English Speaking Union

HASTINGS MEETING

A very delightful address was given at the English Speaking Union meeting at Hastings last evening.

Cheers Given For MR CHAMBERLAIN

Mr Chamberlain was warmly cheered as they left London for his country residence in the afternoon.

CZECH PRISONERS NOW IN GERMANY

Another Angle Of Problem

APPEAL SENT TO GREAT BRITAIN

Economic Difficulties Foreseen

United Press Association.—Copyright. (Received October 2, 9 p.m.)

LONDON, Oct. 3. The Czech Government has appealed to the British Government to give its urgent attention to the economic difficulties which now loom so immediately for Czechoslovakia.

The appeal is made in view of the Munich agreement and the release of all Sudeten German political prisoners, but not one of the Sudeten German political prisoners and other civil servants who were kidnapped in Germany, nor requiring reparations to be made for the loss of their property.

The Council of the League of Nations is organizing a Czechoslovakian humanitarian fund to alleviate the economic difficulties of the Sudeten German political prisoners and other civil servants who were kidnapped in Germany, nor requiring reparations to be made for the loss of their property.

The Council points out that the fund affords an opportunity for the Sudeten German political prisoners and other civil servants who were kidnapped in Germany, nor requiring reparations to be made for the loss of their property.

The speaker stated that the successful peace conference had a long and hard history, and that it was a great triumph for the cause of peace, and a great triumph for the cause of justice."

"The Master's Voice" record reproduction was a standard set even in the days before radio. And today, as if clarifying the years of experiment and research, comes this ultra-modern—remitter that reproduces the program music in high quality reproduction—in long range reception—and in ease and economy of operation. The volume load their power to full dynamic stations. A new elliptical speaker provides faithful reproduction and even response all over the musical scale. There were heads cover the world of entertainment, and a large coloured dial makes station finding simple and accurate. The cabinet is made with a gleaming polished finish.

Features upon features make this an one of His Master's Voice triumphs for 1938. You must see, hear and compare these sets before you buy your set... for no other will give you such complete and lasting satisfaction.
