BURDEN OF ARMAMENTS MAY CAUSE MAJOR DISASTER

Warning By U.S. Ambassador SEVERE ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES WOULD RESULT

America Looks Forward To Limitation

United Press Association—Copyright. (Revised October 20, 6 p.m.)

LONDON, Oct. 20. The American Ambassador to London (Sir Joseph P. Kennedy) has issued a speech that the armaments burden was approaching a point at which threatened serious economic disaster would result.

"World leaders face a terrible dilemma," he said. "Failure to lighten the burden by a steady program of disarmament or group of Powers. Further rapid armament would eventually result in severe economic difficulties, anarchy, a world world war."

"No country would be able to stop this vicious circle of misadvised energy, but we must get together if we are going to escape the standard of the armaments race which we are to die when nations realize that they must stop to discontinue."

REWEAVED ANXIETY OVER GERMAN COLONIAL AIMS

Imperial Conference Urged To Consider Question Of Mandates

United Press Association—Copyright. (Revised October 20, 6 p.m.)

The Southern Rhodesian Parliament unanimously passed a resolution urging the British Government to maintain a conference of heads of Governments and colonies to decide on a policy regarding the "continued holding or relinquishment of mandates."

A Paris message says that members of the British Federalist Group passed a resolution demanding the Government to resist the German colonial claims and urged an official memorandum of policy.

Sir James Parry, former High Commissioner for New Zealand in London, who arrived at Sydney from England, said he had no desire that within a few months Herr Hitler would demand New Guinea and the other mandated colonies (says a message from Sydney).

"Herr Hitler is in the mood for war," he declared. "We must fight this attempt to take New Guinea, Samoa, South West Africa, and Tanganyika."

The European trouble is by no means over, Herr Hitler wants the whole Danube Basin; then he will make for the Ukraine." Sir James said that it was no failure of peace, as war between Russia and Germany was inevitable.

How Savages See White Men

ANOTHER VIEWPOINT

Native Consider Them

PRIMITIVE ART

For years white and native have been at odds and making their own laws about how things should be done. But now the natives are beginning to see the white man in a different light. They are beginning to see him as a primitive art. This is shown in a new book by the author, 'The Savage Eye'.

The book is a collection of drawings and paintings by the natives, showing their view of the white man. It is a very interesting and enlightening work.

WOOL OUTLOOK BRIGHTER

OPTIMISM COUPLED WITH CAUTION

INCREASE LIKELY

The wool outlook has brightened and optimism for most countries has been increased. This is due to the fact that the wool market is showing signs of recovery. The price of wool is beginning to rise, and this is a very encouraging sign.

The outlook for the future is bright, but caution is still advised. The wool market is still very volatile, and there are still many uncertainties.

THE ORGANISATION OF GERMANY

A Lesson To Other Nations

We have a lesson to be learnt from the recent history of Germany. The way in which Germany has organized its industry and its economy is a lesson to other nations. It shows that a strong and efficient organization is essential for success.

The German system of organization is based on a strong central authority. This has allowed Germany to achieve a high level of industrial production and economic growth.

Successful People's Day at the Spring Show

Large Crowd Watches Judging Of Horse Events

The Hawke's Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Society's Spring Show, which concluded with People's Day yesterday, was one of the most successful the society has ever held. Although no figures were available yesterday, it is expected that the attendance at the show during its two-day session will very nearly equal those of last year.

This is considered by show officials to be very satisfactory in view of the fact that numerous houses and offices in Napier closed for People's Day as a holiday, as was done in previous years.

The principal attraction yesterday was the parade of prize-winning stock which was held in the show ring. Several hundred spectators and a large number of spectators which filled the grandstand and overflowed from the grandstand surrounding the ring.

All judging was completed yesterday morning, and the few remaining horse events were held in the show ring in the afternoon, so that visitors who were unable to attend yesterday opportunity of seeing some of Hawke's Bay's finest horses and riders in action.

THE PRIZE-WINNERS PARADE IN THE RING

Huge Crowd Sees Hawke's Bay's Finest Animals At Their Best

The highlight of the Hawke's Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Society's 75th annual Spring Show, which concluded on the Terminus grounds yesterday, was the Grand Parade of the finest animals of the district. Nearly 1000 of the best stock of Hawke's Bay stock paraded before the show.

In addition to cattle and horses, all successful competitors in all classes were paraded.

The parades were headed by the Hawke's Bay Highland Pipe Band, which also played to the crowd during the afternoon.

Very extensive ground around the show ring was covered with the best of the grade of dogs. The grandstand which was filled with people and people seen did the most in the show ring.

Every prize-winning dog took part in the parade, and the show was a great success.

The parade passed along the show ring, and the crowd was very large. The show was a great success, and the prize-winners were very well displayed.

FINAL AWARDS MADE IN CLASSES

Parade Of The Prize-Winners ATTENDANCES MAY EQUAL LAST YEAR'S

Yesterday's Winners In Detail

Judges of stock sections expressed themselves as satisfied with the standard of entries in all classes of the Hawke's Bay Spring Show. They declared that the best season. There has never been so particularly fine animals competing in the show.

Those of the produce and horse classes were also well shown up with the quality of the entries. The produce classes were particularly successful.

Entries in most classes were slightly fewer than last year, but this is believed to be largely due to the unfavorable conditions experienced in Hawke's Bay during the last season. The decrease in number is said to be more than offset by an increase in quality.

The judging committees were well up to standard. The produce classes were particularly successful, and the horse classes were also well shown up with the quality of the entries.
