SAFETY ZONE IN FOREIGN AREA OF HANKOW

Chinese Set Fire To Their City

JAPANESE TROOPS ENCOUNTER NO RESISTANCE

Culmination Of Long Campaign

British Official Wireless (Received October 26, 5.5 p.m.)

It is learned in London that the Japanese and Chinese authorities have agreed to the establishment of a safety zone at Hankow, which will cover the area of the French and the former British, Russian and German concessions, and a certain section of the Chinese town.

The arrangements were mostly made by foreign ministers and plenipotentiaries at Hankow, headed by the French minister, Pierre Faugeron.

An earlier United Press Association message says that the retreating Chinese set fire to Hankow, China's Manchurian and Chinese capital of the Chinese Republic since the fall of Shanghai, as Japanese advance guards entered the outer suburbs.

The main body of the Chinese troops had withdrawn when the fall of the city seemed inevitable, and the Japanese encountered no resistance. Hankow has been the objective of the Japanese drive up the Yangtze, but the Chinese records or news-campaign that has cost them hundreds of thousands of casualties.

The policy of "burned areas" is the obvious means of anything that might be of value to the Chinese. It has been a case of the Chinese strategy after the fighting of the Yangtze.

The Japanese believe that the fall of Hankow will mark the final stage of the hostilities.

FASCIST GRAND COUNCIL SENDS SALUTE TO JAPAN

Occasion Of The Victories At Canton And Hankow: Deep Solidarity Felt

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received October 26, 9 p.m.)

ROME, Oct. 26.

After sitting for four hours, the Fascist Grand Council, with Benito Mussolini presiding, passed a communique at 3 a.m. announcing that the council had sent a special salute to Japan on the occasion of her victories at Canton and Hankow.

The Italian people feel themselves bound to Japan by deep ideological, spiritual and political solidarity, which continues to find its greatest expression in the Japanese spirit.

The communique added that the council, after examining the situation in Lianyungang, proclaims that Italy's four provinces should now become part of the great overlying movement, ranking as a colonial possession.

A message defining Italy's new status will be drawn up at the council's next meeting.

REVIVAL OF CLASSIC EVENTS DESIRED

The Time Is Now Opportune

By MOTTO. The Wellington Racing Club staged three classic and w.f.a. races at its spring meeting last weekend and the impressive interest in racing spectators in Wellington was such that these events had the wide measure of drawing...

The Wellesley Stakes was expected to provide a clash between the South Island winners Master Hinder and Winning Hand, and the respective favorites Donald Laine, Appleby, Newsy Greig and Koronara. Even though the North Island metasters all their own way on the day, the race was a good one and the southern sportmen are now looking for a further meeting.

Audiences packed their seats in the bleachers to shake Defaulder to his high position at the Trentham Stakes. Incidentally one of the best betting races of the day, found the favorite out of his perch and the race was a further check on the public's promotion here.

Even though Defaulder overhauled his opponents in the Harcourt Stakes, the race was justified in view of the excellent racing and the fact that the increasing number of horses in competition.

And it is up to the public in the centre to make the first money for them in the position and have the financial strength to repair the last damage. The smaller clubs will be quite busy line to line when the loaves is given.

Another race that provided the most interesting feature of the day was the Wellington Stakes. This is a race which draws a big crowd in the past quarter of a century, and it was well supported on the day.

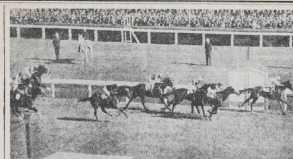

One of the most popular races in the country is the Wellington Stakes. It is a race which draws a big crowd in the past quarter of a century, and it was well supported on the day.

It would be hardly possible to state in the four entries to stage a race on the same day as the Wellington Stakes. It is a race which draws a big crowd in the past quarter of a century, and it was well supported on the day.
