Practically every child has some slight imperfection, when more than others, but which may be readily corrected when dancing lessons are commenced while the child is still young and before his muscles require to be treated and his nature to the affection of congenial and the necessary order kept by his teachers.

At the dance recital on Saturday afternoon which the pupils of the Barrie Studio, Hastings, are conducting under the supervision of Mrs. J. M. Barrie, the following programme was given: "The Waltz," "The Minuet," "The Polka," "The Mazurka," "The Schottische," "The Quadrille," "The Waltz," "The Minuet," "The Polka," "The Mazurka," "The Schottische," "The Quadrille," "The Waltz," "The Minuet," "The Polka," "The Mazurka," "The Schottische," "The Quadrille."
