DEADLOCK ON WHAKAIKI DRAINAGE QUESTION

Maoris Solidly Oppose Scheme

VIOLATION OF TRADITIONAL OPINION

"Wolf That Will Devour The Lamb"

WAIKATO. After a discussion which lasted all day, during which local body members placed before Maori owners their views on the drainage of the Whakaki Swamp area and representatives of the natives voiced their objections, the people of Waikato decided to oppose the proposed scheme...

The drainage took place, and the water level in the swamp had fallen to its lowest point. The Maori owners were present in large numbers and their views were clearly expressed...

It is believed that the Maori owners will continue to oppose the scheme unless the Government is prepared to make concessions. The Maori owners are determined to protect their traditional rights and the integrity of their land.

It is expected that the Government will be forced to reconsider the scheme in the light of the strong opposition from the Maori community. The Government must take into account the wishes of the people who live on the land.

Charge of Intoxication is Dismissed on Medical Evidence

Cocaine-poisoning was the solution offered in the Hastings Magistrate Court yesterday morning, before Mr. J. P. French, in a case in which a driver of a motor car, who was charged with being intoxicated in charge of a motor car, was acquitted on medical evidence...

The defendant's counsel, Mr. J. P. French, submitted that the defendant was not intoxicated at the time of the offence, and that the medical evidence was sufficient to prove that the defendant was not intoxicated at the time of the offence...

The magistrate, Mr. J. P. French, accepted the medical evidence and dismissed the charge of intoxication. The defendant was acquitted of the charge of intoxication in charge of a motor car.

The defendant was found guilty of driving a motor car without a license, and was fined £10. The defendant was also ordered to pay the costs of the prosecution.
