SLIGHT EASING IN TENSION

Franco-Russian Pledge To Czechoslovakia

British Warning

Concentration of Czech Troops on Frontier?

United Press Association—Copyright.
(Received May 23, 9 p.m.)

LONDON, May 22. A slight easing in the tension, a reported warning by Britain that she would support France if the latter should honor her obligations to Czechoslovakia, and further reported promises by France and Russia to Czechoslovakia, were the features of Czech news.

Commitments of Czech troops on the frontier are reported but at the same time promises of outside opinion were to have deterred Germany from hasty action.

It is understood that the Australian Associated Press in London (Dr. Dickinson), while Sir Neville Henderson simultaneously told Herr von Helldorf that if France should honor her obligation to Czechoslovakia, Britain would stand by France. This clearly constitutes a strong warning to Germany, and a significant move at such a vital juncture, especially indicating Britain's readiness to intervene to the rescue of the Czech Government.

The "Daily Telegraph" Berlin correspondent says that the impression from those in close touch with German official quarters is that the unfavorable foreign reaction to the "Nazi" will outweigh against Czechoslovakia has caused the leader to be applied and has also delayed the facing military preparations which, in view of the Czech opposition, would be necessary if Germany were to force up the production by invasion.

Sudeten Germans Complain of An Unfavorable Atmosphere

United Press Association—Copyright.
(Received May 23, 10 p.m.)

PRAGUE, May 23. A new deadlock has arisen after Dr. Hacha's discussions throughout today with the Sudeten Germans, who issued a communique stating that negotiations were useless and the Government created an atmosphere of tension and permanent settlement.

They declared that there was no justification for military measures in the Sudeten areas, and claimed that the Sudeten Germans could not be blamed for the situation, stating that there was not the faintest sign of disturbances in the German districts.

The Czech cabinet was in session all day. The Prime Minister (Dr. Milan Hacha) received members of the Sudeten Party and discussed the Minority Statute.

The Sudeten had a greatly increased pull at Amberg, where the first election result has been announced, increasing their seats in the municipality from 21 to 25.

Planning Meals Ahead

ONCE-WEEKLY METHOD

Reply to Article in Recent Issue

The article in your page recently on "How to Plan Meals Ahead" by Mrs. H. H. Hartman,...

As in later years, when I had the care of three children, the entire care of my home without the help of a maid was a very heavy responsibility...

On my cooking days I prepared the week's meals, and I was very careful not to overcook them, but they were cooked and placed in the refrigerator...

As I was able to see in the morning, I was able to see in the morning, I was able to see in the morning...

At the present time, through I am unable to plan my meals for a week, I still find it helpful to plan my meals for a few days...

What, back again, I've been getting the afternoon! Don't blame that kitchen's trouble on my delicious it!

SLASTING A WHOLE HILLTOP TO DISCLOSE SOME QUARTZ VEINS OF ROCK WITH OUR SHARPS—Approximately 200 pounds of pellets was used yesterday afternoon at Kate's quarry, near Pongakapa, when Mr Harry Anderson, of Napier, the contractor, completed the extremely heavy undertaking. A 7 1/2-horse power motor driven by fuel into the rock and the shavers freed from some distance away. On the left is a picture of the tunnel mouth and the workmen. In the middle is Mr Anderson, who fired the charge. On the right is part of the large after the explosion, showing the shattered rock.

THE FAMILY CONVOYANCE—A photograph of a Maori family in the Districts country taken by the "Daily Mail" cameraman.

AUTUMN LEAVES AND SHADOWS—Follow the leader in a sunny setting at Filmy Gardens, Melbourne. This tribe of happy youngsters from Cambridge River Enderbriar, Collingwood, found ample amusement in an excursion across the leaf-drapen lawn.
