OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE IS ISSUED FOLLOWING ROME CONVERSATIONS

INTERCHANGE OF VIEWS WITH GREAT CORDIALITY

"NO NEW AGREEMENT," SAYS CHAMBERLAIN

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received January 15, 11.30 p.m.)
ROME, Jan. 15.
In the conversations between Mr. Duce and the British Prime Minister, says an official communique issued prior to Mr. Chamberlain's departure, "major questions of British and Italian relations between the two Empires, were examined, and were not distinguished by the two Governments, but they were reaffirmed their intention to strengthen cordially and in the spirit of the Anglo-Italian Agreement. It was also decided to proceed to the exact moment to the conclusion of the special convention treaties. During the conversations, the agreement of the firm Italian and British determination to pursue a policy aiming at the maintenance of a policy towards which the efforts of both Governments have been and will continue to be directed. Mr. Chamberlain stated the following statement. This has been no new agreement, but we have established a better contact and this will be our aim in the future. The Italian Foreign Minister, Count Ciano, said "I am most satisfied." He hinted he might shortly visit London. Signor Mussolini and Count Ciano were declared that Signor Mussolini had favored the Italian initiative with France. Chamberlain said that the British Government would be pleased to see the Italian initiative with France. WEEK-END SPORTS RESULTS

GALE HAD AN EFFECT ON MOST OF MATCHES

Cricket Pitches Appear To Have Been In Batsmen's Favour

The gale which effected the greater part of Hawke's Bay during the weekend affected most play at Napier and Hastings. Some good batting was induced by lighter conditions. Two senior cricket matches were played at Napier and Hastings, the game between Hawke's Bay and Old Boys and Rugby at Hastings proved a particularly interesting one.

Junior cricket commenced on Saturday after the holidays and there were some good games. Players everywhere are showing definite improvement as the season progresses.

By their victory over Teitoku Old Boys secured a 25 for nine wickets. High School took the first innings...

RUFCN. Hawke's Bay v Otago at Hastings. The second innings on Saturday...
