"The One Morning Post"

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 1939. A NEW CRISIS DEVELOPING

Now that Mr Chamberlain's new policy regarding Italy is settling down to the serious business of getting started, Italy is settling down to the serious business of getting started.

England, perhaps more particularly than France, is endeavoring to set up peaceful solutions to problems arising directly from the situation in the Mediterranean. The time is ripe for this.

This article is reprinted in German, which was being done in Berlin at the time. It is interesting to note that Lord Halifax, when reporting on the Rome conversation to the French Foreign Office, stated that the British Government was in complete agreement with the German Government's position.

In a general stocktaking of the position as it is developing, one must clearly remember that Italy has not yet been declared an enemy, and it is not yet clear whether Mr Chamberlain's efforts may be too late to prevent a general European war.

On the other hand, it is not clear that Italy is in a position to make any serious effort to bring about a settlement, but it is clear that the British Government is in a position to make any serious effort to bring about a settlement.

With the fewest few weeks we may expect an introduction of the new policy to be made, and it is clear that the British Government is in a position to make any serious effort to bring about a settlement.

It is not clear that Italy is in a position to make any serious effort to bring about a settlement, but it is clear that the British Government is in a position to make any serious effort to bring about a settlement.

July 12: This morning we ascended to Hill. The town is a large one and not very interesting. It is a good fishing town. The monks in the abbey were very friendly. We returned to Burgess and walked along the cliffs, and then went on to the beach, which is a lovely place.

In the evening we went to the Floral Hall to hear the choir sing in connection with the fact that they were to be engaged in matrimony. The choir was very good and we enjoyed it immensely.

The promenade were very good and we had a very good walk along the sea wall. The weather was very good and we had a very good walk along the sea wall.

July 14: Now we are out of the town and are in a beautiful spot. The weather is very good and we had a very good walk along the sea wall.

Bless me, Uncle! I thought my tablet was white - till I saw your Pearl-tosied hair!

You may be satisfied now - but until you use PERSIL your washing can't be really white

Just compare Persil whiteness with the whiteness you get with the best of ordinary soaps. The result will surprise you. In fact it's only by seeing for yourself that you'll believe so much whiter Persil can make your things. The reason is clear: Persil's special saponified wash removes dirt and stains thoroughly, and gets things absolutely clean, and therefore, perfectly white. That is why the only new standard of whiteness is washing in that which Persil wins!

Use Persil alone for the whole family wash - no other soaps are so strong.

WELLINGTON CUP FIELD ANALYSED

Defaulter's Stiff Task

RENEWED DID BEST AMONG THE THREE-YEAR-OLDS

Wild Chase's Pet Distance

By MONTY-C.

The Wellington Cup is held at Trentham to-morrow, will be the 69th, as it is so long that this is a matter of fact. It is the most important of the racing events in the Dominion.

Naturally, the winners of such an old-established race are household words. Many illustrious names have gone through the years and great gallops at Trentham, Guy Fawkes, Maritana, Natch, Doh's Foot, Taranaki, Nelson, Union, Vengeance, St. Michael, Advance, Gadswain, Nightfall, Ardalis, Kikiu, Nohemara, Red Ribbon, New Zealand, Matha, Rapara, Longfins, Sharkey, Fitzbarron, Rapier, Star Stranger, Concrete, Fitzpatrick, Guy, and Dandah have had their names perpetuated in the records.

But other big weights have been carried successfully in this race, but none so great as that shouldered by Advance in 1903. The "Black Dervish" who was supposed to have won the wild and post race, was put out by a two lengths with 20 lb in the saddle and did not finish. The other winners, Carnegie, Chief, Bushnell, Siego Gap, Canton, Mornay, and Taranaki. Two years ago the winner was that day, Achille scored in the Wellington Stakes by six lengths and Galahad did the same at Trentham in the Nursery Handicap.
