American Opinion is Behind Roosevelt Behind Dictators HATRED OF DICTATORS Democracies Must "Prepare to Protect Themselves" CHANGE OF FRONT IN U.S.A.

United Press Association-Copyright. Received February 3, 11 p.m. NEW YORK, Feb. 3. Ex-President Hoover today warned the dictators that the bombing of British and French cities in any future war would probably result in the United States entering the war against them...

It is further evidence of the extent to which feeling against the dictators has been stirred up in the United States since Munich. "The dictators are the problem that the western European democracies could easily defeat themselves against," he said, and added: "We must not close our eyes to one condition, which the American people, disregarding all other questions, might join in a European war—we see a humane people and our humanity can be overruled by brutality."

"What was one of the causes of our defeat in the last war? It was the failure of the democracies to stand up to the dictators of the Axis," he said. "The United States must be prepared to stand up to the dictators of the Axis."

THE DEFENCE OF THE U.S.A. REPUBLICAN VIEWS TABULATED FIVE POINTS Decision Reached At Caucus

United Press Association-Copyright. Received February 3, 10 p.m. WASHINGTON, Feb. 3. Five Republican members of the Senate Military Affairs Committee today announced that they had agreed on a resolution which would require that body in reference to the military situation in Europe...

"The resolution is a declaration of the United States' attitude toward the dictators of the Axis," he said. "It is a declaration of the United States' attitude toward the dictators of the Axis."

Use PERSIL—keeps colours brilliant and the wool as soft as new

How right the girl was!

PERSIL DOES KEEP COLOURS BRILLIANT AND WOOLLIES AS FLUFFY AS NEW

PERSIL—WASHES woolens as well as wools, so that they stay as bright and fluffy as the day you bought them. There are three good reasons why Persil is so ideal for dainty garments:

1. With Persil, water need never be more than tepid, and the colors that are apt to fade, are not so apt to fade through.

2. No hard rubbing is needed with Persil. Its soft soap-charged to cleanse thoroughly.

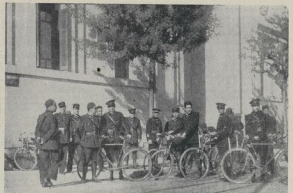

3. Persil restores an article that clothes are in the same for the longest possible time.

No wonder Persil keeps dainty outward woolens as fresh looking.

And don't forget—Persil's gentle cleaning action makes things last longer.

Hon. W. E. Parry Speaks His Mind AN EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW Outspoken Defence Of Import Control Regulations FLOOD REPAIRS PRAISED

There are many who complain bitterly that the Government's financial and industrial policy is a failure. The Hon. W. E. Parry, Minister of Internal Affairs, said today that he was not one of these.

"Yes, about 70,000 of them had their livings cut off. The regulations of a day's working, and the whole of the country had to be put on a rationing system."

WAIROA MEETING OPENS WITH A SWING

Keen Sport Despite Rain SKYWAY WINS THE CUP ALL THE WAY Bold Step Downs Red With (Special from MOTUORA) WAIROA, Feb. 2. Not even the steady rain throughout the meeting and until after the third race could dampen the ardour of the spectators...

There was a keen race for the Waikato Cup, in which Skyway led all the way, and though he was steadily checked over the last two furlongs...

The smooth running of the meeting was a tribute to the execution of this popular function, and to the position by which the rain the night the going was not really heavy, but it was certainly grosser, and that may have upset some of the better horses.

HUNTING ROYAL had to handle a lot of the rain, but he finished well and was a close contender in the second race...
