Sir Andrew Russell Urges Reorganisation

COMPULSORY SYSTEM BEST

The need for more complete measures of defence the New Zealand was stressed by the presence of the National Defence League (Sir Andrew Russell) in an address given yesterday afternoon to the Hastings branch of the New Zealand Farmers' Union.

Producing a sheet of newspaper for Andrew Russell and that he would like to extend to evaluate with some of our country was not prepared, the only item on the page concerning the matter being a short notice of the meeting.

Mr. Russell said that the compulsory system was the best way to deal with the situation.

He said that the Government should be prepared to meet the cost of the compulsory system.

THREE RACE MEETINGS TO-DAY

Lady Furst's Prospects

DUNEDIN CUP GIVEN TO ROYAL CHIEF

Poverty Bay Fixture Commences

By MOTORICA

There will be riding to-day at the Egmont, Dunedin and Poverty Bay meetings, all of which conclude on Saturday when the Huttunga gathering is scheduled to commence.

However, most interest will centre in the Dunedin and Egmont Cups. In the former event Royal Chief will be the favourite, but her main opponent will be the well-known Dunedin horse, Lady Furst.

Her ladyship's interest in the Egmont Cup surrounds that of the Dunedin representative, Lady Furst, who will be having her first start since she won the double at Napier Park in her first season.

The Staged-Vigilance type is still a stiff task today, but her main opponent will not start her unless she considers that she is ready to show her form. Her record form is good and there is little doubt that she will be a popular fancy with backers.

There will be a number of other races at the Dunedin meeting, but backers are chiefly occupied at such meetings for there is not always a good race to be seen.

At length yesterday and today has happened once to change opinions elsewhere. Despite Hawke's Bay's loyal adhesion to Lady Furst, recent visitors to the Dunedin meeting, and Amiga, Devonport, Hastings, Poverty Bay and Tairāhiti, who must all be regarded as strong favourites.

There is also the chance that Nona and Annie B. may improve on their recent efforts.

The Flying Handicap will be a very interesting race, with the Dunedin representative, Lady Furst, who will be having her first start since she won the double at Napier Park in her first season.
