GOOD YARDING OF RAMS AT WAIROA SALE
Prices Show A Sharp Decline
On Those Ruling At Last Year's Fair

A good yarding of stud and flock rams was offered to a representative gathering of buyers at the annual Wairoa ram fair at the North City Saleyards yesterday. The quality of the stock was not so good as last year's, although prices showed a sharp decline, buyers were not so much interested in the generally poor lot of ram. The only clear Romney rams ranged from 4 pounds to 7 1/2 guineas for the best. Stud rams made up 10 guineas.

Also rams showing quality were a representative yarding of 12-year-old rams from the annual Wairoa ram fair at the North City Saleyards yesterday. The quality of the stock was not so good as last year's, although prices showed a sharp decline, buyers were not so much interested in the generally poor lot of ram. The only clear Romney rams ranged from 4 pounds to 7 1/2 guineas for the best. Stud rams made up 10 guineas.
