Recognition Of Franco? CARDINALS MEET AT ROME

DECISION ON FACTS? FUNERAL RITES FOR POPE PIUS XI

"Times" Urges A Realistic View SOLEMN SCENE

COMMONS DEBATE Pontiff Buried in Triple Coffin

London, Feb. 15. - Continuing the Commons debate on the proposed recognition of General Franco, "The Times" in a leader, published today, says the Government's decision will be based on the facts. It adds: "Heretofore should be amended to recognize General Franco as the ruler of Spain. This is not a question of recognition but of recognition of a de facto ruler."

General Franco is Spain for the Spanish people. It is not a question of recognition but of recognition of a de facto ruler. The Government should recognize the fact that Franco is the ruler of Spain.

Stortford Lodge Sale SHORN RAPE LAMBS MAKE TO 17/1 Good Quality Cattle Offered

A yarding of 300 fat wethers and 150 stores was offered to the market on last week's sales with prices to the same extent as a fortnight ago. Quality was well featured but butchers were not bidding to the same extent as they were working and the bidding was limited.

There were more hulkos on offer than has been for some time, the best line coming in from Manago Station. These consisted of shorned Hertsford and were of excellent prime condition. The bulk of line was purchased at 12/0 to 12/6. Most of the fat wethers were well finished and the top grades were 12/10.

The fall sale experiment was held on the 15th. Western wethers from 18/10 to 17/4 for the fat wethers and from 16/0 to 15/0 for the stores. The bulk of the line was purchased at 12/0 to 12/6.

A yarding of approximately 1500 ewes was offered to the market on the 15th. The bulk of the line was purchased at 12/0 to 12/6.

Two and four yearling wethers were offered to the market on the 15th. The bulk of the line was purchased at 12/0 to 12/6.

The heaviest of the lambs offered to the market on the 15th. The bulk of the line was purchased at 12/0 to 12/6.

The Labour Party caucus, so we were informed, recently decided to support the Government. This decision was "freely accepted." The statement does not say whether the Government is to be supported or not. It is a "freely accepted" decision. It is a "freely accepted"
decision. It is a "freely accepted" decision.

Understandably the Government appears to have formed the habit of announcing its many moving policy. It was only after repeated questioning that anything was discovered concerning the matter. It is a "freely accepted" decision. It is a "freely accepted" decision.

It is not unlikely that the Government considers that the present position is a "freely accepted" decision. It is a

DEFENCE INADEQUACY REALISED Hastings Public Meeting NATIONAL LEAGUE BRANCH FORMED

Government Action Urged

A Hastings branch of the New Zealand League was formed at a well attended public meeting in the Assembly Hall last night.

The following resolution was passed— "That having regard to the general state of change and uncertainty in international affairs, this public meeting wishes to express the serious inadequacy of New Zealand's defences and more particularly the land forces.

Mr. C. Smith announced that he had been elected Chairman of the new branch. He said that the branch was formed to represent the views of the people of Hastings on the subject of national defence.

Mr. C. Smith also mentioned that the branch would be holding regular meetings to discuss the state of national defence and to urge the Government to take steps to improve it.
