BRITISH CONCEPTION OF RESPONSIBILITY IN COLONIAL AFFAIRS

BASIS OF SERVICE ONLY GROUND FOR HOLDING TERRITORY

FAMOUS DURHAM REPORT RECALLED

British Official Writes... (Revised February 19, 4:15 p.m.)... In view of the signature of the Durban Report...

Interest attaches to the controversy of the famous Durban Report on Canada—which was the subject of a statement issued on the fact that it marked the birth of a new conception of responsibility in colonial affairs...

The "Times" says that the Durban Report marked the end of the old policy of acquiring colonies simply as a source of profit, and it marks the rejection of the old policy...

The first point is concerned in a leader which "The Times" devotes to the contrary, while the second is brought out in a statement addressed to the Prime Minister (Mr. Neville Chamberlain) by a large number of distinguished dignitaries.

"The Times" says that the Durban Report marked the end of the old policy of acquiring colonies simply as a source of profit, and it marks the rejection of the old policy...

In view of the signature of the Durban Report, together with the signature of the League of Nations, the present elements of an international system for active new colonial territories...

It is pointed out that the Durban Report marked the end of the old policy of acquiring colonies simply as a source of profit, and it marks the rejection of the old policy...

ENTHUSIASM IN HASTINGS.—A section of the large crowd in Devonshire Street on Saturday evening, when "Keep Fit" Week was inaugurated. In this picture members of the Devonshire Choir are the centre of interest.

EFFECTIVE DISPLAY IN KAPLES.—Massed marching by Sugar Hill School girls was a feature of the "Keep Fit" display at McLean Park on Saturday afternoon.

SATURDAY'S POLO AT HASTINGS.—An incident in the game between Boucher's Bay B and Boucher's Bay C.

SMILES OF VICTORY.—G. McConnel (Wanganui) and P. Boshell (Tairāwhiti) who won the 7th cup and the 1st individual cup respectively at the Boucher's Bay C's gathering of "Sharnood" on Saturday.

COUNTRY SPORTS MEETING.—Competitors and their mounts who took part at the annual gathering of the Boucher's Bay C Club at "Sharnood" on Saturday.

MORE OF THIS "KEEP FIT" ENTHUSIASM.—Roller skater on Sapper's Marine Parade.

UP IN THE AIR.—A remarkable "shot" of a spectacular movement provided by three athletes on the Pigeon beach.

POSITION TO MAKE A HORSE LATION.—This horse's peculiar expression seems to indicate that he is mildly annoyed by the way recent which his mistress has played on his head. This photograph was taken at the Boucher's Bay C's gathering on Saturday.
