RUSSIES FEB. 20.

A frank forecast of the approximate programme in which defence expenditure in the coming year would have to start from revenue and not borrow money.

Mr. J. Simon told the House that he was working on the assumption that for the 1939-40 what it was revealed in last week's White Paper would be the total of expenditure on defence, including the defence in the coming financial year, approximately £200,000,000 would be available from revenue.

ANDRESEN'S : GREAT : EXTENSION

We announce with pride that our new extension is now complete, giving better facilities for shopping in all departments. As we have bought extensively for the coming season, stocks in all departments must be cleared. Make this your shopping opportunity of the year.

Our new showrooms are now complete and as our policy demands that all present stocks of Ladies' Wearing Apparel must be cleared, we have values to offer never before heard of in Wairoa's history. We feel sure that in giving the Wairoa ladies this opportunity these values will be realized. — Be early Thursday morning!

PORTING UP THE TRADE UNIONS

Quite a number of prominent people have recently made the surprising discovery that trade and economic difficulties are not the result of a general depression... Both Britain and France appear to be treading towards a new synthetic viewpoint in this connection.

A similar train of thought is expressed by the French newspaper, "Le Temps," which says that because England and France desire peace, they are prepared, while watching their own interests, to facilitate Germany's transition from a system of armaments to one of normal economy.

It is highly probable that as a development of Mr Chamberlain's policy of appeasement, it will be a highly satisfactory result to international friction if by a suitable arrangement of credits and trade agreements, it were possible to remove the economic causes of the present depression.

In other words, it appears that to face their own slim prospects, the British and French Governments are ready, at all times, to give up their own interests, to facilitate Germany's transition from a system of armaments to one of normal economy.

Promise Of A Keen Contest

By MYOTONA

The Wanganui Cup, one of the oldest and most popular cup races in New Zealand will be the main feature on the programme at Wanganui to-morrow. As a son of the distinguished Duke of Devonshire, it was instituted in 1875, and the Wanganui Cup is synonymous with a long period of high-class racing and it is an event to which all the owners and trained horses have a prominent part.

The Wanganui Cup was first run in 1875 and 1876, but there have been many great horses listed among the winners of the Wanganui Cup already decided. Open, who won the second Wanganui Cup, also won the Auckland and Hawke's Bay Cups. Bitterton won the Canterbury Cup and King Quail was also successful in the Auckland and Hawke's Bay Cups.

This remarkable all-rounder Bitterton, who won in 1884, took the Manawatu and Hawke's Cups, as well as two Grand National Hurdles and the Great Northern Double. Lady Zealand went on to win the N.Z. Cup, while Advance won the Wellington Cup and many other big races. Notably, the 1902 winner, scored in the A.R.C. and Paster Handicaps, and the Aveland Cup, while Straps won a N.Z. Cup, a feat also credited to Bitterton.

Chief Stewards will be present in the Turf Club, while Murchell deputised in the Auckland Cup and won two A.R.C. Handicaps. Puffball achieved a unique distinction when she won in 1927, having won the Turf Club and the Wanganui Cup in the two preceding years.

Recent, who ran second in 1929 and won the race two years later, won the Auckland and Wellington Cups, as well as two Turf Club Cups, the New Zealand Cup and the Hawke's Bay and Napier Cups, while other high-class winners of the race include N. Kaitiaki, Duff, who won the race three times, Noddy, Mrs. Quareman, Morriamoa, Bonanza, Duggan, Naps, Innes and Gandy.

LAST YEAR'S winner of the would need only to improve on his performance of 1938 to win the Wanganui Cup. Bitterton's record was broken, while The Flag was better than in 1938, and it is in this class that the most exciting contest can be expected to take place. The weight appears to be about 100 lbs. and the field is expected to be very strong. The race will be run on the 23rd of February, and the winner will receive a purse of £1,000.

last season Gay Boy twice and that was good for the day. Along with he has been mentioned in the A.R.C. and Hawke's Bay last month. Along, who was second in the A.R.C. and Hawke's Bay last month, will also be in the Wanganui Cup and it is expected that he will be a strong contender.

HIDDEN KING has a potential for the Wanganui Cup and will be a strong contender.
