MR. CHAMBERLAIN AT THE SOVIET EMBASSY

Long Talk With Ambassador: Mr. Hudson's Forthcoming European Tour

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received March 3, 1.30 a.m.)

LONDON, March 2. The Prime Minister (Mr. Neville Chamberlain) attended a reception at the Soviet Embassy last night and talked with the Soviet Ambassador (M. Malin) for nearly an hour, it is believed regarding the forthcoming visit to Moscow of the Secretary for Overseas Trade (Mr. S. H. Hudson).

The gathering was one of a number. Above the Russian is a portrait of Stalin, and a banner and stick have been in sight.

Mr. Chamberlain's presence at the party took many guests by surprise. It was the first time Mr. Chamberlain had attended a gathering at the Embassy and the first time a Conservative leader had done so as Prime Minister.

It is officially stated that Mr. Hudson will visit the northern tour shortly. He will be in Berlin on March 17, before he starts on his tour to the Continent.
