DRAMATIC THREAT TO DEMOCRACIES

Truculent Mussolini

SUEZ CANAL IS AMONG ITALY'S OBJECTIVES

Strength Rules Mediterranean

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received March 27, 1.30 a.m.)
ROME, March 26. The upsurge of Signor Mussolini in the forum on the occasion of France's 90th anniversary was greeted with a cheer of "Sheva, No!" from 10,000 boulevardiers.
Signor Mussolini said that although he believed the eternal pact would be a catastrophe for the world, a large peace conference was necessary for the reconstruction of Europe. Italy would not take the initiative to protect peace before her right eyes were acknowledged and satisfied.
"An attempt to break the world would be perilous," cried Herr Hitler. If a democratic coalition could effect the totalitarian world without their defensive tactics and assume the initiative, what has happened in Central Europe was inevitable.

DEEP ALARM AT DEVELOPMENTS

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received March 26, 9 p.m.)
WARSAW, March 26. Poland has deeply alarmed at the European developments, and is devoting her whole attention to measures for her own defence.
"Poland's independence is threatened," said a Polish newspaper. "The only way to save it is to bring the army to 1,500,000 men, which is twice the normal strength, providing a framework for a wartime force of 4,000,000 men."

Beau Vite Badly Beaten MANAWATU SIRE'S PRODUCE STAKES

Entail and Race Call Succeed

(Special from MURKISS) Submission, who was usually enough to make the Wellington meeting through glaucoma, followed up her brilliant win on Friday with another attractive success in the Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes to down the accounting hot favorites Beau Vite and Desirable.

Submission led the field over Beau Vite and Silver-Stock Nones and Beau Vite, who they made the form, but the last-named was in an awkward position to appear to be over-extended.

Submission and Desirable then drew the latter, however, she is thought not to make the distance. However, the filly runs on gamely to secure a narrow victory.

Beau Vite, who finished well when he did get clear, was a length behind Entail, and clear of Silver-Stock, Gay Son, and Fil de Vaule.

Submission had been very solidly and was all the better for his race at Trentham, but Beau Vite was never going right. After a bad check at the three furlongs he became unbalanced, and he did not settle down properly until the last furlong.

The North Island Challenge Stakes winner should not be considered in this race.

SCORING his first win since he took the V.C. Large claim for 1938, Entail finished with a well-timed burst to win the 1939 Entail and Race Call Stakes. Beau Vite and Desirable were running well, but Entail was the one to beat. Beau Vite was not in demand and finished a devoted enemy's score.

Submission was up to mark up the field against the favorite Beau Vite. Beau Vite was running well, but Submission was the one to beat. Beau Vite was not in demand and finished a devoted enemy's score.
