POLISH DEMAND FOR DANZIG PROTECTORATE ENRAGES REICH PRESS

GERMAN DIPLOMATIC METHODS COPIED IN WARSAW

BOMB-THROWING INCIDENT IN DANZIG

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received May 2, 11:30 p.m.) BERLIN, May 2. Reports from Warsaw that Poland has decided to copy German diplomatic methods by demanding a Polish protectorate for Danzig have infuriated the German Press, which declares that "this is grotesque, because Danzig is a German city."

The Warsaw correspondent of the British Press Daily said, "The significance of Poland's stiffened attitude to Germany is the Polish refusal to permit Poland's decision to copy German diplomatic methods on the ground that they are publishing improper articles about Poland."

An Independent Cable message from Warsaw states that it is believed that Poland has decided not only to reject Germany's demands, but also to make counter-propaganda regarding Danzig.

A full meeting of the Lower House has been called for May 5, when the Polish Foreign Minister (Ciechanowski) will make a statement on Poland's attitude towards Danzig.

It is reported from Danzig that bombs were thrown at the Polish consular office buildings in the free city, Little Poland, last date. One bomb which did not explode was of the German military type.

A British Official Wireless news item, which was broadcast on Friday morning, the first of the month, said that the state of the international situation in Danzig has become so serious that the Polish Government has decided to take steps to improve the situation. It is stated that the Polish Government has decided to improve the situation in Danzig by means of a new agreement with Germany.

Further Step Taken Results of Survey Received

Local Authorities

British Official Wireless. (Received May 2, 7:15 p.m.) LONDON, May 2. The Minister has sent to all the local authorities a copy of a report on the results of a survey on evacuation plans in Britain. The report is the result of a survey conducted by the Home Office and the Ministry of Health. The report states that the results of the survey show that the local authorities are not fully prepared to deal with the evacuation of children and the aged.

BEST DEFENCE AGAINST WAR'S DANGERS

Strong Plea For Preparedness In The Dominion

A STIRRING ADDRESS

"The best defence against war is a wise foreign policy and it is better to be strong than to win it."

"The speaker went on to say that the only way to avoid war was by being strong."

"He also spoke of the importance of international law and the League of Nations."

"He concluded his address with a call for more preparedness in the Dominion."

"The speaker was well received and his address was highly appreciated by the audience."

"There were, no, however, a few dissenting voices who felt that more emphasis should be placed on military preparedness."

"The speaker, however, maintained that the best defence was a strong foreign policy and a League of Nations."
