MANAWATU MEETING OPENS TODAY

Promise Of Keen Racing CHARADE SHOULD MAKE A BOLD SHOWING

Arctic King's Chance In Cup (By MOTORUA)

Considerable Hawke's Bay interest is being taken in the Manawatu Racing Club's winter meeting which opens today at Awapuni, and concludes tomorrow. Not only are the principal stakes well represented, but the feature appears likely to provide a really good line on the coming months of Napier, Tapanui and Auckland.

The seasonal fall of Power Chief's experience may shake some of the confidence of his supporters in the Manawatu Steeplechase, but if he was not injured, the entry would not be against him.

Slightly fields are carded for to-day's races and the course promises to be in wonderful order as the result of the light rain early in the week.

Single pool betting will be in operation and the day's racing opens with 2.15.

Table with 2 columns: 1.15-2.15 and 2.15-3.15. Lists race names, distances, and participants.

Glennace led the impression at Colmore that he was a bit ahead and as the race there showed him his deep sleep for this event, it is likely he will not be treated on the stage of weight.
