MILITARY ALLIANCE SIGNED AT BERLIN: DICTATORS UNITED GERMAN AND ITALIAN PLEDGES FOR MUTUAL AID

"REPLY TO DEMOCRATIC WAR INCITERS"

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received May 23, 2.2 a.m.)

BERLIN, May 22.—The Italian Foreign Minister (Count Ciano) and the German Foreign Minister (Herr von Ribbentrop) have signed the Italian-German military pact.

After signing, they made statements over the radio. Herr von Ribbentrop said: "The alliance is a reply to the democratic war inciters who are trying to invent a complicated and ambiguous pact to exclude Germany and Italy."

"In plain language, the two nations stand together, come what may. They are always prepared to hold out a hand to their friends, but they are determined to safeguard and secure the vital rights of 150,000,000 Germans, Italians, and their friends, who form an invincible bloc of inalienable fighting unity under the leadership of Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini.

"The world must acknowledge that no power on earth, no hostile attitude, or no incitement can change this."

Count Ciano spoke on similar lines. He said that Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini had assumed the leadership of Europe to preserve peace and order. The terms of the alliance were unequivocal and did not require comment.

The pact will be ten years, after which it will be renewable. It will become operative when signed. Early peace must be secured. If it is involved in war, whose consultation will be limited to military assistance. They will assist in no way. It is neither a separate peace or humanist alliance, or it is involved. It is a mutual understanding and agreement to work for peace and aerial co-operation.

A line of demarcation runs through the world, which contains some serious articles.

The pact contains no allusions to permanent assistance in all countries. It is a military pact, and its object is to prevent the event of a threat to their countries. It is a military pact, and its object is to prevent the event of a threat to their countries.

It is a more intensive co-operation in military matters and was announced to ensure a rapid cessation of these differences, the cessation of a permanent commitment to implement the pact.

It is the event of a military pact, and its object is to prevent the event of a threat to their countries.

All a recognition of the impact of these differences, the cessation of a permanent commitment to implement the pact.

EARLY ROYAL VISIT TO DOMINION POSSIBLE

Decision Believed To Depend On International Situation AUSTRALIAN INFORMATION

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received May 23, 10 a.m.) MELBOURNE, May 22.

When the international situation is brought to a head, Australia and New Zealand are expected to visit from the King and Queen.

Federal Ministers, in expressing delight at the message handed from Canada that their Majesty hoped soon to visit Australia and New Zealand, said that the international situation here easier, a visit would probably have followed the Canadian tour.

Semi-officially it is believed here that plans are being prepared for a tour of Australia and New Zealand as soon as it is practicable.

The Prime Minister (Dr. H. H. F. G. Menzies) has assured their Majesty of the highest interest in their visit and the great and growing appreciation of the way in which they contribute to the forwardness of the Dominion and the performance of their great duties.

An Duke and Duchess of York, their Majesty officially inaugurated the Federal Parliament at Canberra in 1927.

JEWISH OPPOSITION TO WHITE PAPER SCHEME OUTLINED

Preparations For An Emergency

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received May 23, 11.45 a.m.)

It is understood that Russia is now prepared to negotiate on the basis of the French proposals, the main feature of which is an Anglo-French guarantee against any attack on the Powers guaranteed by Britain and France.

It is believed that the guarantees would not be entirely automatic, but would call for instant consultation between the Powers in case of any emergency.

The French plan is also demanded to provide for their staff to make technical preparations.

ROYAL GUESTS TO VISIT THE WORLD-FAMOUS WHITE HOUSE

Washington: The American City Of No Skyscrapers

When the King and Queen of England go to Washington, the American city with its skyscrapers, they will stay with the King and Mrs Roosevelt at the White House. It is a more like a suburban villa than a palace, this long, low, classically-patterned house, built over 120 years ago by an Irish architect.

There are four floors, and 50 servants are employed to run it. But, although its size is so modest, the building and its surroundings are over 100 acres.

The house was originally built by George Washington in 1792. But it lasted only 22 years, as Mrs Roosevelt has been told. It was destroyed by fire, and the present White House was built on its site in 1800.
