MADRE BY BRITAIN TO JAPAN OVER BLOCKADE

"CONTRARY TO INTERNATIONAL LAW," SAYS GOVERNMENT

STRONG MEASURES ARE THREATENED

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received May 27, 2 a.m.) LONDON, May 26. The British Parliamentary Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs (Mr. R. A. Butler) announced in the House of Commons that a protest in the strongest terms had been sent to Japan against the stopping of the P. and O. liner Ranpara.

"The Government takes the most serious view of the incident," said Mr. Butler.

An earlier report stated that the Japanese Ambassador in Berlin (Admiral Kondo) had notified the Powers by proclamation of the Japanese blockade of Kiating.

The immediate result of all the blockade, which became effective at 5 p.m. yesterday, but a serious food shortage in the International Settlement, as well as from the main-hand has now completely ceased.

A British Official Wireless message says that the British Ambassador in China, Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, has left Hong Kong for Amoy to consult with Vice-Admiral Sir Percy Noble with a view to sending an expeditionary force attached to the Ambassador's staff.

An earlier message said that the Japanese naval expedition at Amoy had established a blockade extending 200 miles from the Chinese coast.

SENSATION DEVELOPING IN A NAPIER TRAIL MYSTERIOUS THIRD PERSON IN RECENT CASE KEAN ARRESTED; ALLEGED CONSPIRACY

A sensational development marked the closing stage of the trial in the Napier court at Napier yesterday, Mr. Nicholas Courlander, clerk, and John Kitching, Matron, however, on charges of breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime, and assault causing actual bodily harm, where one of the leading witnesses, the defence, Geoffrey Spicer Jones, of Wellington, was arrested by the police and taken to the Napier Police Station, where he was charged with breaking and entering by night the house of Kathleen Mary Boston.

During the course of the trial reference had been made by the witness and the jury seemed to a third person connected with the breaking and entering episode. In the early stages of the case on Thursday morning counsel for the accused (Mr. H. R. Bennett) indicated that he proposed to call a witness, whom he could not name, and who, he suggested would be the mysterious third person. The witness arrested him and charged him in connection with the same offence.

The trial of the other two accused concluded yesterday at midday and the jury returned a verdict that both were guilty on the charge of breaking and entering, and not guilty on the charge of assault causing actual bodily harm. Mr. Justice Smith imposed a sentence of three months' hard labour on Courlander and six months' hard labour on Matron.

In receiving a verdict of not guilty on the second count, which laid a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm, on the first count, which charged the accused with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime, the jury returned a verdict of guilty on the second count, which laid a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm, on the first count, which charged the accused with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime.

The second Courlander who was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime, was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime. The jury returned a verdict of guilty on the second count, which laid a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm, on the first count, which charged the accused with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime.

The third person, who was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime, was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime. The jury returned a verdict of guilty on the second count, which laid a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm, on the first count, which charged the accused with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime.

The fourth person, who was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime, was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime. The jury returned a verdict of guilty on the second count, which laid a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm, on the first count, which charged the accused with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime.

The fifth person, who was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime, was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime. The jury returned a verdict of guilty on the second count, which laid a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm, on the first count, which charged the accused with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime.

The sixth person, who was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime, was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime. The jury returned a verdict of guilty on the second count, which laid a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm, on the first count, which charged the accused with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime.

FARMERS TO HOLD MASS MEETING AT HASTINGS Crisis Confronting Woolgrowers Considered To Be A Serious One

Problems which confront farmers are to be discussed at a mass meeting of primary producers to be held at Hastings on June 6. The question of whether a guaranteed price for meat and wool would assist in solving farmers' difficulties is an important point which will be raised.

The Dominion president of the New Zealand Farmers' Union and the Hawke's Bay branch of the New Zealand Farmers' Union and the Hawke's Bay branch of the New Zealand Shepherders' Federation are sponsoring the meeting.

The meeting will be held at Hastings on June 6. The question of whether a guaranteed price for meat and wool would assist in solving farmers' difficulties is an important point which will be raised.

FIVE YEARS' HARD FOR THE ARNOTTS Supreme Court Sentences Are Announced NINE CHARGES DEALT WITH

Sentences of five years' imprisonment with hard labour on each of two charges of unlawful carnal connection were imposed by Mr. Justice Smith on Donald Arnott and Margaret Minnie Ethel Gaskin Arnott in the Supreme Court, Napier, yesterday afternoon. The terms he imposed on the two prisoners were in spite of his Honour at the close of the criminal session yesterday afternoon, Mr. Justice Smith stating in the case of one of them that he had been convicted of a crime.

A sensational development marked the hearing of the last case in which a woman was charged with a crime. The woman was charged with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime. The jury returned a verdict of guilty on the second count, which laid a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm, on the first count, which charged the accused with breaking and entering a house by night with intent to commit a crime.
