AMERICAN NEUTRALITY PROPOSALS

Seven Points Suggested By Mr Cordell Hull

NO LOANS TO BELLIGERENTS

Seven proposals for inclusion in any legislation designed to keep America out of war were urged by the Secretary of State...

Importance attaches to it as it is the first authorized statement of the Administration's policy regarding neutrality.

Mr Hull's proposals are: (1) The abolition of the existing neutrality acts...

(2) A resolution authorizing American credit to be extended to all nations on a parity with belligerents.

(3) Prohibition against loans or credits to belligerents.

(4) A transfer of title to the foreign property of American citizens to the Government.

(5) Prohibition against loans or credits to belligerents.

(6) Extension of the Espionage Act to cover the sale of arms traffic.

(7) Extension of the Espionage Act to cover the sale of arms traffic.

BURGLARS BLOW SAFE IN WAIPUKURAU SHOP
Yates' Stores Enticed: Crime Was Evidently Work Of Experts

Daily Mail Special Service. WAIPUKURAU.
A daring burglary was carried out in Waipukurau late on Saturday evening, when Yates' Cash Store, Bataikaka Street, was entered.

The burglars, who are believed to be experts, entered the store through a hole in the wall, and carried off a large quantity of goods.

The goods which were taken included a large quantity of clothing, and a number of other articles.

The police are at present searching for the burglars, and have issued a warrant for their arrest.

The store was closed for several days, and the goods were being replaced.
