SHOT FIRED AT SHEAVES OF KENT AS DUCHES HER RESIDENCE IN LONDON POLICE GRAPPLE WITH MAN CARRYING SHOTGUN

GUARD PLACED OVER HOUSE

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received June 6, 9:45 a.m.)
LONDON, June 6. A shot was fired at the Duchess of Kent as she was leaving her house to attend the Holywell ceremony. The bullet, says the "Morning Chronicle," whizzed past the duchess's head into the garden.

The police grappled with a man nearby and, after a short struggle, drove him into custody. He will appear in the Westminster Police Court this morning. Until then, the police retained his identification.

Extra police guarded the house all night.

The incident occurred on the Duchess's arrival for the Holywell ceremony at 10.30 p.m. on Monday.

FULL INQUIRY ORDERED INTO TRAGEDY Cause of Submarine Disaster To Be Cleared Up RESCUE EFFORTS DETAINED

United Press Association-Copyright. (Received June 6, 10:30 p.m.)
LONDON, June 6.

Either a Judge or an eminent King's Counsel will preside at the official inquiry into the sinking of the submarine Thetis, which will be held at Liverpool on Thursday.

It will have the powers of a High Court, compelling the attendance of witnesses on oath and enforcing the production of documents.

A naval inquiry would also be held and the report of the evidence would be available at the public inquiry.

The Thetis was on her way to the Mediterranean when she was sunk on June 30 last.

CONTROL REGULATIONS QUESTIONED

An Appeal To The Governor-General

THE OFFICIAL REPLY

By Telegraph—Press Association. AUCKLAND, June 6.

Appealing for suspension of the import control regulations on account of their alleged being a second period which has been presented to His Excellency the Governor-General.

In a reply received by the hon. his Excellency stating that he did not feel justified in suspending the regulations, which the Hon. his Excellency has not yet finally approved. The hon. his Excellency has also informed by his legal advisers that the judgment delivered by Mr Justice Collins in the case of W. A. Dochow and Co. v. The Director of Customs does not affect the regulations. This claim is emphasized in the letter which was signed by Mr W. A. Dochow, president of the Hawke's Bay Chamber of Commerce, Mr F. Johnston, Mr J. T. Johnson, and Mr C. S. Tait, executive members, and R. M. Barakat, secretary.

The petition stated, "As petitioners, it is their duty to appeal against the present regulations which are not only in the public interest but also in the public interest, and as petitioners, it is their duty to appeal against the present regulations which are not only in the public interest but also in the public interest."

The following was the text of the petition: "We, the undersigned, being the members of the Hawke's Bay Chamber of Commerce, do hereby petition your Excellency that you will be pleased to suspend the present regulations which are not only in the public interest but also in the public interest."

The following was the text of the reply: "I have read your petition and I am sorry to hear that you are not satisfied with the present regulations. I am sorry to hear that you are not satisfied with the present regulations. I am sorry to hear that you are not satisfied with the present regulations."
