DEFINITE LOSS TO COUNTRY

CHEESE FACTORIES CLOSING DOWN

A SERIOUS VIEW

Discussion by Dairy Representatives

The number of cheese factories closing down in New Zealand is a matter of serious concern to the country and that the Government has been asked to take steps to prevent a further loss to the industry.

FROM THE "TOTE" PLATFORM—Many calculating eyes scanned the machines at Hastings on Saturday. Here are just a few of the investors engaged in their favourite hobby.

IN THE LANE AT HASTINGS—Jogged on Saturday afternoon. Left to right, Miss C. Goodson, Mrs. B. Goodson, Miss J. Bellard, Mrs. G. B. Angus.

OUTSIDE'S SUCCESS—Wynona (A. Jenkins), the Great Inland runner in the Hawke's Bay Steeplechase, finished just too well in view from the spectators. Although, who loved none on the concluding stages.

FINISH! STILL IN THE LEAD—Over the double the second time round in the Hawke's Bay Steeplechase on Saturday. Although, who loved none on the concluding stages.

STILL KEEPS ON WINNING—The Napier Park double winner Flamingo kept up his fine record by finishing his mile in the Hawke's Bay Steeplechase on Saturday. The rest of the pack was ground.

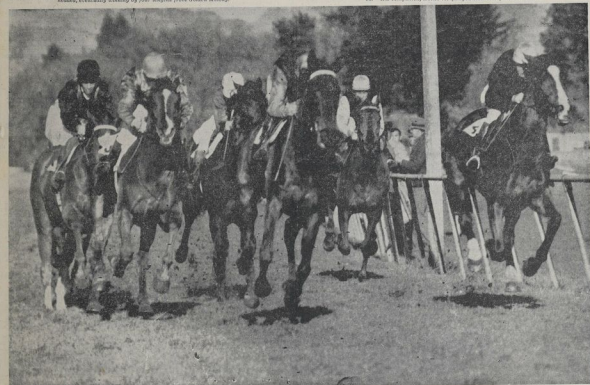

THE END OF GAMBLERS—Jumping the second hurdle in the Whakatu Hurdles at Hastings on Saturday, Gomer (over the hurdle) finished his fine run and badly injured that he had to be dropped. His companion, Bala, finished clear and finished third.

NEVER DECEASED—To one was the first and in the big field for the Maiden Plate and was never beaten, eventually winning by four lengths from Golden Melody.

THE END OF GAMBLERS—Jumping the second hurdle in the Whakatu Hurdles at Hastings on Saturday, Gomer (over the hurdle) finished his fine run and badly injured that he had to be dropped. His companion, Bala, finished clear and finished third.

THEY WERE ALL IN IT—At the distance in the Maiden Plate, showing that you just starting and in a close field. The horses from the race are The First, Tiger, Bala (just behind Bala), King and Bala.

INVEST IN THE FUTURE—Miss Weston (left) and Mrs. Angus (right) have their eyes fixed on the "tote" and race.

MATCHES IN COUNTRY CENTRES

Ruahine Tops The Ladder at Dannevirke

Rugby matches in Hawke's Bay's country centres at the weekend were well up to standard and were very low surprises in the results. The reason is a surprise was the default of the leaders in Ruahine, which was anticipated.

The first defeat of Wair at Dannevirke puts the former team at the top of the ladder. The following are the results: At Wairoa: Otago 13, Waipawa 6. At Waipukurua: Takapua 21, Waipawa 6. At Ararua: Pungahou 36, Waipukurua 17. At Otago: Rangiora 13, Otago 0. At Dannevirke: Ashburton 14, Dannevirke 3. Ruahine 18, Wairoa 8.

Dannevirke

In their first game since the resumption of the season, Dannevirke were again very low surprises in the results. The reason is a surprise was the default of the leaders in Ruahine, which was anticipated.

The first defeat of Wair at Dannevirke puts the former team at the top of the ladder. The following are the results: At Wairoa: Otago 13, Waipawa 6. At Waipukurua: Takapua 21, Waipawa 6.
