WILL NOT TOLERATE DANZIG INTERFERENCE SAYS POLISH LEADER ECONOMIC REPRISALS IF CUSTOMS HOUSES ARE TOUCHED

ANOTHER INCIDENT IS REPORTED United Press Association—Copyright. (Received June 12, 1939 p.m.)

The Polish Government has rejected the Danish Minister's demand for a reduction in the number of Polish Customs posts in the Free City. The Polish Foreign Minister (Czaplewski) declared that Poland would not tolerate the Minister's intervention in Customs matters. If the Polish officials were in any way hampered, he added, he would not only further increase the number but would also order economic reprisals against the Free City.

The Napier-Tapu Road
Sir—Now that the holiday season is closed we may suggest a few roads for the Napier-Tapu Road. It is an excellent road, but it is not a highway. It is a road for the people who live in the area, and it is a road for the people who visit the area. It is a road for the people who live in the area, and it is a road for the people who visit the area.

Home Defence Or Overseas Service?
Sir—As a citizen and a patriot I am rather puzzled to know what "Home Defence Or Overseas Service" means. It is a question of the service of the citizen, and it is a question of the service of the citizen. It is a question of the service of the citizen, and it is a question of the service of the citizen.
