BRISK DEMAND FOR THE BEST CATTLE

Keen Sale For Quality STORE SHEEP MEAT AN IMPROVED MARKET

Stortford Lodge Yesterday

A large entry of fat cattle was partly represented by a dragging sale at Stortford Lodge yesterday. The quality of the best of several quality were offered and for these there was a brisk sale. Good lines of bull calves from the very fair price, but the price was especially low for these. There was a sale, did not sell well.

A larger, better, more cattle than that offered last week appeared for sale and here prices kept up well, the quality being quite good. One or two non-conformable lines of cows and steers at cheap rates, but generally demand was there.

An unusually light offering of store sheep merited the demand in this market. The quality of the yarding was generally poor, and the market rather more brisk for some time.

There appeared to be a seasonal demand yesterday for the best of the yearling stock. The quality was generally good, and though quality was evident in a number of pens, these did not command the attention they would have done a week or two ago.

THE OAMAREE INCIDENT

By an issue of the "Daily Mail" concerning us on the spot of the Hawke Bay "one meeting," the "Oamaree" incident has been a sad and surprising one to all.

TO FIGHT OR NOT?

"I have just read "Oamaree" and I am sure that you will have read it and on it. I was a bit surprised to find that you had not.

THE REVELATION OF OPERA

One of the most practical results of the splendid presentation of "The Revival of Opera" is that the Operatic Society has been the suggestion made to the "Daily Mail" by a number of music-lovers that the corresponding review which was written before the production of the opera should be reconstructed. This is a suggestion that can be backed up by many of the people who have had the actual experience of the company.

THE REVELATION OF OPERA

Many who bring deeply into the subject can see without any difficulty that when musical performances are merely reported by looking to records or reviews on the air, or by any other mechanical means, it is impossible to check the trend of influences that may well against the correct appreciation of the best in music.

THE REVELATION OF OPERA

The Napier society has proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that when enthusiastic amateurs get together, keen on their work and willing to play and sing in accordance with their own spirit, they can produce a good opera. The public will rally to the support of such enterprises.

THE REVELATION OF OPERA

Two things may be said here. It was because of radio programs that the questionnaire was made possible, and it was because the questions were addressed to listeners that such answers had been given. On the other hand, if people had to make their own choice of what they had to judge on the live or instrumental performances of their friends, it is not clear that there is a strong case.

THE REVELATION OF OPERA

It is for these reasons that support should be given to any organization that is engaged in the actual practice of music. When the "Daily Mail" expressed its opinion in relation to the production of the opera, it was in fact making a statement of opinion on the basis of various kinds of entertainment, the figures of voting revealed the fact that the lighter types were in the majority.

JOCKEY OR PRIME MINISTER?

LEADERS' BIG MONEY Not Made A LUCRATIVE PROFESSION

(By MOTUOLA.)

The rankings of successful jockeys the world over dwarf the salaries of Prime Ministers, which goes to show what a top-heavy old globe this is. To compare the salaries of the two classes is absurd, but there you are—money talks.

In recent years Gordon Richards has consistently received in riding fees and other earnings more than Ramsay MacDonald, Stanley Baldwin, and Neville Chamberlain, who have ranked the highest in Britain. In the past decade Jim Munn, Jim Potts, Keith Walters, Ted Harbo, and Maurice McCarten have earned big salaries many times greater than the leading Parliamentarians in the Commonwealth.

Even in New Zealand there are big chaps who receive the salaries of the most important rats. The late Roy Hunt was a wealthy man. J. T. Ellis is another who could buy and sell many leaders of commerce and politics.

For less than eight minutes riding in the Great Northern Strepcher last week, Bert collected a cheque for £100.50, and Andy Jenkins received in riding fees alone £28.75 for his ride during the three days of the Great Northern carnival.

While not denying that all earn their money and that not all a thousand times from the tracks to be a leading politician, the fact remains that jockeys are very well paid, that is, the successful ones.

Particular note should be made of the leading jockey, successful in both riding and politics. This is the case of Charles in Great Britain. He has ridden 120 times in the past 12 months and has collected a total of £1,200. He has also served 12 years in the House of Commons.

At the beginning of the season he had a total of £1,200. He has also served 12 years in the House of Commons.
