UPSET THE FAVORITES—Day Lovers improved considerably on her earlier form on the track to finish the well in the Stables Handicap on Saturday from Brown Lord, Justice Scales, Providence, Robin and Gold Shield.

A SUCCESSFUL DEBUT—Assess made a successful debut in open company when she led from the end of the first furlong to win the First Handicap from Olives and the fast finishing Tom, who is wide out.

WHEN HEADS TURNED FOR HOME—Tideway (in the neck) was on terms with Social Credit and the ultimate winner, Arves. Behind them and from the rails are Sebring, Executive, White Justice, Temperance, and, wide out, Black Stripes.

A MAJESTIC JUMPER—Peter Rockford made all the running and out jumped everything to win the Black's Bay Hurdles. Here he is landing over the third fence from Jills and Small Rip.

A STUDY IN EXPRESSIONS—Mr and Mrs F. Donnelly and Mrs J. S. Loney at the Hunt Club dinner on Friday last.

THE HUNT CLUB DINNER—Mr. S. Dalrymple and Mrs T. Wain swapped at a casual moment.

SEEK OF THE WINNER—In this case the winner may be the "only" Hunt occasion. Here are Mrs F. Davidson and Miss V. Allan at the races in Hastings on Saturday last.

THE START OF THE BISHOP'S HANDICAP—Shilley, who drew No. 11 position at the post in this event, is pictured being dangled across the field at the start to about six furlongs out from the rails. Double bar also crowded across the horses on the course.

FURS AND WARM WINTER WRAPS WERE WORN AT SATURDAYS RACES

Gaily Plumed Hats Provide A Pleasing Show Of Colour

At the second day of the Hawke's Bay Jockey Club winter meeting the rather cool weather necessitated the wearing of furs and warmer wraps. The weather was evidenced at the previous meeting, when bright costumes and trend-pieces predominated.

The change of weather gave opportunity for a change to more conservative and utilitarian styles. The popularity and structure with skins and tailored velvets, in shades of white, cream or ivory, was provided in a variety of hats and plumes.

Among those seen in the jockey boxes were Mrs. G. D. Swanton, wearing a grey, lined, closed coat with a fur collar and a smart black hat with a feather. Mrs. J. C. Leary, wearing a black and white check patterned coat with a dark fur collar and a black hat with a feather. Mrs. M. G. D. Swanton, wearing a grey, lined, closed coat with a fur collar and a smart black hat with a feather. Mrs. J. C. Leary, wearing a black and white check patterned coat with a dark fur collar and a black hat with a feather.
