BRITISH OVERTURES TO JAPAN REJECTED: DERISION BY PRESS RENEWED DEMAND FOR SUPPORT FOR "NEW ORDER"

WARNINGS AND THREATS FROM TOKYO

United Press Association—Copyright.
(Received June 22, 1:40 a.m.)

TOKYO, June 21. — "British Ambassador Boga For Mercury" is a headline under which the Tokyo newspaper, "Yomiuri Shimbun," reports the visit paid yesterday by the British Ambassador (Sir Robert Craigie) to the Japanese Foreign Minister (Mr. Hirota), at which it is understood the Ambassador requested moderation of the drastic sanctions of British subjects at the Japanese harbours in Britain, also relaxation of food restrictions.

According to the newspaper, rejected all Sir Robert Craigie's demands, declaring that the present measures were absolutely necessary, and questioning him that Britain must revise her attitude towards Japan.

The Domei News Agency states that a conference of the highest military and diplomatic officials at Tokio decided to continue the pressure on Britain until she ends her support for Manchukuo. A Foreign Office spokesman denied that British subjects at Tokio were striped and subjected to actual indignities.

Sir Robert Craigie was informed that there was no discrimination against him as nationality and member. The army was only carrying out duties imposed by military necessity and was not even harassing the arrival of food supplies.

A report from Tokio, however, indicates that further efforts were made to cut off the supplies of vegetable tending into the Consulate.

The British Mercantile Consul at Tokio has appealed to all British not consular engaged in public duties to limit the auxiliary emergency cargo, and the authorities are doing their utmost to exclude all the supplies of foodstuffs. The British stopped a single foreign ship entering or leaving Tokio during the day.

The commander of the British garrison of troops at Tokio requested an interview with the Japanese Foreign Minister and was told that it was not as if he merely wanted to discuss the question.

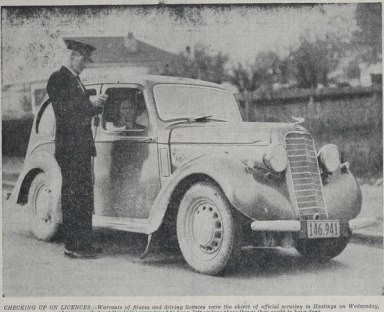

A Paris message reports that France is prepared to follow Britain in any form of protest or ultimatum.

According to earlier messages received from Tokio, the British Consul at Tokio has been ordered to limit the auxiliary emergency cargo, and the authorities are doing their utmost to exclude all the supplies of foodstuffs. The British stopped a single foreign ship entering or leaving Tokio during the day.

The French representative of the "Times" says that despatches to the Japanese Press are "damning" and that the British Consul General has rejected the British Consulate's request for equal treatment for British and other foreign consulates.

The French writer Madame Tardieu writes that the Japanese Government is being "glib" and that the British Consul General has rejected the British Consulate's request for equal treatment for British and other foreign consulates.

SHIPPING WARNED OFF

United Press Association—Copyright.
(Received June 22, 3:45 a.m.)

SHANGHAI, June 21. Japanese army and navy forces landed at the Chinese port of Swatow at dawn, according to a Japanese communication. A Tokyo message says that the Japanese Foreign Office, referring to the Swatow landing, states that the landing of army and navy forces is merely an extension of purely military action, for the purpose of destroying Manchukuo. The Japanese policy of respecting the rights and interests of third powers has remained unchanged.

The British Consul General at Hong Kong reports that the Japanese stopped and turned back three British ships bound for Swatow. The Japanese are forcing a British ship to anchor opposite. Foreign shipping has been warned off by the Japanese army.

It is officially announced from Tokyo that Japanese warships entered Swatow harbor at 8.30 a.m.

A Japanese Imperial Headquarters communique from Tokyo states that crack units of the military and naval forces are due cooperation are awaiting at before them at Swatow. Transporters are now proceeding up the river and advanced forces are landing.

A Japanese Admiralty communique from Tokyo states that naval forces from the South China Fleet (Admiral Koga) command will occupy all the islands dominating Swatow and Hong Kong.

Several firms have started at Swatow, where warships are berthing. Chinese and representatives have gone up the river to prevent the Chinese from reaching the British ships.

Foreigners are believed to be led. The Chinese have suffered severely.

EMOTIONAL CHAOS ON A FARM

"The Shining Hour," With Joan Crawford

"The Shining Hour," starring Joan Crawford, is a picture of emotional chaos on a farm...

The story is an exciting one, full of light and shadow, contrasting with the intensity of the drama...

When he takes her into the old barn, she is surprised to find a man in a suit with her, and she is shocked...

The shock of the incident brings her back to earth, and she is determined to fight for her rights...

The picture is a masterpiece of dramatic technique, and it is a pity that it is not more widely known...

AIR OF GAY FESTIVITY IN A HASTINGS BALLROOM

Many Dancers At The Annual Ball Of Woolworths, Ltd.

Under a canopy of pink, green, lemon, and black streamers a large number of dancers set a very happy scene in the Assembly Hall last night at the annual ball organized by the social committee of the Hastings branch of Woolworths (NZ) Ltd. The dancing was held in the room from the corner of the hall, from which merged my eyes through a doorway into the brightly lit ballroom.

The delectable stage, from which Lew Munn's Orchestra played an excellent program of popular music, was topped with "Woolworths" in silver glitter making an effective background.

The supper was very well catered for, and the dancing continued until midnight, the ladies members of the committee being the main attraction.

Responsible for the evening were Mr. J. G. L. King, secretary, E. Wright, M. Lewis, J. Stewart and J. Stewart, J. Wilson, A. Cameron and J. McKinnon.

REMARKABLE SUCCESS WITH JUMPERS

H. S. Greene's Great Winter MORE IN STORE FOR THE GREENMEADOWS TEAM
Kaiwaka Should Do Well Later

(By MOTUROA).

The success of the Greenmeadows trainer, Henry Greene, with his team of jumpers in the past five weeks has been phenomenal, and it does not look as if his remarkable success of which is yet ended. With John Charles, Lord Howford, and Peter Beckford engaged in jumping races at Trentham next month, and the trio also likely to be entered at the Great National meeting, the team should keep moving fast month, when Peter Beckford made a successful debut as a hunter and Pops Wainoa scored in the steeplechase each day.

Greene's run of luck began with the Poverty Bay Hawk's Bay last month, when Peter Beckford made a successful debut as a hunter and Pops Wainoa scored in the steeplechase each day. (Imp.) 1932
By Phalaris (1) from Finghiera, from Dunstable (3) by Semi-La France (3) by Chancer (1)

GYNERIUM has developed during his first season at the Stud as a good sire of colts and fillies. From all reports he should be a wonderfully high price horse. He has secured a number of horses which have been added to his stable.
