A THREAT TO JAPAN: STERN WARNING FROM BRITAIN

SCHEME OF REPRISALS IS READY IF ATTACKS ALLOWED TO CONTINUE... CROWDS ENRAGED... Cries Of "Lynch Them" As Men Emerge

A THREAT TO TRADE THAT WOULD PARALYSE INDUSTRY

The British Foreign Minister Viscount Halifax... The "Sunday Express" in a leading article... A concentration of the Fleet in the Far East, however, is most likely.

The Japanese industrial field as a whole would be paralysed if Japan were prevented from importing across the seas, which are controlled by the British fleet, raw materials for their plants and factories.

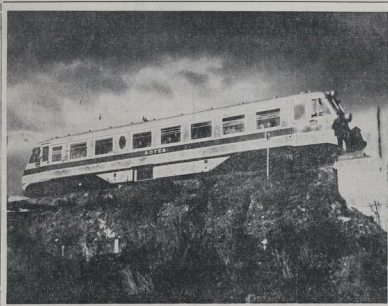

"Though Japan would suspend the payment of loans to Britain, the fact is that £50,000,000 of £75,000,000 has already disappeared, leaving only £25,000,000.

"If this ship" continued Mr. Chamberlain... "The great Dominions are larger united in any way as the British Commonwealth..."

United Press Association—Copyright (Received June 25, 7.45 a.m.)... "When I compare the state of our armed forces and our ability to meet attack today with a year ago, I feel that we can face the future with calm confidence," said the Prime Minister (the Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain) in a speech at Cardiff.

WAIKATO'S INTEREST—Interested operators gather at the railway station at Waikato to welcome the first railcar on the East Coast line. The official opening is to take place at Waikato next Saturday.

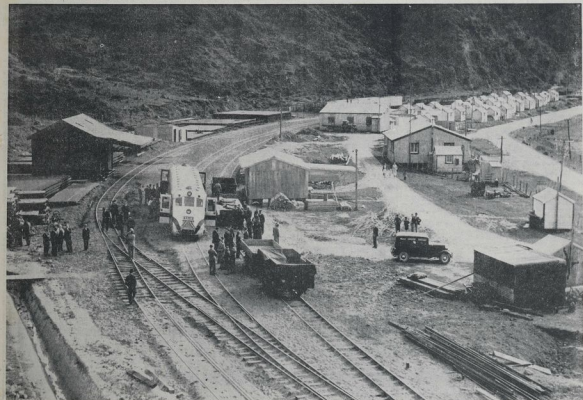

PLANS AND DISCUSSIONS—The general manager of New Zealand railways (Mr G. H. Mackley) discusses details of the East Coast rail service and the official opening on Saturday next. At right is Mr A. Dwyer, Public Works engineer-in-charge, Napier.

THE GENERAL MANAGER TAKES OVER—Mr G. H. Mackley, general manager of the New Zealand railways, closely followed the performance of the railcar during the run from Napier to Waikato yesterday. This photograph was taken in the control room during the survey trip.

THE KEY IS CONTROL—Left, Mr E. Peugh, driver of the railcar from Wellington to Napier yesterday, and right, Mr G. Owen, who will operate the scheduled services between Napier and Waikato.

PRESENT TERMINUS OF THE EAST COAST LINE—The railcar "Araha" at Waikato, which will be the terminus of the Railway Department's section of the East Coast railway. It will be an important centre when the line to Invercargill is completed.
