GERMAN ALLEGATION OF WARLIKE BRITISH POLICY

TACTICS "DESIGNED TO MAKE OUR KNEES KNOCK"

LONDON COMMENT ON POLAND'S POSITION

The British government, "British Tribune" says:—"The British tactics are designed to make our knees knock and to show that the lesson will be learned not only by our people, but also by the European statesmen, either directly, or indirectly."

Press reports from Warsaw state that over 3000 Polish families residing in the frontier districts in East Prussia have been ordered to move inland by July 15.

The withdrawal of German troops from the zone and the fact that Poland is in a state of siege, are the news of the day.

A message from Danzig states that the semi-official newspaper "Kurier Polski" believes it is necessary to refer to the real facts of the situation in Hitler's case, as he may be personally involved.

It is also reported that the German government in Danzig may warn the Senate that the fortification of the city constitutes a violation of the 1918 Convention.

The British Official Wireless newspaper says that the British House of Commons, led by Mr. Chamberlain (Labour), was given the vote on the proposal and it is expected that it will be passed.

GRAVE CONCERN OVER STATE OF EUROPE

Hitler May Use Force If U.S. Arms Embargo Retained

PRESS PRESSURES ROOSEVELT

President Roosevelt is gravely concerned over the possibility of war in Europe, and spent the day at White House studying diplomatic dispatches. He fears that the refusal by the House of Representatives to repeal the arms embargo will encourage Hitler to resort to force in proceeding his demands.

President Roosevelt may make a nation-wide broadcast to gain support for the unmodified House Bill.

The "New York Times" says that because the House is traditionally more responsive to popular will than the Senate, Mr. Roosevelt is concerned lest the dictators receive the impression that the general public here is opposed to his foreign policy.

"The president is convinced that the country is overwhelmingly in favor of the House's policy of restricting arms to Britain and France and that it favors arms and munitions exports to them in the event of unprovoked aggression."

In an editorial issue "It is to be hoped that the Senate, when it considers the originally Bill, will remember the originally Bill, will remember the political fact, not merely the political issue."

A Republican newspaper reports that the House's arms embargo is a serious issue for the Senate. The arms embargo is a serious issue for the Senate. The arms embargo is a serious issue for the Senate.
