Persil
THE AMAZING OXYGEN WASHER

PERSIL'S GENTLE CLEANSING MAKES THINGS LAST LONGER

Gently does it! That's Persil, when there's obstinate dirt and stains to be removed. But Persil's gentleness goes nothing away to its thoroughness. Persil's oxygen-charged suds get out every speck of grime more thoroughly than the best of ordinary soaps can. Things are bound to be possibly do. Things are bound to be whiter after a Persil wash—because they're cleaner.

Use Persil alone for the whole family wash!

HOW THE MAIL ARRIVES IN THE BUDAS—In June and July the Nile River often falls in the pond where river steamers cannot continue operations. Boatmen and porters are used, but even there it is necessary for fishermen to be called in to pull them over the mudbanks. Daily fishermen, specially bred for the purpose, are here seen dragging a large net in the water around in the exceptional presence of the Sun, near Meho El Bey, formerly a flourishing center.

DRAMATIC GOVERNMENT MOVE

NEW INDUSTRIAL BILL PASSED BY HOUSE Measure Designed To Penalise Unruly Unions POWER TO CANCEL AWARD

The House met at 2.30 p.m. when the new Industrial Bill was passed by 107 to 47. The measure was designed to penalise unruly unions and give the Government power to cancel awards.

Several Hold-ups Recently

The Government has not been able to pass the Industrial Bill because of several hold-ups. The measure was passed by the House on July 18, but it was held up in the Senate on July 19.

No Other Union Allowed

The measure provides that no other union is allowed to be formed in an industry where a union already exists.

Final Power With State

The bill gives the State final power over industrial awards. It allows the State to cancel awards if they are found to be unreasonable or if they are not in the public interest.

Penalties Under The Act

The Act imposes penalties on employers and employees who do not comply with its provisions. Penalties include fines and imprisonment.

Compulsory Unionism

The bill introduces compulsory unionism, requiring workers to join a union if they are employed in a certain industry.

GERMAN SUBMARINES TO VISIT ISLAND

It is expected that German submarines will visit the island in the near future. The Government has issued instructions to the local authorities to be prepared for such a visit.

The Speaker, the Hon. W. M. Williams, is seen in the foreground, addressing the House of Representatives.

Cancellation Could Be Obligatory

The bill allows for the cancellation of awards if they are found to be unreasonable. This could be obligatory for employers and employees.

Legislative Council

The bill was passed by the House of Representatives on July 18. It is now being considered by the Legislative Council.

A NEW SPEAKER APPOINTED

BRAVE EFFORT TO SAVE CAPTAIN FROM DROWNING

Engineer's Dive Into Sea At Midnight In Rangitoto Channel

By Telegram-Press Association AUCKLAND, July 18. The dramatic story of the frantic efforts made during three hours by the crew of a fishing vessel to save the life of the captain, who had fallen overboard in Rangitoto Channel at midnight on June 27, was told when the city of Auckland completed the funeral services for the late Captain John Geddis Munn, master of the sloop boat Dorothy M. Munn, which was wrecked on the reef.

Captain Munn was a widower, aged 62. He was married to Mrs. Munn, who died in 1910. He had three children, two sons and one daughter. He was a member of the Auckland Harbour Board and had been in charge of the sloop boat Dorothy M. Munn for many years. He was a very kind and generous man, and was well known to all who knew him. He was a member of the Auckland Harbour Board and had been in charge of the sloop boat Dorothy M. Munn for many years. He was a very kind and generous man, and was well known to all who knew him.

On the night of the tragedy, Captain Munn was on duty on the sloop boat Dorothy M. Munn. He was in the middle of a fishing trip when he fell overboard. The crew of the boat tried to save his life, but they were unable to do so. The sloop boat was wrecked on the reef and the crew was rescued. Captain Munn's body was recovered and buried in Auckland.

The funeral services for Captain Munn were held in Auckland on July 18. The services were attended by a large number of people. The body of Captain Munn was buried in the cemetery. The funeral was a very touching one, and the services were well attended.

LIBERATOR—GREAT ALL-ROUNDER

Cups, Hurdles And Steeples CONSISTENT RECORD OF BETRAYER GELDING

Won National Hurdles Twice (By MOTUOLA)

With the approach of the Grand National, members are revived of great horses that triumphed at Riccarton in August, and one horse stands out as an eminence as one of the best National winners. That was the Betrayer—Dunlop gelding Liberator, who was bred by the late Timothy Day...

It is said of Liberator that he never was a bad race. He was not a horse that was a bad race. He was not a horse that was a bad race.

LIBERATOR was a wonderful kind of consistency, although his outbursts from the day to day give one a hardy estimate. He was not a horse that was a bad race. He was not a horse that was a bad race.
