Japanese Naval Force Assembling

DIRECT THREAT TO RUSSIA
Armed Action Possible Against Confiscations
TENSION EXTREMELY GRAVE

The Japanese Navy Office declares that a section of the fleet is assembling in northern waters as a result of Russian threats to confiscate coal and oil concessions at Sakhalin.

The bulk of the force and its destination are not revealed.

Asked whether Japan is likely to undertake armed action to prevent confiscation, a spokesman said that it was possible, as the situation was extremely grave.

Sensational Feature To Speech

"Country Is In Danger"
MR MENZIES' APPEAL
Quelver Won't Register

Mr Menzies said that the British people were in a state of "bitter hatred" against the Jews in Palestine, and that the British Government was in a "dangerous position" because of its policy in the East.

He said that the British people must help to check this "bitter hatred" if they were to save the British Empire.

Mr Menzies was referring to the "Country Is In Danger" speech which he made at the Quelver Hotel in London on July 21.

He said that the British people were in a "dangerous position" because of their policy in the East, and that they must help to check this "bitter hatred" if they were to save the British Empire.

Children's Night of Annual School Celebrations

The New Zealand Loan and Mercantile store at Port Ahuriri, Napier, was again in fête last evening, when the school children and their friends enjoyed their annual dance. The event is always eagerly anticipated by the children for months, and last evening they had a really splendid time. The committee members had done everything possible to make the event a happy one for the small folk, and were well rewarded for their efforts by the many radiant and happy children present.

The Seasons Of The Year

Playmakers are seasonal-minded of poems. But I fancy a particular season in the year when I can have general representation of the four seasons.

WINTER.

In the swiftness when the shadows I love to sit and watch the trees as they lie away in the misty air. Their long sweet dreams to me. And when the snow adds to the mist I watch the birds fly to their nest.

SPRING.

The little clouds rest of play Across the morning sky Their colorful mother laid them there. Their breath to give. Their toes let down as drops of rain. Their golden buds. Their leaves and their buds. Their long sweet dreams to me.

SUMMER.

With a red and gold and red leaves. Their long sweet dreams to me. Their long sweet dreams to me. Their long sweet dreams to me.

FALL.

With a red and gold and red leaves. Their long sweet dreams to me. Their long sweet dreams to me. Their long sweet dreams to me.

THE ACRES LAY.

PAM'S LETTER

Girls, Boys and Girls,

I'd be just now enjoying preparation with all sorts of indoor games and set windy days—except, of course, when the sun comes out, and then I'm usually completely done for the week for the fun and impetus of wind.

My favourite game is to be done more putting and the boys and adding more stamps, copying up pages here and there, or reading about history. Lots of that you will have to pay more attention to this daily, especially when you realize that through these pages, little things are never so available. In the way, I'm going to like to be in the house, while I'm writing. I'm going to like to be in the house, while I'm writing. I'm going to like to be in the house, while I'm writing.

Love and all good things,
Pam.

The Letterbox

These notes from Waiata have been in a fairly regular way in the letterbox. I'm glad to see you are all well and happy. Please let me know how you are all getting on.

Less Well. Say that the eye has been a little sore lately. I'm glad to hear that you are all well and happy. Please let me know how you are all getting on.

Frank Austin. I'm glad to hear that you are all well and happy. Please let me know how you are all getting on.

My O'Rourke. I'm glad to hear that you are all well and happy. Please let me know how you are all getting on.

Who Wants To Compete?

SENIORS.

Competition 11.—Cut up by the fire, all Seniors and tell me, in as good a composition as possible, why you put it among the things that you would like to see in your favourite country as regards this hobby—and from where do you get the best collection of stamps. Entries to be in this office not later than August 1.

Competition 12.—Shut your eyes, Seniors, and let your imagination wander. Picture yourself on a rainy day creeping up to the attic and sending a thrilling afternoon going through Mahler's old papers here—then write and tell me all about it. Entries close on August 8.

JUNIORS.

Competition 13.—When the stormy blasts blow prisoner in your home, there are lots of games to be played. Competition 13 is to be: 'My favourite indoor game on a rainy day.'

Competition 14.—A poem written by any member of the year.

Juniors.—Entries for Competition 13 must be in by August 1, and for Competition 14, entries must be here by August 8.

Remember these dates, all of you.—PAM.

PLANTING OUT YOUR CHRYSAETHEMUMS

CARNATIONS

Work in Vegetable Section

Commence the propagation of chrysantheums by taking cuttings from the plants in the garden. The best time to take cuttings is in the middle of the summer and planting them out in the garden in the autumn. Carnations should be planted in the autumn and watered regularly. The soil should be rich and well-drained.

£9,000,000 SECURED BY MR NASH

Credits Arranged In Britain

IMPORT RESTRICTIONS HAVE TO BE INVESTIGATED

Safeguarding Spirit Of Ottawa

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received July 21, 11.45 p.m.)
The New Zealand Ministry of Finance today stated that Britain had agreed to the grant of £9,000,000 credit for Government purchases for defence and other purposes, and £1,000,000 to be allotted to private concerns.

The financial conversations, Mr Nash added, were proceeding satisfactorily.
'The Times,' in an editorial, points out that the memorandum concerning the grant takes notice of the cross-currents of Mr Nash with regard to the application of the spending power, amounting to a declaration that British trade in New Zealand will continue to enjoy the advantages of the Ottawa Treaty, which, it is pointed out, is not to be altered.

The assurances are not new, having been given originally by the Rt. Hon. M. J. Donohoe, Minister of Finance. Their incorporation in the final memorandum may be regarded as an attempt to give a finality to the Ottawa Agreement while still protecting against its violation in the future.

A White Paper issued by the British Government in 1937, in which the King's Minister intimated that in the event of a serious emergency, the Government would be prepared to consider the possibility of suspending the application of the Ottawa Treaty in order to enable the Government to take such steps as might be necessary to meet the emergency.

RECRUITING REVEALS LOW STANDARD OF PHYSIQUE

"Daily Mail" Report Quoted In Parliament In Support Of Contention

(From the "Daily Mail," Special Parliamentary Report)
PARLIAMENT, ELDERS, July 21.

An article out of the "Hawke's Bay Daily Mail," the Hon. W. E. Barnard, through Mr. J. McCrea, Minister of Representative to-day, asked a question of the Minister of Health regarding the physique of recruits for the Territorial Force.
The Hon. Minister had noticed the disappointing statement in the "Daily Mail" of July 20th which read as follows:—
'The low physique of recruits for the Territorial Force is shown by the fact that of 350 applicants recently examined for enlistment in the Territorial Force, only 100 were found to be fit for service. The chief causes of the rejections are defective teeth and malnutrition through lack of food. Of the first group recruits examined at Hamilton, 25 per cent. were found to be unfit for service. The second group, which consisted of recruits entering in the Dominion, said Mr. Barnard, and with a view to correcting the defects—afterwards, it is pointed out, to family diet—which affects as large a proportion of our young men.
