BOXING AT HASTINGS.—How Zedris defeated George Allen and retained his light-heavyweight title at Hastings on Wednesday night. The picture shows Allen coming to be struck, but such scenes are, of course, later. Zedris connected with Allen's face with the lightning left with which he punished him throughout the 15 rounds of the contest. The picture was by Chapman Young Joneson.

EXCITING BOXING.—One of the best bouts of the evening at Hastings on Wednesday night was the light-heavy championship final between J. Scotty and G. Zedris, in which the latter won on a knock-out in the second round. Zedris connected with a hard left to the chin, and Scotty was carried to his corner after taking the count. He was subsequently carried from the ring to his dressing-room, 1011 Wellington.

POWERFUL ARMS READY TO SHOOT.—These massive steel structures are the powerful "arms" which we used to discharge the crops of incoming ships. A special "Clips" staff photographer.

IN PERFECT FORMATION.—Sun-flecked clouds make a striking background for the five Anson members of the R.A.F., while interest was for Johnston's biggest air display ever. Freeman.

ANCIENT TREASURES UNearthED.—An antique plate was found in South about 100 A.D., and with this were found various articles "for use in the next world." These were recently unearthed and are here seen being examined by an expert.

"WE WILL REMEMBER VIENNA."—A panorama of the beautiful city taken some time ago when the previous scene was at its height.

"AUSTRALIA WILL BE THERE."—In the absence of finished teams and the necessity of sending a strong, an Australian entry was given a convincing display of horse-drawn and motorized skill.

MR SEMPLE'S CLAIM FOR NEW BILL

Traffic Officers' Power To Arrest

OPPOSITION CRITICISM

By Telegraph-Press Association
PARLIAMENTARY BILLS, Aug. 31.
Criticizing the Transport Law Amendment Bill, which was introduced into the House of Representatives this evening by the Minister of Transport (the Hon. R. Semple), the Rt. Hon. J. G. Coates considered that it was an encroachment on the rights of private business and also gave slight intention to protect the roads.

In introducing the Bill, Mr Semple said that it was meant to ensure greater safety on the roads. It would, he stated, prohibit the use of liquor on public vehicles and the power of arrest was given to traffic officers. A registration fee would be charged for bicycles. This, he claimed, would be a great help in tracing stolen cars and would help in shortening home offences by cyclists, who often gave away missing persons.

Mr Semple said that when a motorist was stopped by a traffic officer, he would be asked to produce his licence. If he failed to do so, he would be liable to a fine. He also said that the Bill would give traffic officers the power to stop a motorist if they had any reason to believe that the motorist was driving dangerously.
