NAZIS BEGIN HOSTILITIES

Warsaw Asks For British Aid Under Alliance

WIDESPREAD FRONTIER FIGHTING

Berlin Radio Announces the Blockade of Gdynia

FOREIGNERS WARNED OF WAR RISKS

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received September 2, 2 a.m.)

An official message from Berlin states that German troops have crossed all German-Polish frontiers.

Polish official sources have informed the British United Press that Poland has provided the military alliance with Britain and has asked for aid.

The Polish Foreign Office spokesman stated: "The Germans started military action shortly after 7 a.m. at different points of the frontier. This is undoubtedly German aggression against Poland. The only action to which the spokesman was unable to state exactly where hostilities were occurring.

From London, the Warsaw correspondent of the British United Press says that it is authoritatively learned that the first German air raids began at 4.30 a.m. at five unspecified points. The attacking squadrons were apparently not large and the extent of the damage is unknown.

In Berlin notices have been posted throughout the city mobilizing air raid precautions. Wardens knocked up sleepers wearing them to be ready for air raids.

President Roosevelt has received word from the American Ambassador in Warsaw that Germany has invaded Poland and that four Polish cities have been bombed.

The Warsaw correspondent of the Associated Press of America states that it is reported in Warsaw that Krakow, Katowice, Czer and Cieszkow were bombed by German planes early this morning.

At six o'clock this morning Warsaw was being shelled by airmen. An air raid was swifited. A later message states that German planes bombed Warsaw at 9 a.m.

An official message from Warsaw reports that German planes have bombed the railway station at Czere and also the town of Typtic and Putsk.

A later message from Paris reports that Polish sources say the Germans launched simultaneous attacks from Prussia and Slovakia, the northern army pressing towards Mlava, sixty miles north of Warsaw, and the southern forces moving up to Cieszkow, in Silesia.

Both are converted infantry drives supported by artillery and planes.

German bombing squadrons have attacked Gdynia.

Military circles in Warsaw, according to the United Press of America, state that general fighting has apparently begun on most parts of the frontier. Fighting is also taking place in Danzig.

The Berlin radio warns all Baltic shipping that the entrance from the Port of Gdynia is closed, and every ship entering or leaving risks the danger of being destroyed.

The blockade of Gdynia was previously announced by a cable message.

All frontiers have been taken over by the Berlin radio that Polish territory is in the danger zone and its presence there is at their own peril owing to the likelihood of military fire.

From London it is reported that residents at Gdwin, in Poland, have reported hearing artillery fire in the distance at 11.30 a.m.

The Berlin radio has warned that German communists are being driven out of Danzig into Polish hands.

Warlike orders passed from the Berlin radio which were still being obeyed and the streets quiet. They also barred and restricted movements.

German ships and diversions in the danger zones have been reported.

From Washington President Roosevelt has directed that all naval and air forces be immediately mobilized in readiness for hostilities between Germany and Poland.

The White House statement said: "The President received word at 3.30 a.m. Eastern Standard Time by telegraph from Ambassador Bullitt at Warsaw and Ambassador Bullitt at Paris that Germany has invaded Poland and that Polish cities are being bombed."

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received September 1, 1.30 a.m.)

The Berlin radio announces that the Nazi leader in Danzig (Herr Forster) communicated the following declaration to Herr Hitler:

"We Danzigers have just signed a constitutional law concerning the return of Danzig with the Reich from September 1, 1939, and I desire to express the need of the people of the State of the Free City in the following constitutional law:

"Article 1.—The constitution of the Free City of Danzig is cancelled with immediate effect.

"Article 2.—All legislative and executive power is in the hands of the Reich of the State.

"Article 3.—The Free City, with its territory and population, shall immediately form part of the territory of the German Reich.

"Article 4.—Until the Fuhrer makes a definite decision upon the introduction of German law, all legal provisions of the constitution remain in force as at present.

"I ask you, my Fuhrer, in the name of Danzig and by population, to agree to this constitutional law and to carry out the incorporation. The eternal gratitude and everlasting faith of Danzig is devotedly pledged to you."

"Signed" FOERSTER."

"Long live German Danzig! Long live the German Fuhrer!"

HITLER URGES HIS ARMY TO "MEET FORCE WITH FORCE"

Statement is Equivalent To Declaration Of War

"FIGHT FOR VITAL RIGHTS"

United Press Association—Copyright. (Received September 2, 1939.)

The text of Herr Hitler's proclamation, which was broadcast at 5.40 a.m. by the official German wireless station, said:

"The Fuhrer has issued the following proclamation to the Army: 'The Polish State has refused to meet force with force which I desire and has appealed to arms. Germans in Poland are persecuted and driven from their homes. This series of violations of the frontier are intolerable to a great Power and prove that Poland is no longer willing to respect the frontier of the Reich.'

"In order to do this I hereby have no other choice than to meet force with force from now on."

"The German Army will fight the battle for honour and with rights of return Germany with full determination. I expect that every soldier who is mindful of the great tradition of his German military will ever be prepared to meet force with force from now on."

"Long live our people and our Reich."

"New York associates say that Herr Hitler declared that Germany was prepared 'to meet with force with force.' He named Marshal Goring as the German commander 'who will fight for us in this struggle.' Herr Goring has (as usual) declared that he is a representative of the National Socialist German Government."

Calmsness, Courage, Unity
To-day's news brings word that Poland and Germany are at war. It has thus been necessary for New Zealand, in common with other parts of the Empire, to take such steps as are necessary for the public interest and for the defence of the country.

It is a time when all sections of the community should work together for one common purpose. It is also a time when all questions of party politics must cease.

It is to be hoped that the Government will set an example by an immediate invitation to the National Party to co-operate with them in the administration. There is no suggestion of criticism in this, but there can be no question that the services of the Opposition benches would materially strengthen the Government. The inclusion of them in the Opposition who have had experience in legislating during the last war, and who have a practical knowledge of the Government's service overseas, should be at once requisitioned.

A national government should be announced at the earliest possible moment, and the most able men from both sides should be included in the Cabinet. They should be chosen not because of their rank in the party they represent, but because of their individual merits.

Such a move undoubtedly would give immediate satisfaction to every section of the community. The people would accept this as a desirable gesture of practical knowledge of the Government's service overseas, which is represented in the emergency measures taken.

BROADCAST SPEECH BY MR FRASER

BRIEF REFERENCE New Zealand Defence Force is Secure

In a broadcast speech delivered at 11 o'clock this morning the Acting Prime Minister, Mr. H. G. Fraser, stated that the situation had changed very little since that of August. He highly recommended the utilization of the defence forces in the event of a declaration that war had been declared. He stated that the defence force was being trained in the public through the P.M.S. and that the defence force was being trained in the public through the P.M.S. and that the defence force was being trained in the public through the P.M.S.

GERMANY ANNOUNCES BLOCKADE OF GDYNIA

From London, the Warsaw correspondent of the British United Press says that it is authoritatively learned that the first German air raid began at 4.30 a.m. in five unspecified points. The attacking squadrons were apparently not large and the extent of the damage is unknown.

It is reported that about 50 planes participated in the bombing of Katowice. The Polish Embassy in London said that the towns bombed had been taken completely unawares.

"Nobody supposed that there would be a war without a declaration. Yet they have bombed our cities."

At Berlin notices have been posted throughout the city mobilizing air raid precaution forces. Wardens locked up sleepers warning them to be ready for air raids.

President Roosevelt has received word from the American Ambassador in Warsaw that Germany has invaded Poland and that four Polish cities have been bombed.

The Warsaw correspondent of the Associated Press of America states that it is reported in Warsaw that Krakow, Katowice, Gdynia and Gdosc have been bombed by German planes early this morning.

At six o'clock this morning Warsaw was attacked by seven German air raid squadrons. A later message states that German planes bombed Warsaw at 8 a.m.

The Polish Embassy in London reports that many lives, including women and children were lost in the Warsaw air raid. Communication with Warsaw has been suspended except by radio to Paris.

German bombing squadrons have attacked Gdynia.

An official message from Warsaw reports that German planes bombed the railway station at Czew and also the towns of Typiec and Putsk.

A later message from Paris reports that Polish sources say the Germans launched simultaneous attacks from Prussia and Slovakia. The northern army advanced towards Mlawa, sixty miles north of Warsaw, and the southern forces moving up to Czerskovo, in Poland.

Both are concerted infantry drives supported by artillery and planes.

The British United Press learns from Polish sources that the Polish Army is falling back slowly to defence positions in Upper Silesia, which were previously occupied by the Poles.

Fighting is also taking place in Danzig.

The Berlin radio warns all Baltic shipping that the entrance from the Port of Gdynia is closed, and every ship entering or leaving risks the danger of being destroyed.

The blockade of Gdynia was previously announced by a cable message.

All foreigners have been warned by the Berlin radio that Polish territory is in danger zone and their presence there is at their own peril owing to the likelihood of military action.

"It is a deliberate lie for anyone to suggest that we always try to prevent war by pressure. I have tried again this time to remove our demands by peaceful channels."

"All these proposals have been refused."

"If we are to be satisfied with the present situation, we must be prepared to make concessions. We are prepared to make concessions, but we are not prepared to make concessions which would mean the loss of our independence and our freedom."

Britain Says That Proposals Were Not Submitted When Stated

United Press Association-Copyright (Received Sept. 2, 4.45 a.m.)

LONDON, Sept. 1. A Warsaw message received today stated that Poland is not in any way prepared to accept the proposals which have been put forward by the German Government in London for a settlement of the dispute over the Polish frontier.

It is stated in official reports in London that the cabinet proposals that Germany made for a settlement of the dispute were read to the British Ambassador in Warsaw (Sir Horace White) last night. It is stated that the Ambassador communicated to him on the grounds that it was now too late for him to do so, as the British representative had already left the time limit.

Contrary to previous reports, "The Times" dispatches stated that in the last official Polish statement the German proposals were described as not being read over to Sir Neville Henderson on September 1st, and it was indicated by the Germans that they were not being communicated to him in Berlin or Warsaw.

The Polish Ambassador was not given the proposals on September 1st, it is stated, although the points in no way apply to the British proposal.

The German radio station today broadcast that the German Note of Thursday regarding the British suggestion of negotiation was not intended to be a declaration of cessation of hostilities, but that it was intended to be a declaration of cessation of hostilities only.

The text of Herr Hitler's proclamation, which was broadcast at 5.50 a.m. by the official German wireless station, said:

"The Fuehrer has issued the following proclamation to the Army: 'The Polish State has refused to accept our proposal which offers peace and has appealed to arms. Germans in Poland are persecuted with a bloody terror and driven from their homes. The series of violations of the frontier are intolerable to a great power and prove that Poland is no longer willing to respect the frontier of the Reich.'

"In order to end this state I have no other than to meet with force from now on."

"The German Army will fight the battle for honour and vital rights of entire Germany with the determination to expect that every soldier who is mindful of the great tradition of his fatherland will follow him."

"A Long live our people and our Reich."

"A New York message said that Herr Hitler declared that Germany was prepared 'to use blood and iron'."

"INFLEXIBLE DETERMINATION" OBLIGATIONS WILL BE FULLY FULFILLED

Polish Government Justified In Resisting OFFICIAL STATEMENT

United Press Association-Copyright (Received Sept. 2, 4 a.m.)

A statement has been issued from the highest official circles in London.

"It, as it seems, that Herr Hitler's proclamation means that Germany has declared war on Poland, then Britain and France are inflexibly determined to fulfil to the utmost their obligations to Poland."

The general attitude of the British Government is that if Germany is sincerely desirous of settling the dispute by negotiating, it would not have adopted this procedure, which has the character of an ultimatum.

The statement added that the Polish Government, in the opinion of the British Government, was fully justified in declining to accept the treatment which the German Government has endeavoured to impose.

The German account of the course of the negotiations "continues the statement," is wholly misleading. On August 25, 1939, Sir Neville Henderson said that he expected the Polish plenipotentiary to appear in Berlin on the following day with full powers to negotiate a settlement.

It was added that in the meantime he hoped to elaborate his proposals—in the opinion of the Polish Government, was expected to admit to the procedure imposed on the President of Czechoslovakia in order to terminate wholly unknown to the Polish Government.

The Polish Government was naturally unwilling to place itself in a position which is not customary even in the case of peace terms imposed on a defeated power to negotiate a settlement. Negotiations should not be allowed to refer to their Government for instructions.

PARLIAMENT BLDGS., Sept. 1

During the greater part of the afternoon the acting-Prime Minister (the Hon. F. Fraser) was absent from the House of Representatives and interest seemed to be lacking in the debate on the Estimates. Mr. Fraser, however, returned to his seat in the Chamber at 5.15 and held a hurried conference with the chief Government Whip (Mr. J. O'Brien), who in turn consulted the chief Opposition Whip (Mr. H. S. S. Kyle). The Leader of the Opposition (the Hon. J. G. Duggan) was in the Chamber, and the debate came to a sudden termination at 8.18, when progress was reported by the Chairman of Committees (Mr. McKelvey), and Mr. Fraser intimated that he had important statements to make.

The Speaker returned to his chair and Mr. Fraser read the following statement:

"I wish to state that his Excellency has to-day, on the advice of his Ministers, proclaimed a state of emergency under the Public Safety Conservation Act, 1932. The proclamation is entirely a matter of machinery and amounts to nothing more than a precautionary measure.

"The position is that, so long as our business, the New Zealand Defence Act contains an adequate provision authorising the making of those Orders-in-Council which have been drafted under the Public Safety Conservation Act and this Act, which authorises such measures, does not constitute a declaration of war, the Government has been made.

"The proclamation is necessarily a secondary act for the reason that it is deemed to have authority to make any necessary Orders-in-Council.
