GERMANY MAKES AN UNOFFICIAL PEACE PROPOSAL

"Reich Has No Quarrel With Allies"

NAZIS HAVE NO FURTHER ASPIRATIONS

Poland Is All She Wanted

NEW YORK, Sept. 24. A German official broadcast intercepted in New York declared that with the redrawing of Poland's frontiers the Reich had accomplished the work aims of Germany. "The war is over as far as German aspirations are concerned," the broadcast added. "England and the French have no real cause for war. Germany has no quarrel with England and France."

NAZIS CLAIM IMPORTANT ADVANCE

WAR PREPARATIONS

Spirit Retained

Offer to Foreign Diplomats. "The Times" Rotterdam correspondent writes from Cologne that German war preparations are proceeding at a rapid pace. "The German Government has issued a statement that it has no quarrel with any other nation, but that it is determined to defend its own interests."

Described in America as "not only the most important political event of the year," a broadcast from the German official organ on Sunday the 14th, was the first official denunciation of Poland's frontiers.

THE "PEACE OFFENSIVE"—AND RUSSIA
Both Germany and Italy knew that the developments in Poland and the Balkans have rendered them vulnerable to such a stab in the back. And that is why the "peace offensive" is being pushed out vigorously—not to end the war, but to save their skins from a possible Communist thrust at a later stage.
